SHORT JABS

A fool pleasant about his foolishness is a better associate than a wise man who is a bear.

No man is perfect and whenever he gets caught he seems to take a good deal of pride in the fact.

The man who is fond of saying, "A woman's place is the home," generally isn't the kind that provides her with one.

Content with small things, you'll never do big things—but who will know the difference in ten years?

Children can be very helpful to parents and friends, if they will, and one way is by refusing to show off their accomplishments before company.

Why do they always refer to him as an "old" bachelor? Some of the worst ones are young.

Of course it's wrong to kick a man when he's down but who is going to kick him when he's up? He has a bigger kick than the kicker?

The old-fashioned milkman that always gave an extra pint to the customers along the end of his route?

The only really important ancestors are those that are alive.

A June bride may not know much about cooking but she knows that so long as she is a June bride she won't need to know anything about it.

You wouldn't admit it publicly but you know that a fool is anybody that doesn't agree with you.

The only way to remain popular is to make a loud noise before entering any room where a group of your friends are reading pedigree.

Teacher—You see, had the lamb been obedient and stayed in the fold it would not have been eaten by the wolf, would it? Boy—No, ma'am, it would have been eaten by us.—New York Watchman.

Thinking persons not only have the inalienable right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, as have other people, but they also have the additional inalienable right to privacy when they need it.

There is such a thing as happiness. Everybody knows who enjoy relating their troubles.

A crank is often a man who has a good idea which he can't work out. A success, the man who works it out.

Oratory proves nothing, as long as the masses believe the voice will be at a premium brains.

MAKE it easier to get around and you make healthier and happier communities. No one any longer questions the worth of the automobile—or begrudges any legitimate expense connected with it.

But millions of car owners are rebelling at the idea that running an automobile has got to mean waste.

II

Every now and then you hear a neighbor complain that "he doesn't seem to have much luck with tires."

Send him to us.

The minute a man begins to question the service his tires are giving him, he's ready to listen to reason.

Our business is built on the principle that the only way to get better tire service is to get better tires to start with.

That's why we have taken the representation for U. S. Tires.

III

U. S. Tires have a reputation for quality.

Built up through years of creating better tires. Such as the straight side automobile tire, the pneumatic truck tire.

It is not by chance that U. S. Tires are made by the oldest and largest rubber concern in the world.

We are proud to represent U. S. Tires in this community.
