

OVER THE COUNTY

DEER ISLAND

Mrs Bert Adams drove to Portland Wednesday.

Carl Hammer spent the week end visiting relatives and friends.

Meryl Cook of Yakima, Washington, is visiting the Frank Dalys.

Walter Wolff and Gilbert Cooper returned from the beach Tuesday.

Haying is in full swing or would be if men were not so hard to obtain.

O J. McConnel went to Sherwood Saturday, returning Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Gaittens came up from Mist Saturday on a short visit.

Everyone had words of praise for St. Helens' hospitality and enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold English are tenting for the summer months on by Lee's mills.

Mrs. Page and Mrs. Short of Vancouver were guests at Clover Hill over Sunday.

The womans club will meet with Mrs. Frank Daly Wednesday afternoon, July 14th.

Word has been received that Mrs. Henderson, Astoria, is improving rapidly and expects to leave the hospital before long.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller are visiting in Kelso. Ray Gaittens is taking care of the confectionery and telephone business during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hanson and little daughters drove to Seaside Saturday. They returned home sooner than planned owing to the illness of Elizabeth.

Mr. and Mrs. Andress and Marion Andress, Hartwell Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Foss Cox and children took a two days motor trip up the highway, coming home Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley and children were down from Portland Saturday, guests of Mr. Brown and daughter Alice. Mrs. Wiley was Martha Popejoy and lived on the Muckle ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Daly, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daly and daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bourbon went to Seaside Saturday, returning Monday. Mrs. Frank Daly won the matrons race on the Fourth.

Monday afternoon another car was wrecked on the fill just beyond McBride canyon while two cars were badly damaged Monday evening near the underground crossing. The highway was a steady procession of cars from four o'clock all night, though to say steady is to misuse a perfectly good word as it was a mad scramble to see who could get killed first.

TRENHOLM

Mr. and Mrs. E. Johnston, from Kalama, Washington, spent an enjoyable visit with relatives on the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hyde are the proud parents of a baby girl, named Melba Irene. She weighed 7 1/4 lbs. when born. Her birthday hereafter will be June 29th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith and Junior, Trenholm for a visit July 4th. While from Milton Creek camp, came up to here they remained at the home of Mr. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Satava entertained a crowd of friends at their mountain home July 4th and 5th. Those who came were Mr. and Mrs. Piggett and daughter Bernice, Miss Agnes Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. Lovgren, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Satava, son and daughter-in-law of the hosts. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Satava remained over until Monday evening, the rest returning Sunday evening. The affair had been planned on for some time, and it turned out a complete success. The visitors were all from Portland.

The young people of Trenholm held a dance at an empty house in the vicinity Saturday evening, July 3rd. The orchestra was a one-piece, which was a violin. Mr. G. Hyde played and also Mr. E. Johnston. The illumination was one lantern hung on a nail in the room. Those present were, Marion and Charley Eversaul, Clifford and Kenneth Fowler, Earnest Smith, Elmo Satava, Enid Tarbell, Florence Eversaul and I. Winberg. Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. Johnston. While one missed the modern conveniences of the ordinary dance hall, yet everyone called it a successful evening and departed for home about 12:30.

RAINIER

(From the Review)

Paul C. Garrison, of Prineville, Oregon, and formerly editor of the Review, was here last Tuesday meeting his old-time friends.

The new drug store which has been erected by Geo. Bowen, is now completed, and Mr. Bowen moved his drug stock into it the first of the week.

Rainier's Annual Sweet Pea Show will be held immediately following Chautauqua week, or about the middle of July. This event should not be overlooked by the people of Rainier, as it is a worthy enterprise and is deserving of the support of the people of Rainier.

John W. Pugh, who resides about twelve miles west of Rainier, was here yesterday on his way to Portland where he will attend the annual meeting of the Oregon Pioneer Association of which he is a member. Mr. Pugh is numbered among our oldest settlers, he having taken up his homestead in 1885.

The Menefee mill closed yesterday for the period of one month. The close-down is made for the reason as given by the manager, Mr. Eugene Allen, that the product of the mill cannot be disposed of at a profit under present operating expenses. We trust, however, that the shut-down will not last over the thirty-day period as is now the intention.

"Dad" Harris, who resides at Red Town, back of Gobie, was attacked by an angry bull last Thursday evening. One of his sons shot the animal three times with a small rifle and finally had to beat him off with a club. Mr. Harris was cut over one of his eyes and was injured more or less about the breast. His injuries, while painful, were by no means serious.

DOWNING

Haying is in full swing, and the weather is ideal.

Cal Atchinson of Delena visited at the Dowling farm Friday.

Conrad Snider of Clatskanie is visiting at the Dowling home.

County Agent Phippin was in this vicinity during the week.

A number of friends from Washington of Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Olson spent the holidays with them and enjoyed the doings at St. Helens.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hedwall and family of Portland spent the last week with the family of A. L. Larson. They may become permanent residents of Warren.

The Swedish Lutheran Sunday school held their annual picnic on July 5th in the Dahlgren grove. Visitors were present from Portland, Gladstone and other points. A splendid time was enjoyed with a program consisting of music, songs, and readings was carried. A large crowd attended and the lunch was served in old picnic style under the trees. The Sunday school under the supervision of Mrs. Dahlgren is very active and progressing rapidly.

Sneak thieves visited A. H. Carlson's residence on Tuesday night and stole 275 grain sacks and a 5 gallon can of gasoline from his barn. The sneaks opened the fence and allowed his herd of cattle to tramp all night in his wheat field. Mr. Carlson wishes to warn all to keep a careful watch as there are a great many "junk peddlers" travelling over the country. There is no clue to the thieves. Mrs. Carlson heard a truck during the night but paid no attention, thinking it was one of the many now on the roads.

BACHELOR FLAT

Mrs. F. Nagel left Monday to visit her brother at Walport.

Mr. Lawrence Johnson spent a few days at home this week.

Mrs. S. Nagel visited at the Wm. Soddenberg home Wednesday.

Mrs. Olga Stevens and son and Mr. and Mrs. Powell of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Madsen over the Fourth.

Miss Esther Hollingworth returned home last Friday after attending the Shriners' convention and Rose festival in Portland.

Mrs. Carl Hollingworth went to Hood River Wednesday where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley, for some time.

Wm. Soddenberg and family, Oscar Erickson and family and Fern Grewell and family motored to Seaside Sunday to spend the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Pope entertained the following guests over the Fourth: Mr. and Mrs. Park, Dr. and Mrs. Spaulding, and Mrs. Matthews, all of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Muckle entertained Mr. and Mrs. Parker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ferris and family, and Mr. P. Brakke Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nils Lindberg and family arrived at their home on the Flat. They expect to remain for an indefinite time before returning to the camp at Knappton where Mr. Lindberg works.

SCAPPOOSE

The Gatchell cottage is being repaired. Mr. Grewell is the artist.

D. W. Price and family motored to Seaside Saturday to spend the Fourth.

Charles Lamberson and family motored to Seaside Friday for a week's outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Peters are spending the summer with their mother, Mrs. Cloninger.

Valdis White is home, also the Siefert family spent July 4th with Mr. and Mrs. Lefe Brown.

Mrs. Quolness of Montana, formerly of North Dakota, spent the week end with the Blatenfords.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills left for their ranch at Lyle, Washington. They will be gone a couple of months.

The new garage of Charles Wikstrom will open for business as soon as the highway is paved in front of the building.

Mr. Jim McKay met with an accident when going over a fence, the rail gave way and in falling she broke her wrist.

The Wikstrom family, Mr. and Mrs. I. G., their children and grandchildren, picniced along Scappoose creek on the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hammaker (nee Francis Scholts) came from Tacoma and spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Scholtz.

Mitchell Cloninger of Astoria, drove as far as Scappoose Saturday and on Sunday they all drove up the highway as far as Mount Hood.

Mrs. Ash of Portland has rented the restaurant of Robt. McKay and will open just as soon as she can get possession, probably by the 20th of this month.

Word of two deaths reached the community. Miss Martin of Salem, our primary teacher, lost her mother and Grandma Cobbs who just recently moved from here.

Dr. and Mrs. Hatfield, the Washburn family and Pomeroy's joined the DeGraft family, Holodays, Blatenfords, Grimms and Niblocks in a picnic in Clay DeGraft's park on the Fourth.

Robt McKay has sold his stock and rented his meat market and dwelling to R. Lonsetts of Spokane. The new comers take possession this week of the store, and the McKay family will occupy the dwelling until fall.

Nearly the entire population headed for St. Helens on the Fourth to enjoy the festivities. The Scappoose float was designed and carried out by Gladys Johnson, Mrs. Watts and

E. Wist. It was by far the most original and most clever float in the parade.

Miss Grace DeGraft entertained Miss Leah Cohen of Portland Wednesday and in the afternoon Miss Cohen sang for friends. Miss Cohen is a soprano of national reputation and gave a concert in the municipal auditorium in Portland last week. She is the third person who has attempted giving an entire concert in the auditorium and her voice filled it. She is at present on a tour of concerts, under direction of the American Music association.

Summer Complaint Quickly Relieved

"About two years ago when suffering from a severe attack of summer complaint, I took Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it relieved me almost instantly," writes Mrs. Henry Jewett, Clark Mills, N. Y. This is an excellent remedy for colic and diarrhoea and should be kept at hand by every family.
