

MIST MISTINGS

Leland Austin spent Sunday in Portland.

Joe Clark visited with friends in Portland Sunday.

Henry Larsen went up to Oregon City Sunday to see the home folks. S. C. Morton and family are enjoying the sea breezes down Astoria way this week.

Guy Copeland was a business visitor in the metropolis up the river Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Colt motored to Portland Sunday and spent a few hours with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Serafin of Trenholm were Sunday visitors with relatives in St. Helens.

The Roy family are rejoicing in the arrival of a 9½-pound baby girl at their home Monday night.

Mrs. Margaret Morgan and son returned the first of the week from a ten days' visit at Seattle.

August Nordin, a progressive farmer of the Warren section, was a business visitor in the county seat Friday.

J. H. Thatcher is taking this week off from business cares and is enjoying the roll of the sad sea waves at Seaside.

Dr. Thompson's services make correct glasses a certainty. Next visit Wednesday, Aug. 11, Oradiah Hotel all day. 33-2t

Mrs. Roy Stewart and the young idol of the Stewart household returned the first of the week from a week's visit at the seashore.

Prof. W. L. Rutherford, new superintendent of the city schools, returned Monday from a week's absence in Portland and other Oregon cities.

Mrs. Carrie Dodson of Columbia City was a St. Helens visitor last Monday. Mrs. Dodson is planning on her annual visit to California this fall.

Mrs. C. T. Kavanagh went to Portland Monday evening to meet her sister, Miss Mary Tlegen of Bismarck, N. Dak., who will remain here on a vacation.

R. Sessemann, prominent rancher of the Nehalem valley, was transacting business in St. Helens last Friday, and journeyed on from here to Portland.

Editor Veatch of the Rainier Review, accompanied by his wife and son, was a county seat visitor Saturday, not overlooking a brief call on the Mist.

Miss Jennie Marin who has been living in San Francisco for the past several years, arrived in St. Helens Sunday and will make her home here for the present.

John L. Storka was down Rainier and Clatskanie way Sunday in the interest of the Port of Columbia proposition. He met with good success and found the people of those sections favorable to the plan of creating a port.

Dr. E. C. Wade is the possessor of a brand new Ford coupe, one of the very best and most up-to-date, so the doctor says, that Henry Ford has so far turned out from his factory. And Fieldhouse, from whom the purchase was made, freely backs him up in the assertion.

William D. Bennett, democratic candidate for public service commissioner for the western district, was in St. Helens Wednesday putting a few props under his political forces. Mr. Bennett believes in that early bird and worm theory and is getting into the game early.

Arthur Connahee spent the week end with some friends at Astoria.

A. E. Harvey of Clatskanie was in St. Helens for a few hours Thursday. Mrs. S. L. Gossett of Natoma, Kansas, visiting her sister, Mrs. George Perry.

Mrs. L. F. Forstrom, from St. Cloud, Cal., is visiting friends and relatives in Warren.

Mrs. B. Engstrom of Warren, accompanied by her daughter, motored to Albany to visit friends, returning home Sunday.

The Swedish Baptist "Mission Circle" will meet at the home of Mrs. Hammerbeck at 2:30 p. m. on Aug. 11th.

Mrs. H. E. Wyman of Minneapolis, Minn., is a guest this week of Mrs. H. D. Scott. The two ladies were girlhood friends.

Ed. Ballagh was out Wednesday for the first time in ten days, having been laid up at home under the weather, so to speak.

J. A. Wikstrom and family of Othello, Wash., and J. W. Van Natta and family spent the week end at Seaside last week.

Billy Flynn, who has been working in the filling room at the mill during the absence of Mr. Malming, spent Sunday at his home in Silverton.

O. L. Wheeler, who was injured while at work in the lath department of the St. Helens mill some time ago, is still at the Good Samaritan hospital.

A card from C. H. Thompson, who left here a few weeks ago for the east, says that himself and wife are both well and having a fine time at Ionia, Michigan.

Miss Beth Perry left Sunday for Fern Hill to re-open school there. Until September 1st she will instruct only the first grade, the regular school session beginning then.

Miss Agnes Engstrom, who for the past month has been staying with her sister, Mrs. Hammerbeck, has returned to her position in Portland. She will enter a business college this fall.

Ben Copeland and Neal East went over into the wilds of Nehalem valley yesterday to commune with nature and fish a little. Ben will probably do the fishing and Neal the communing—and likely under the shade of a tree. They will return today.

Mrs. Clara Miller was made happy Sunday by the assembling of all of her children to spend the day with her. Those present at the little reunion were: Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Miller and daughter, Maryanna, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rahn of Salem; and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse.

Sherman Miles, candidate for representative in the legislature from Columbia county, was in the south end of the county Thursday meeting the voters. Promises of support by many representative citizens, many of whom have known Sherman since he was a boy, were very encouraging to him he said.

In remitting for a year's subscription to the Mist, C. J. Bardell of Goble adds this postscript: "I like your paper fine and want it still to come." Such expressions of good will toward the Mist are not unusual and this paper certainly feels grateful for such kindly spoken words. Our constantly growing subscription list and the interest shown in the paper's welfare by those already on the list is an attestation of its popularity as a newsy paper, thoroughly alive to all interests, in all parts of the county. It is our aim to give the people of Columbia county a paper representative of the county, and with the co-operation of its citizens we hope to increase this representation and make the Mist a better paper as time passes.

Mrs. A. B. Lake who has been visiting friends in Seattle, returned home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Morton and children and Miss Olga Heilborn returned Wednesday from a several days visit in Astoria.

T. B. Lott left Thursday morning for Portland where he will attend the annual conference of the Wesleyan Methodist church.

Miss Clara Bracher of Portland who has been here for several weeks giving Charles L. Wheeler, Jr., the proper start in life, left for her home Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. John Hendricksen who has been in a Portland hospital for some time recovering from an operation is expected home this week. The Hendricksens have been living in the Warren neighborhood, but recently moved to St. Helens. Mr. Hendricksen being employed at the mill.

Mine Host Rotger of the St. Helens hotel is a busy man these days with the paint brush. By the judicious application of paint he is transforming the interior of that hospitable house into an appearance of being new. The entire interior is being given new coats of paint and kalsomine.

Columbia post of the American Legion has plans laid for a dance in the city hall Saturday night. The boys are gaining quite a rep for their pleasant little dancing parties and this one will probably be no exception in the way of a pleasant evening spent in the mazy whirl on a good floor to good music. You are invited.

C. F. A. Crouse left Tuesday evening for Crouseville, Maine, where he will make an indefinite stay. Crouseville takes its name from the Crouse family and is the old home of the older generation. Mr. Crouse has been a resident of Columbia county for thirty years and this will be his first visit to the old home since leaving there. He opines that he will stay there, but the Mist is inclined to the belief that a few months will create a yearning for old Oregon that will bring him back again.

Clarence Goin, a St. Helens boy and a student at the Moody Bible Institute of Los Angeles gave a real treat to some of the people of St. Helens last Sunday morning when he occupied the pulpit of the Congregational church. Mr. Goin preached a very beautiful sermon which was rich with scriptural truths. Mr. Goin is a young man of whom St. Helens should be proud and encourage as he is, if not the only one, the first for many years who has chosen as his life work, the ministry of the Gospel.

M. Rieen decided he wanted a short vacation and even though it is summertime, decided to go to California. The reason can be ascribed, however, to the fact that he wanted to see his children, Edgar and Helen, who are with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Rosenthal at San Monica, and that it was not so much a vacation he wanted as a visit with his children. Edgar will return to Oregon with Mr. Rieen and Miss Helen will remain in California for the winter.

AUBURN
Beauty-SIX

Quality Goes Clear Through

On long, hard hills and through heavy going, the Auburn exerts an eager, even-pulling power. It is smooth and quiet in performance and it wrings the last bit of mileage from each drop of gasoline.

The Auburn is a car that earns your good will through good performance.

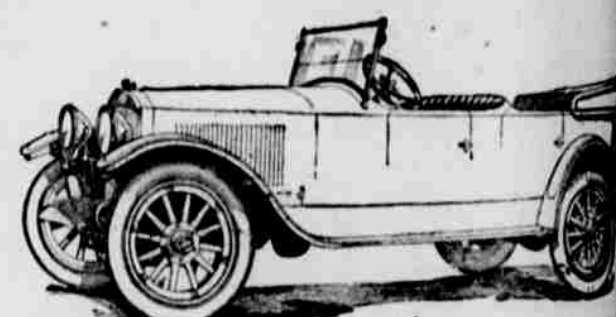

It is a very easy-riding car. It does not bump you as jar you on bad roads as many cars do.

It hangs closely to the road bed even when traveling high speed.

And its average mileage per gallon of gas, quart of oil, set of tires is distinctly high.
