Messrs. Deming and Quick returned Friday from their week's annual outing at Big Eddy in the Nehalem valley. Aside from trouble experienced in reaching their destination on account of a cantankerous automobile, they put in a week of unalloyed pleasure with the rod, frying pan, camp fire and all that goes with life in the woods and a stream full of trout. Some of the envious and less fortunate in the enjoyment of an outing are mean enough to say that their fish bill of fare consisted of salt herring, but neither of them look it. Both came back looking well fed and healthy. Especially was the trip beneficial to Mr. Quick, who was beginning to feel the bad effects of his close confinement in the office.

Go to the "Elite" variety store for your notions and staples in dry goods, etc.

MAUDE MILLER

SATURDAY, AUGUST 21ST

NAZIMOVA

"The Heart of a Child"

A story of the sordid Limehouse district of London—to be compared only with the lower East Side in New York. The wonderful Nazimova has in this play a vehicle worthy of her talents, and she plays the part of Sally Snape, an outcast of the slums, in a most realistic manner.

You will see the screen's greatest actress in a story that stirs and charms you and leaves you convinced that the world is considerably better than half bad.

Mack Sennett Comedy
"UNCLE TOM WITHOUT HIS CABIN"

SUNDAY, AUGUST 22ND

DOROTHY DALTON

"The Lady of Red Butte"

She had had the wrath of God called upon her head by the fanatic evangelist because she ran the gambling house in the town he called "accursed."

Yet she made him love her—the kind of love he did not believe existed this side of Heaven

FRIDAY, AUGUST 20TH

LILA LEE

"PUPPY LOVE"

Did you ever wonder how some girls get all their beaux? It is a funny thing—take Lila Lee, she's just a little country girl in gingham and a sunbonnet, and yet she has a string of sweethearts long enough to reach from her house to the crossroads. How does she do it? It's a secret! Want to know?

2-Reel Comedy
"JAZZY JANITOR"

MONDAY, AUGUST 23RD

BILLIE BURKE

"God Gracious, Annabelle"

What In The World Did Annabelle Do?

Do! Heavens alive, my dear, what did Annabelle do? Didn't you hear? Everybody is talking about it! She has shocked and scandalized all of our set. But what can we do about it?

He's a billionaire miner—makes twenty thousand dollars a day or some such absurd sum—a miner! Can you imagine it! And she was married! Had been for years. And the terrible thing about it was that she didn't know her husband's name! Or what he looked like.
