SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Columbia County. Hilda McGraw, Plaintiff, vs. Lawrence McGraw, Defendant. Lawrence McGraw, the above named defendant, is the Name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the 1st day of November, 1920, that being six weeks after the date of first publication of summons (herein,) and answer the complaint herein, and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof plaintiff apply to the court for the relief demanded in her complaint, to-wit: for a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for a further decree awarding to plaintiff the care, custody and control of minor children, to-wit: James L. McGraw and Thomas H. McGraw, and for such other and further relief as may be just and equitable. This summons is served upon you by order of Hon. J. A. Eakin, Judge of the above entitled Court, dated November 1, 1920, requiring the same to be published once a week for successive weeks in the St. Helens Mist, and the date of the first publication prescribed thereby is September 17th, 1920, and of last publication October 29th, 1920. E. J. MENDENHALL, Attorney for plaintiff. Post office box 926 Chamber of Commerce Bldg., Portland, Oregon.

TELEPHONE and TELEGRAPH

A girl who is considering earning her living by being a telephone or telegraph operator should ask herself a number of questions. The first of these is: Am I a nervous person, or can I hold up under work which is considerable of a strain. Being reasonably certain that she will not break down after a few years of this, she must next ask herself if she will be contented to work long hours at this kind of work and receive for it merely moderate pay.

If she finds she is a person of steady nerves, is not well enough educated nor ambitious enough to make the struggle necessary to climb into work which will give shorter hours and higher pay, she will find in these openings a "sure" job, which will give her steady employment and is needed in every town in the country; it is hence easy to find employment. The work is not seasonal, but continues all years around with no lay-off spells. She will have direction, and a program laid out for her so she will not have to exert herself to blaze her own trail. She will know just how much will be in her pay envelope each week and can count on it. For many girls who plan to work only temporarily, or wish to have some job not difficult to learn, and who must accept a position in their own home town, these openings are very acceptable.

To learn either of these jobs a girl may go to a school, or course of study takes about six or seven weeks. But most girls learn this work in an actual office where they begin with light work or part time work and are paid a small salary from the first. From this time on the pay is gradually increased until it reaches its limit of about $12 to $18 a week, depending upon the size and importance of the office employing her and the accuracy and speed of the work they expect of her. Supervisors and experts are paid more but the work is more exacting and such positions are fewer.

A grammar school education and the ability to write legibly are necessary qualifications. Opportunities for advancement are not as numerous as in some other positions and the continual strain is apt to break a girl down before she reaches a high place.

To polish shoes use an oil, not a liquid nor acid polish. Do not polish too frequently, but wipe off gently with a soft, slightly greasy cloth. Too much rubbing wears the leather. Vaseline, neat oil, or linseed oil help to preserve the leather and make it water-proof. Waxing the soles when new makes them wear nearly twice as long. To varnish the soles has much the same effect.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT

To the Voters of Columbia County: I again call your attention to the fact that I am an independent candidate for the office of County Commissioner, at the election to be held November 2nd, 1920. And in support of my announcement I submit the following for your consideration: I am a legal voter and a taxpayer of Columbia county; have lived in said county nearly twelve years; am a republican by trade, but not working at it now. My reasons for being an independent candidate are just this: No one asked me to run, and I do not want anyone to tell me to quit. I am not making any promises as to just what I will do if elected, further than this, I will do what my own best judgment tells me is best for the greatest number, for I am not tied to any corporation, community or individual.

If elected I promise the people of Columbia county my very best efforts. If I am not elected, I'll be yours truly just the same. N. O. LARABEE

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Columbia. Claude Eversizer, Plaintiff, vs. Emma Eversizer, Defendant. To Emma Eversizer, GREETINGS: In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within and not later than six weeks after the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to so appear and answer, the plaintiff will take a decree against you as prayed for in the complaint filed herein to-wit: for an absolute divorce forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing by and between the plaintiff and defendant herein, and for such other and further relief as may be deemed equitable and meet in the premises, and for his costs and disbursements herein incurred.

The complaint herein is based upon the statutory grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and the order for the publication of summons was made on or about the 15th day of October, 1920, by the Honorable J. A. Eakin, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Columbia County, and in which order it was specified that this summons be published for a period of six consecutive weeks, in the "St. Helens Mist," a newspaper of general circulation in Columbia County, Oregon. First date of publication to be made on the 22d day of October, 1920, and the last publication to be made on the 3rd day of December, 1920.

W. W. DEAN, Attorney for Plaintiff, Morgan Bldg., Portland, Oregon.

THE CHILDREN'S FUN

Of all the regrets of my life, I have never regretted the time I have spent playing with the children. Often it is hard to stop in the midst of fruit canning and come out and admire the children's tent or to "crawl" in once and see how nice it is, but it enhances the value of the possession to have Mother appreciate it, and it makes for chumminess and your hold on the affections and confidence of the children.

A few short years and the laughing little girl who teases you to play house with her will be out battling the world earning her own living; struggling to keep her vigor amidst unfavorable surroundings, perhaps, or suffering loneliness and homesickness in a strange city. Lay down your sewing and share her crackers and water at her doll tea-party. Her childish laughter is worth more than the ruffles on her frock.

Do not shoo the boy out of the house with his hammer and saw and boards and nails. Find him a place to build his visions under the friendly home roof—even if you have to clear a corner of the parlor for it. Late years have taught us to shudder at what the future may bring to our growing boys. Trouble enough in this old world and their young shoulders may have to slip under the burdens, no knowing how soon. Toss him the ball when he asks you to. Nothing on earth is more important than that. Side-track anything you have on hand while the lad still does you an honor enough he will find entertainment far away if you drive him to it.

And when they wish to bring their young friends home for a frolic, turn the house over to them. Your sheets are none too good to serve as curtains for their drama; your rugs are not too choice to be danced over by innocent young feet; you can buy a new piano later if you have to but you cannot re-buy a wasted opportunity to bring your children up in happiness.

They and we pass this way but once, and their abiding with us is so brief after all. Let us be certain that their childhood is the time of joy they have a right to expect. And when we apportion our time, let us make a generous allotment to family fun, and then, no matter what the future may bring, we have at least packed their memories with bright spots of sweetness "where neither moth nor rust can corrupt nor thieves break through and steal."

The accessories of dress, hat, shoes and gloves—mark the lady more definitely than does the gown. They are "straws that show which way the wind blows" and indicate whether or not the dress covers a real thorough-bred or a "make-believe."

RECIPES

Cake! Doesn't the word have a pleasant ring? So long we have been short rationed on sugar, either from patriotism or thrift, that now our sweet tooth aches to be satisfied, and, since sugar is coming down, the family conscience, and purse will stand for it—hence CAKE!

Sponge Cake

Serve hot for supper. To cup and a half sugar, add a half teaspoon salt, yolks of three eggs, half cup of cold water and vanilla to taste. Mix. Sift thoroughly two and a half cups flour with two teaspoons of baking powder. Add to mixture, then fold in well beaten whites of the three eggs and bake in a moderate oven. If, pressing on the top with the finger, the cake is elastic and shows no depression, it is done.

Devil's Food Cake

First Part—One cup brown sugar, one cup grated chocolate or three tablespoons cocoa, half cup sweet milk. Dissolve on stove but do not boil. When cold, stir into second part and bake in two layers. Second Part—One cup brown sugar, half cup sour milk, half cup shortening, three eggs (save out whites of two for frosting), two cups flour sifted with half teaspoon soda. Frost with white frosting on top and between layers.

WHY JOIN A PARTY

"Both parties are corrupt and I shall join neither," say some. If this is the true situation, then we are "fiddling while Rome burns." Why not get inside the party and put an end to the corruption. It will not disappear by being called names, nor by our aloofness. Our government is a party government and if we stay outside of the parties we must stand by and watch while others run our government. We ignore our responsibility to rectify its defects. We cannot clean house from the outside!

LEGION MEETING

There will be a meeting of Columbia Post, American Legion, Monday night, November 1, 1920, county court house, St. Helens. All members are urged to be present as subjects of interest will be taken up. Final arrangements are to be made for Armistice Day, November 11, 1920.

All ex-service men who have not made application for Victory medals must do so at once. Applications can be had at the meeting Monday night or by calling at the post office, St. Helens.

W. A. RUSSELL, Post Commander.

Winchester Knives For Everything

WHY does a woman prefer a Winchester Kitchen Knife for even such easy cutting as trimming a pie?

Simply because Winchester Knives are made so well, out of such good steel, that she unconsciously forms the habit of using them for everything.

Come in this week and see the special display we are making of Winchester Cutlery, which keeps sharp so long.
