SHE WAS LONELY, HIS PICTURE LOOKED GOOD AND—

When he sent her a picture of his best friend, telling her that it was his own, he never thought of it as anything but a joke. Then she wrote, saying how lonely she was, and he felt sorry for her and asked her to come to him, thinking he could explain away his "joke". But when the man of the picture held her up and imprisoned her— And when she escaped to find the author of the joke about to take a little journey at the end of a rope— Complicated fix to be in, isn't it?
