ANSWER THE CALL

"The Greatest Mother on Earth" is calling for assistance. For years she has served nobly and unselfishly. At home and abroad she has ministered lovingly, patiently and sympathetically to the sick and wounded. The call of distress she has always heard and answered. She knows no class or creed; the rich and the poor are on the same footing for her mission is to serve mankind, alleviate suffering and bring cheer to the cheerless. She is the mother of the world—The Red Cross. Will we forget her?

We are prone to forget. When loving fingers are stilled how soon, sometimes, do we forget those who served us well. It seems only a few days ago when we were praising God for the Red Cross. Mothers and fathers who had sons overseas and in the cantonments here knew the Red Cross was there and everywhere and if, perchance, the son was wounded or sick, or if in battle he had made the sacrifice, they knew the Red Cross mother was with the son; there to comfort and aid.

During the war the service of this great and merciful organization gained recognition from all. The war is now over, the work of the empires is over, but not so with the Red Cross, for their work continues and this work will continue so long as there is a service of mercy to be performed.

The annual roll call is now being held. Contributions of one dollar and upward are asked. The work of mercy must be continued. Columbia county has never failed to answer a patriotic call; it will not do so now.

A dollar means little to us, but aggregate dollars mean much to the Red Cross. It will enable them to carry on the work and their work is necessary.

The bible says "The Lord loves a cheerful giver" and we believe the Red Cross would say "We love a volunteer contributor." Solicitors will call on you, but would you not feel more like a real human when he called if you could show him your subscription badge as a voluntary contributor?

Don't have to be solicited; grab your check book and write in the amount you want to give for the work you so shortly ago advocated. You needn't confine yourself to $1; contribute as your conscience dictates.

The Red Cross doesn't forget. We must not forget.

William Russell is county chairman for Columbia county, Ed. Jones is in charge of the work in St. Helens. Save them the trouble of calling on you; mail your contribution to either of them.

"RENDER UNTO CAESAR THE THINGS THAT ARE CAESAR'S"

Down in a certain historic spot on the Potomac River there is a tragedy that deserves at least a parting glance and a parting thought.

The nation has gone through perilous times. Perhaps no more critical period ever was faced by this nation of Americans. During all this period Woodrow Wilson has shouldered the responsibility of the nation and has endeavored to bear the burden alone.

Whatever we may think about this man, and all of us have undoubtedly had hard thoughts at times—the fact remains that Woodrow Wilson will go down in history as one of the nation's great men.

In all sincerity of purpose, he has sacrificed his health and probably his life on the altar of his country's need and now let us be grateful for the man and his work and try to forget his mistakes.

There is a tremendous lesson in this pathetic figure. Sincerity of purpose, idealistic though it may be, is always admirable, but no one man can afford to ignore the thought and counsel of his associates, friends or selling as in natina affairsgarchy enemies and set up for himself a mental oligarchy. Such a man will surely fall. It is as true in business and selling as in national affairs.—Arco Bulletin.

SPEED FIENDS

The highways have been completed and dedicated to the public. A hard surfaced pavement extends from Portland to the sea. It was built for the benefit of the public but unless some of the speed fiends can be controlled the public will have little use of it. The highway was not built for a race track, it was built as a connecting link between communities, but the fool at the wheel of an automobile seems to think it was built especially or him.

During the past sixty days Traffic Officer Weigle has brought in a number o speed fends. They have been fined and allowed to go on their way. Some of them, possibly, were taught a lesson. We hope so. The speed cop was not hired to return a profit to the county; he was hired to enforce the city and state laws. Weigle has done this. The laws are for the protection of the public and such laws should be enforced. The Mist is pleased that Weigle has been enforcing the laws, and if he continues to do so before long it will be safe to travel the highways.

Public safety comes first and the speed fends who have no respect for law or life or limb must be brought to this realiation. Go after them Weigle and stay with them.

BANKERS URGE THRIFT

The American Banking association proposes a three year thrift campaign to reach every family in the country. As a part of the campaign, governmental officials would be called upon to practice the utmost economy so as to reduce federal expenditures. The Thrift Campaign does not mean to stop buying but to start producing and saving. We have been through an orgie of extravagance and waste. Small savers are to be the chief ource in financing the normal growth of commerce and industry, says the association, adding that present tax policies offer a serious check to increasing investment by holders of large wealth. Not only must the individual citizen and wage earner be taught to save, but our government officials must also be impressed with this necessity. The tax burden upon industry and commerce, and upon the millions of savings, which would otherwise be used to finance new industries and new commerce is beyond all reason and in excess of public need.

The voters of St. Helens favor the establishment of a port. The voters in all other precincts do not favor it. This being the case, it would seem proper for St. Helens to establish the Port of St. Helens if Columbia county does not wish the Port of Columbia county.

There's a bible saying about a camel trying to pass through the eye of a needle. It was a difficult matter—likewise is the matter of trying to get Scappoose on the phone, just as difficult and oftentimes impossible.

SAVED HIS HORSE

Mr. R. L. McIntyre, of Altoona, Ala., says: "Dr. LeeGar's Antiseptic Healing Powder quickly healed some bad wire cuts on my horse. I defy any stranger to find the slightest scar on him."

Dr. LeGear's Advice and Remedy saved this valuable animal. He warns you not to leave a wound, sore or cut exposed, but to dust on Dr. LeGear's Antiseptic Healing Powder, which instantly forms an antiseptic protection and promotes healthy healing.

In his 28 years of Veterinary Practice and Expert Poultry Breeding, Dr. LeGear has compounded a remedy for every curable ailment of stock or poultry. Whenever they require a remedy, it will pay you, as it did Mr. McIntyre, to purchase from your dealer the proper Dr. LeGear Remedy, on a satisfaction or money back guarantee.

Are You Running the Farm or is the Farm Running You?

YOUR success and satisfaction in farming depends upon how you can answer that question. The successful farmer keeps several jumps ahead of his needs of operation and improvement.

Likewise the wise farmer cultivates his banking connection in advance of his need for aid.

We want YOUR name on the rapidly growing patron list at the Columbia County Bank. May we have it?
