EVERYBODY KNOWS —THE—

Value of Bread

Bread has been called the staff of life. IT IS! Perhaps you don't know how really good bread is—how dainty, how tempting, how appetizing! Truly a treat to entice the most fastidious taste or the most jaded appetite. Bread is the most evenly balanced food you can eat—not too heavy—not too light. It gives energy without heat. It is a bone and muscle builder. Now that the kiddies are in school again—they need bread—lots of bread. And they'll need no urging—WHEN IT IS—

20th CENTURY PRICES

QUESTION:

Will our prices be advanced?

ANSWER:

On account of lowering costs of merchandise, and also increase in business, they will not. Saint Helens people can rely on this store gradually reducing its percentage of profits as the volume of business increases.

With an exceptionally large buying power, coupled with their system of selling, 20th Century Stores cannot be matched in pricing.

Not just a few, but every item that is sold is subject to the most careful figuring to see how low it can be sold.

Saturday and Monday we will sell cane sugar at 10c pound, 100-pound sacks $9.95. Should there be a decline in the market, sugar will be priced at the above figures less the decline.

DIAMONDS For Christmas

THERE is a certain satisfaction in knowing when you buy a diamond that you can rely upon the word of the firm and its salesman—that you are getting 100 per cent. quality and value. Gray's diamonds are recognized as standard of quality.

NO GIFT IS AS PLEASING—NO GIFT GIVES THE SAME LITTLE TOUCH OF PERSONAL REMEMBRANCE AS A TOKEN OF JEWELRY.

BE IT a sparkling jewel or the dull antique of a little vanity box—it carries that personal message which is understood by all—it breathes the spirit of love and the freedom of expression far above materialistic value or usefulness. We advise an early selection.
