FARMING!

The Biggest Business in the United States

And it is the only big business that has not been thoroughly organized during the last few years. Because all other business is organized and the farmer is not, the interests of the farmer have not been protected as their importance deserves. There is but one way by which the farmer may come into his own, and that way is—

ORGANIZATION

Organization needs you and you need organization, Mr. Farmer. Every farmer is entitled to three things in his business—

- COST OF PRODUCTION, if he produces economically.
- STABILITY OF MARKETS, over which now he has little control.
- A REASONABLE MARGIN of PROFIT, which all other business expects and gets.

These things cannot be secured by each farmer acting individually. They must be secured through a well-financed organization. The Farm Bureau has three parts in its organization to get these three things the farmer wants.

Watch Papers for Details and Places of Public Meetings

The Columbia County Farm Bureau helps solve all local problems of production, distribution, home economics, and better farm life generally. The Oregon State Farm Bureau is the state-wide voice of the farmer bureau members in legislation, economics, marketing, industrial and allied interests.

The American Farm Bureau Federation is the masterful organization which represents you, Mr. Farmer, in the seats of the mighty at Washington, in all State capitals, and wherever regulatory and administrative commissions are sitting.

Membership in the Columbia County Farm Bureau entitles you to all the benefits of three links of the perfected plan. The membership fee is $10 a year, for life, with a provision which permits withdrawal after one year.

The drive starts Monday, February 14, 1921, and continues just one week. Membership men will call upon you at your own farm to see you and take your membership, as well as to explain the full details of the Farm Bureau work from County to Nation. Be ready for them when they call. They are, everyone, just plain farmers like yourselves, Farm Bureau members in their home counties. Get into this most perfect organization that is really doing big things now. Watch papers for dates and places of public meetings. The campaign is under the direction of the—
