If any of his passengers wonder why Archie Duncan, driver of the St. Helens-Portland bus, goes through Scappoose at a snail's pace, that is, compared with how he used to drive, he will explain that on last Sunday night about 12:15 o'clock, he had an interview with Speed Cop Weigle and on the following day with Judge Cathcart. Duncan surrendered $7.50 and Weigle claims he was exceeding 25 miles per while Duncan thought he was going about 23 miles per hour.

S. M. Boals who lives in the Mayger country and has lived there since 1882 was in St. Helens Tuesday, having been summoned to serve on the jury. Mr. Boals explained to Judge Eakin that he was in charge of the electric plant of the Noyes-Holland Logging company and that it was important that he should be on the job and the judge excused him from jury duty. Mr. Boals told a Mist reporter that the Noyes-Holland company were now engaged on construction work and building two miles of railroad which would tap a fine body of timber, sufficient to keep the camp running for several years. He also stated that ten or twelve camps on the Kerry road were operating, but with a reduced force.

NOTICE TO FRUIT GROWERS

Fruit growers are notified that it is time to commence spraying. For codling moth spray we advise pounds of arsenic of lead to 100 gallons of water. By adding to this mixture 3 gallons of lime and sulphur for scab, you have a combined spray for two diseases.

CHAS. KOTEUK,
Fruit Inspector

Whooping Cough.

This is a very dangerous disease particularly to children under five
