He called on Fritz Anliker and asked for work. Mr. Anliker told him he needed some one on the road and asked him to ride with him to Goble. Here the guards took charge of him.

VERNONIA

By Press Correspondent of W. R. C.

The C. A. R. Post and Women's Relief Corps of Vernonia observed Memorial Day and had an excellent program.

The members of the post and corps together with the school children met at Grange hall at 7:30 a. m. and marched to the bridge spanning Rock creek where they held services for the fallen dead. After the service on the bridge the cemetery was visited and garlands were placed on the last resting places of G. A. R. veterans who have answered "the last roll call" also on the grave of Robert Christianson whose body was returned from overseas last September.

At noon the ladies of the corps served a bounteous lunch and at 2 o'clock the program was held in the Grange hall. The exercises were opened by all singing "The Star Spangled Banner," afterwards reciting the American's Creed and Flag salutes. Prayers by Rev. Hovey; recitation, Lloyd Brown; recitation, Veldon Parker; song, high school; dialogue, Robert Phillips; Lloyd Brown, John Counts, Edna Spencer; recitation, Edgar Carey; song, 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades; a poem that was written by Harry Lander in memory of his son who was killed in France, Anna Ren Webster; recitation, Alice Carey; song, high school; recitation, Hovey and John; dialogue, Tasta Wood and Harry Keasy, Harry Emmons; song, male quartette; solo, Robt. Spencer; a very interesting address by Lieut. Robert Koussodall who served overseas; recitation, Georgia May McDonald; address by Hon. Judson Wood, Civil war veteran. After Mr. Wood's address the meeting closed.

Yankton Cooking Club.

We feel real proud of the girls who joined the cooking and sewing clubs last fall. We had a class of nineteen in the cooking club and at the close of the school they had finished their course of lessons and had their final reports ready to send in. They gave a demonstration the 19th of May and the week the sewing club had on display was worthy of being shown at the fair. The cooking club had on display twelve loaves of bread which looked very tempting. At the close of the meeting the visitors were served with cookies and coffee by the club girls.—Contributed.

CHARCOAL INDUSTRY BRINGS RETURNS

C. E. Mohler, who has a fine farm near Deer Island in the "reluctant King" of Columbia county. So far as can be ascertained, he is the only person in Columbia county who devotes considerable time to making charcoal. During 1920 he made and shipped about 2900 sacks of charcoal, or approximately 25 tons. For this he received $35 per ton f. o. b. Deer Island.

This year the price is somewhat lower, the last order being sold at $27 per ton. The S. P. & S. is one of his largest customers, the company buying from 50 to 75 sacks per month. Last week Mr. Mohler shipped a carload to the N. P. Terminal company at Portland and he and his brother-in-law are now busy preparing charcoal for another carload order.

The charcoal is made from the wind-falls and fallen timber and from fir, although alder, of which there is an abundance on his place, makes fine charcoal. When the fir is all gone, the alder will be used, Mr. Mohler said.

An envelope pasted on the inside cover of your recipe book will hold loose recipes.

It has been estimated that only one person in 15 has perfect eyes.
