See us for bargains in granite ware, tinware and crockery also notions of all kinds. Elite Variety Store. Mrs. W. B. McKay of Portland spent the week end visiting at the home of her sister, Miss Amy George. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McCormick and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Miles attended the Rose festival last week. T. J. Phipps, Jr., county agricultural agent, has been in Corvallis this week in attendance at Farmers week. Mrs. Magnus Mason returned home Saturday from Portland where she was the guest of friends during the Rose show. Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Frael of Portland and Miss Adelaide and Ella Beerbauer of Minnesota were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Morton Sunday. Mayor Ballagh and Councilman Flynn went to Portland Wednesday to look at a rock crusher which has been offered the city at a very reasonable price. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wellington, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John L. Foote and two children, motored to Seaside Saturday and spent the week end at the Wellington cottage. C. D. Crichton, who for the past three months has been operator for the S. F. & S. at Seaside, returned to St. Helens Saturday and is again on the job at the S. F. & S. station here. Ben Perkins who is working for the Murphy Logging company at Banks, spent the week end with his family here. The logging company is extending their railroad several miles so as to reach another body of timber, Mr. Perkins said. Rev. K. K. Clark exchanged pulpits with Rev. George Hull last Sunday evening. The two gentlemen will make the exchange again next Sunday. Mr. Clark and Mr. Hull are old friends and it has been pleasant to renew their friendship. Miss Maude Decker, who conducts a well known business college in Portland, was here Saturday for a short visit at the home of her brother L. L. Decker. Miss Decker is a former St. Helens resident and has made a great success of her business enterprise in Portland. At a recent meeting of Columbia Post #2, the American Legion, Commander J. H. Wellington was elected delegate to the American Legion convention which will be held in Eugene on July 1 and 2. William Russell was selected as alternate. The legion auxiliary appointed Mrs. William Russell as representative for the auxiliary. Judge and Mrs. Martin White went to Portland Sunday for a day's visit with Captain Dorris of the schooner Thistle. The vessel was built at the St. Helens shipyard and Captain Dorris was here several months to superintend the final work and outfit the ship. He recently returned from Australia and expects to sail the latter part of this month with a cargo of lumber which he will deliver at Melbourne. F. H. Taylor who has a fine little farm several miles west of Houlton and who specializes in raising fine fruits and berries, was in Astoria Tuesday with a load of berries. He has standardized his pack and has three grades, firsts, seconds and culls. He has interested other growers in this method of packing and the returns they have received are very satisfactory. Mr. Taylor said, and for the extra time in grading, they have received good returns. John Rick of Portland, Oregon, and Miss Jennie Crockett of Boston, Mass., were united in marriage at the home of L. R. Rutherford last Wednesday evening. Rev. K. K. Clark read the service. The bride and groom were accompanied by Walter Rick of Portland and Miss Catherine Goodwin of St. Helens. The wedding march was played by Miss Rick of Portland, sister of the groom. A large number of guests were present from Portland and St. Helens. An excellent wedding luncheon was served. The bride was in the service of the United States government in Canada during the war and the groom is a successful business man in Portland, where they will make their home. A host of friends wish them the best life has to give.

Harold Broughton returned home Monday from a trip to Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Muir attended the strawberry festival at Warren Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gramm and Miss Doris Gramm were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler Friday. Miss Louise George and Mr. and Mrs. Percy George of Portland spent Thursday with Mrs. L. J. Van Orshoven. Mrs. Alice Wreford, chief assistant to the county agricultural agent, spent Sunday with friends and relatives at Vancouver. Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Hawkins were passengers on the Georgiana down river Sunday. Mrs. Hawkins to spend a day with friends at Skalnokawa and Mr. Hawkins to visit Astoria. William M. Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Perry, has gone to Camp Knox, Kentucky, to attend the U. S. officers training school. He was one of the number of O. A. C. students whom the government selected to take this training course. Sheriff Wellington was in Portland Tuesday and went out to Kelly Butte to see how some of the prisoners from Columbia county were getting along. Several of them whose jail terms will soon expire, seem to think that they prefer to pay the fines instead of serving further time, the sheriff said. See the big bargains we are offering in granite ware—basting spoon, 5c, soap dishes 15c, drinking cups 10c, pie plates 15c, wash basins 25c, 2-quart sauce pans 25c, 3-quart preserving kettle 25c, 4-quart convex kettles with tin covers 40c and many other equally big bargains at the Elite Variety Store. The Methodist Ladies Aid society, or a number of the members, went to Gresham on Thursday, June 9, and were the guests of Rev. V. and Mrs. A. S. Hisey. Those who made the trip were: Mrs. Fannie Ross, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, Mrs. H. E. LaBare, Miss Edrie LaBare, Mrs. Martin White, Miss Lillie, Mrs. William Davies, Rev. V. and Mrs. Johnson and children, Mrs. S. E. Lynch, Mrs. Graves, Mrs. Mary Long, Mrs. Roy Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Christie.

All granite ware, tinware and dishes greatly reduced at the Elite Variety Store. Better come in and do your buying here. Mrs. Charles Wheeler entertained Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Mauthe Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gramm, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Buntsch of Portland at dinner Tuesday. The dance given by the St. Helens Volunteer Fire department Saturday night was enjoyed by all who attended. However, the boys were the least bit disappointed that a larger crowd did not turn out. While they made excuses, they did not have much of a surplus left, not enough to make a start on the furnishing of a room where they can hold their meetings. It is hoped that the public will show their appreciation of the work of the boys and at their next dance, extend a helping hand. Miss Doris Bothwell returned to San Francisco Tuesday after a short vacation with her parents in St. Helens. She will attend art school in San Francisco again this winter. Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Ross and son John and Mr. and Mrs. William Davies motored to Salem Tuesday to attend the graduating exercises at Willamette university. They expect to be gone several days. The cooked food sale held by the ladies of the American Legion auxiliary at the Chamber of Commerce rooms Saturday afternoon was a success and eager buyers cleaned up the stock of appetizing articles soon after the sale started. A neat sum was realized. Dr. Clarke of the Clarke-Brower Optical Co., 112 1/2 6th street, Portland, will be in St. Helens at the St. Helens hotel parlor for the day Tuesday, June 21. He will be pleased to meet all those who wish their eyes examined, glasses fitted, etc. No charge for examination. Dr. Clarke or Brower will visit St. Helens once a month hereafter.—Adv.
