

OVER THE COUNTY

SCAPPOOSE

Our traffic officer, H. W. Weigle, is again on duty.

A little daughter is the added attraction at the Skinner home.

Mrs. Ethel Anderson and husband of Wasco, Ore., are spending a couple of weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Tate.

Mrs. Charles Wikstrom was a visitor in Kalama Tuesday.

Elsie Lamberson motored with friends to St. Paul, Ore., Sunday.

Hostetter & Paige had good luck on their hunting trip. Each secured a deer.

Lafe Brown has been remodeling his house. Friends of Mrs. Brown will be glad to know she is much improved in health and plans returning home Sunday.

Loren Johnson has started his new house near Johnson's Crossing. It will mean an added attraction in the community. The Ulman house is also progressing nicely and is of very attractive appearance.

Robert McQuinn is home after spending several months in San Pedro, Cal., during the fishing season.

Mrs. J. E. Miller and daughter enjoyed the week end in Warrenton.

Mr. and Mrs. Tipton and married daughter, of Hillsboro, are visiting Ruby for several days this week.

The Macabee ladies are holding a basket social Monday evening in the hall, the ladies bringing their baskets and the men their pocket books. Admission fee of 5c and 10c will be asked. Ice cream and cake for sale. A program is being arranged. The social is for the benefit of the flower fund.

Community Church S. S. 10 a. m. Morning worship 11 o'clock, C. E. 7 p. m. Evening service 8 o'clock.

Mrs. R. J. Frakes motored to Seaside with Mr. and Mrs. McLouchlan and was quite ill on the way. While there she visited Mrs. Margaret Weist, Mrs. Copeland, Mrs. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pomeroy, and saw several other Scappoose people, including Neva Boyle, Mrs. Getchee, Lambersons, Gerlach and Niblocks.

Mr. and Mrs. Doris have purchased what is known as the Grandma Watts cottage. At present Mr. Doris is with the Westport Lumber Co. at Mist, having been ordered by the physician to take out door exercise for several weeks.

Mr. Deveraux has been in the hospital the past two weeks and all probability will be or a couple of months. He has had several pieces of splintered bone and shell extracted from the knee, received while serving in the army.

The restaurant changed hands on the 1st. The Ash family moved to Portland and Mrs. Robert McKay now owns it.

The Oregon State Chamber of Commerce is planning on bringing out prospective citizens of Oregon from the middle western states. These people will come prepared to purchase homes to their liking. We in this district have some of the best land in the Willamette and Lower Columbia valleys. It is desirable to have your tracts listed with the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce. A list is being prepared at the bank and all desiring to list property can do so through the bank. Tracts of five acres up are desired. The list will leave the bank Monday.

School opened Monday with lots of enthusiasm and pep. About 25 from outside the district enrolled in the high school. The present plan is to continue until 4 o'clock so as to give time for all periods.

On Tuesday evening Nina and Vera Roseop entertained at the home of Mrs. Bert Adams for Hilda Duncan, who left for Hoquiam, Wash., and Olive and Cora Ash, who left for Portland.

Scappoose Christian Endeavor was well represented several evenings at the convention at Columbia City.

Dr. Blatchford spent the week end with his family. Loriel is enjoying part of her vacation at Seabeck, Washington.

Helen Watts spent the week end in Oregon City, with college friends.

WARREN

Marion Hoyt narrowly escaped injury on Sunday. He was riding a bicycle and attempted to cross the road ahead of an automobile. The car struck him and he struck the windshield where he remained par-way through until released. He thinks the cars should have the right of way now.

W. J. Fullerton and A. L. Morris attended Labor Day celebration at Clatskanie Monday, Sept. 5. They thoroughly enjoyed the day as they report everyone else did, even the onlookers at the baseball game which was exciting from every angle.

A. L. Larson is rapidly recovering from an accident caused by his foot being caught in the machinery of his threshing outfit.

Two automobile loads of Warren's young people attended the Swedish Lutheran church exercises last Saturday and Sunday. Among those attending were the Misses Nora Larson and Berglund and LeRoy Larson and Carlson Bros.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Grewa, are again celebrating. This time their youngest daughter Inez has married. The ceremony took place in Portland on Thursday last and was attended by immediate friends. Inez was one of Warren's popular and well liked young ladies and all join in wishing her well. The groom is a promising young pattern maker at Portland.

Warren schools opened Tuesday with a full attendance. A complete new corps of teachers has been engaged.

Many pupils from Warren are attending the Scappoose high school. The Scappoose school wagon makes trips twice daily to Warren for the accommodation of the pupils.

Among those who are sojourning in the hop fields from Warren are Carl Gabrielson and Hugo Carlson.

A meeting of the farmers is scheduled at the hall in the near future.

P. H. Lund, who is head of the affair of supplying St. Helens, and F. H. Taylor, who will collect the products, are forming plans for the successful operation of the St. Helens market.

DEER ISLAND

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kirby and daughters, of Portland, visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Cox and family have moved to Deer Island for the winter. Mr. Cox has been employed by the Kerry Logging Co. and left there Wednesday forenoon for Birkenfield where he will so located.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lord, of Hillsboro, are visiting relatives and friends here the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dudson are living in Deer Island for the next few months.

Lavella Gaittens, the 7-year-old daughter of Art Gaittens, had the misfortune to fall from a wagon last week and broke her left forearm. She was taken to Portland where Dr. Slacum used the X ray, finding the bone broken and a bad sprain of the wrist. After the bone was properly set she was greatly relieved from the pain she had suffered for several days.

Mrs. Irene Zuidendron, landlady of the Deer Island hotel, was badly burned on the right arm by hot water last Friday, but at this time is getting along nicely.

Several of the Deer Island people attended the ball games Monday at Clatskanie, but did not get to see the finish as there was too much squabbling.

Mr. and Mrs. English and Harold motored to Forest Grove Sunday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Weber.

School opened here Monday morning with a large attendance—23 in the principal room and 24 in the primary room—with several more pupils to come in later. The district was very fortunate in securing their teachers this year and we feel quite sure that this school year will be full of pleasure as well as study.

Mrs. Colvin has taught in this district before and we know her from experience. Miss Hudspath comes to us with the highest recommendations. She is a resident of Clatskanie county and has taught several terms in this county. The district has installed a piano and expects to make several other improvements later.

DOWNING

R. H. McAdams spent the week end at home, returning to Kerry Sunday evening.

School opened Monday morning with Mr. Ingram in charge of the grades and Miss Lynn in charge of the primary room.

Fred Washburn was home Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Johnson and small sons, of Harrisburg, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McAdams.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Carlson spent Thursday and Friday visiting in Portland.

Orville Fields, who has been visiting his grandparents, returned to Kelso Saturday.

Miss Jennie Amato is visiting in Rainier.

Mrs. Fred Fluber and Mrs. Claud Card, of Mayger, were guests at the Stanley home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Boals visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. Giger, of Delma, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Atcheson and children, of St. Helens, motored down Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. J. Dowling.

Mrs. Dowling, who was visiting in Portland, returned home Wednesday via the bus route.

George and Walter Huldoft, of Portland, were down Sunday visiting among friends.

Frank Amato is working in Kelso.

Mr. William McCollum is a guest at the Dowling home.

Alvi and Martha Kallunki took in the Labor Day celebrations at Clatskanie.

Mrs. John Carlton and daughter, Miss Esther, were visitors at the Carlson home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Danielsen spent Sunday at the Lou Frances home.

Lou Brunson was home from Kerry Sunday.

BEAVER HOMES

The fine rain of this week was welcomed by the farmers. It was badly needed and insures better crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Koble moved to Newberg this week. Mr. Koble having taken up a homestead near that place.

Mrs. Hugh Adams and son, who have been visiting with Mrs. Adams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Thomas, for the past several weeks, returned to her home in Portland last Saturday.

Miss Nettie Smith left Sunday for the Burns school where she is employed as teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Jennings made a business trip to Portland last week.

Mrs. G. W. Smith had as her guests Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of North Cove, Washington.

George G. Brown, clerk of the state land board, reports $192,459 25 of the state irreducible school fund turned over to the state treasurer during the month of August.

REUBEN

William Turpin left for his home in Oklahoma Wednesday after a lengthy visit with his niece, Mrs. Steve Cantwell.

G. R. Thompson and son arrived here Wednesday, after a season's work in Eastern Oregon harvest fields.

S. T. Alexander and wife, of Beaver Valley, visited with Mrs. Jaane Zeman Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Colt and family, of St. Helens, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Watts Sunday.

Andrew Emerson, wife and daughter, are visiting at Orchard, Washington, this week.

The schools in District No. 20 and the Neer City school opened Monday and there was a large attendance.

YANKTON

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Yudy were Portland visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brown, of Portland, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Brown's sister, Mrs. Geo. Barge.

Ten of our young folks are attending high school at St. Helens.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howard and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Martin were Seaside visitors over Sunday.

Mrs. Numa Johnson, who has been with Mrs. Markkanen for several months, was called home by the illness of her son-in-law.

Mr. G. L. Tarbell, Perley Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tarbell spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

D. C. Martin, who live near Vancouver, Wash.

L. G. Smith, of Scappoose, was a Yankton visitor Saturday. He had with him Rd L. Burkhardt, of Albany; Ivan Loughary, of Monmouth, and C. C. Dixon, of Shedd, all prominent Jersey breeders of the Willamette Valley.

School began Monday with an enrollment of about 80 pupils. Mr. Frank D. Pimm, of Shedd, will have the sixth, seventh and eighth grades, Miss Mae McCollister, of Portland, third, fourth and fifth grades, and Miss Clara Lingle, of Boring, the first and second grades. We predict fine work for the school year.

BACHELOR FLAT

School starts Monday, Sept. 12. Notices are out for a special school meeting to elect a director to fill the unexpired term of D. H. Pope, who has resigned.

Miss Alice Sherwin spent several days in Portland last week.

Miss Bessie Jacobson is attending school in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Berdahl, of Chapman, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Berdahl Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mohn and children, who have been picking hops in the Willamette valley the past two weeks, returned Tuesday and expect to make their home in West St. Helens.

Mr. J. E. Gilmour, our worthy school director, motored to Portland last Thursday. Before returning he visited headquarters and left a dollar bill.

Miss Ethel Bennett visited with her parents several days last week.

A new lot of state highway signs which will designate directions and distances to all important towns, both on main and side roads, is being prepared by the state highway department.

Mist Wantads are sale getters.

Under the Smith-Hughes act a total of $21,505.20 was spent in Oregon during the past year, according to a report from the state department of education. Of this amount $13,447.11 was along the trade and industry lines and $6712.30 to the home economics lines.

Use Sanitary Fixtures

WE have many new sanitary fixtures in stock for your bath room. Look over our stock of plumbing and heating goods. You will be convinced.

R. CONSTANTIN

The Plumber
HEWITT BLDG. ST. HELENS

THE WINCHESTER STORE

Prices Are Down on Guns.....

-  30-30 Winchester Carbine $28.00
- 25-35 Win. Carbine ..... $28.00
- Model 97 Winchester Shot Gun, 12-ga. $40.40
- Model 12 Winchester Shot Gun, Hammerless, 12 ga. .... $47.25
- Model 11 Remington Automatic Shot Gun ..... $62.25

St. Helens Hardware Co.
"THE WINCHESTER STORE"
Phone 97

HOW DO WE DO IT?

You wonder why our meats are always in such good shape when you get them. Just because we know how to look after them and keep them fresh. Notice that they are always in the ice box where they ought to be.

PEOPLE'S MARKET

WE INVITE AN INSPECTION OF GOODS AND COMPARISON OF PRICES.

We Like to see Children Come into this Bank

WHY? Because the children of today are the life and strength of the community tomorrow.

After all—the thoughtful father of today really stores up his worldly goods so that later his children may be provided for properly and the youngsters cannot learn too soon the mighty function of a Federal Reserve Member Bank.

First National Bank

ST. HELENS, ORE.
Member Federal Reserve System
CHAS. GRAHAM, President, H. A. CHILDS, Cashier
Savings and Checking Accounts Safety Deposit Boxes

Oregon State Fair Salem

SEPT. 26th to OCT. 1st

- A WEALTH OF AGRICULTURAL DISPLAYS
- MAGNIFICENT LIVESTOCK EXHIBITION
- SPLENDID MACHINERY and TRACTOR EXHIBIT
- GREATEST HORSE SHOW IN THE NORTHWEST
- EXCELLENT RACES, AND AMUSEMENTS
- SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS, DAY AND NIGHT
- GOOD CAMPING AND PARKING GROUNDS
- EXCURSION RATES ON ALL RAILROADS

A. H. LEA, - - - - Manager
SALEM, OREGON

HERE MEN!

A Shirt Tale--

You Will Be Interested In

because it's a long, roomy tail, just the kind of tail you want when you buy a shirt—but, the kind you seldom get when buying, especially in the cheaper grades of shirts. We have a large list of the latest styles and best makes in

Dress and Work Shirts

There is about one-fourth yard more cloth contained in each of these shirts than in most makes; they are of superior workmanship, will not rip easily, full length, large roomy sleeves. Come in and examine them.

Collars, Ties and Hose

A new up-to-date and large line of the best goods for the money ever shown here, and an invitation is extended you to look them over.

Men's Bib Overalls      Men's Work Shoes

E. M. HELON

DRY GOODS      FURNISHINGS      CLOTHING