

MIST MISTINGS

Mrs. P. A. Dion was a Portland visitor Wednesday. Miss Fay Morrell, of Deer Island, visited in St. Helens Tuesday. Mrs. J. Gilby and Miss Margery Gilby were Portland shoppers Saturday. Miss Gladys Lake returned Saturday after weeks' visit with friends in Portland. Mrs. Alfred Peel entertained Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. A. F. Barnett. T. D. Sutherland of Portland was a guest of his son, C. D. Sutherland, on Labor Day. Mrs. A. Burcham visited with her relatives at Woodburn for a few days last week. Miss Helen Johnson, of Portland, was a week end guest of Mrs. L. J. Van Orshaven. Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Martin had as their guests Sunday, Dr. and Mrs. Drake, of Portland. C. L. Silverman, of Portland, was the guest of his granddaughter, Mrs. Harold Beaver, Sunday. My tools are all unpacked and ready for use. Ross Hare, St. Helens Garage, Phone 57. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Aiken and family and Miss Naomi Bunnell motored to Portland Monday. Miss Myrna Yeoman, of Portland was a week end visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ballagh. Miss Ivy Morgan, secretary for the Ladd Estate of Portland, spent Sunday with Miss Nellie Burcham. Miss Helen Kiblan left Saturday for Cathlamet, where she was the guest of friends for several days. Miss Elvera Blair returned to St. Helens Sunday, after spending the summer in Seattle and Seaside. Mrs. Effie Brown, who has been spending the summer in Astoria, returned the latter part of last week. Miss Carrie Elbertson, of Portland, spent Labor Day in St. Helens as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Ross. Alex Allain and wife spent Sunday last with Mrs. Allain's sister, Mrs. J. E. Hillier, on their ranch near Warren. Mrs. Charles R. Wilson and family, of Aberdeen, Washington, were the guests of Mrs. Thomas Isbister Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hobbs and son, Richard, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Milne spent Sunday and Monday in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Neff and sons, Dick and Paul, and grandson, Jimmy, motored to Seaside Saturday, returning Monday. Ladies: I want you to see the nice line of fall coats, suits and hats which I have just received. They are the latest style creations and are moderately priced. Millady Shop, advt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Saul, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Peter Loo, motored to Portland Monday morning to spend Labor Day in the metropolis. Miss Fay Beaver, who has been spending several days as the guest of Mrs. Harold Beaver, returned to her home in Portland Wednesday. Don't forget that we fix Fords as well as any big cars. Genuine parts see us first. St. Helens Garage for first class service and repairs. Phone 57. Mrs. John L. Foote had as her guests for the week end her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hawley, and her sister, Miss Winifred Hawley, of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Quam and family motored to Portland Sunday and spent the day at the Oaks. They were accompanied by their friend, Miss Ruthin. Walter Christie was here Sunday and Monday on a visit to his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Christie. He returned to his home in Astoria Monday evening. Rev. E. A. Cook, professor of religious education in Pacific University, will preach at the Congregational church Sunday evening, Sept. 11th. There will also be Sunday School at 11 a. m. and evening service at 7:30. Mrs. Ole Dalgren and family expect to leave about September 12th for Del Ray, Florida, where they will join Mr. Dalgren, who has been in Florida for about six months. The Dalgrens expect to settle permanently in Florida. The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. A. Burcham next Thursday afternoon at 2:30. The annual election of officers for the coming year will take place at this time so all of the members are urged to be present. The line of hats, suits and coats which I have just received a Millady Shop are the latest and most stylish models and are priced far below the prices asked in Portland establishments. Your inspection is invited. Come early and get your pick of a hat, coat or suit. Millady Shop, advt. Dave Wilson, vice president of the First National Bank of Scappoose, was a business visitor in St. Helens Wednesday. He is optimistic as to the future development of the Scappoose neighborhood and states that it is his opinion that better times are coming. Upon recent investigation it has been found that fifty per cent of the criminality and insanity of the United States is due to eye strain and could be done away with by having the eyes looked after in youth. The trouble usually begins in school. Are you giving your child a fair chance? Have Dr. Thompson give his eyes a thorough examination now, which may save him much care and trouble in the future. Oreadia Hotel, Tuesday, Sept. 13, all day.

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Entertains at Dinner—Mrs. B. P. Williams entertained at dinner Wednesday. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, father and mother of the hostess, Mrs. Tabor and Mrs. Decker, of Portland, and Mrs. Burkhead, of California. Buys Farm Near Houlton—J. W. Blayney and Mrs. Blayney arrived last week from Brush Prairie, Washington, and have bought the Joe Dupont place, which is near Houlton. The newcomers like this section of Oregon and expect to improve their recently acquired place. Guests From Gresham—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ruegg and Mr. and Mrs. L. Kidder of Gresham, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William Hochmose of Portland were recent guests of Mrs. Clara Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse. The visitors were favorably impressed with St. Helens. Miss Grace Fieldhouse will leave for Portland today after a week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse. The visitor has been librarian in the Gresham public library during vacation time but next week will resume her duties as principal of the Lusted (Multnomah county) school. Nehalem Camp Starts—The editor of the Mist met James Hill of Mist at Clatskanie Labor Day who informed us that practically all of the logging camps on the Kerry rail road line had resumed operations and in consequence, things were lively out in that section of Columbia county. After a week's visit in St. Helens Mrs. J. M. Cummins and daughter, Miss Lucile, returned Thursday to Portland where Miss Cummins will take up her duties as teacher of piano. She was recently engaged in the same profession at The Dalles but is moving to Portland and has a studio in the Fish & Lane building. Picnic at Columbia Beach—Entertaining a number of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Price gave a picnic dinner at Columbia Beach recently. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. P. Veat and daughter Eleanor, Adolpn, Alfred and Herbert Smith, Mrs. Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. F. Elder and daughter and Misses Marie, Fay and Ona Price. The visitors were from Portland. Children's Day—Secretary Wilkerson of the fair board desires it as widely known as possible that Friday, Sept. 23, will be Children's Day at the county fair. On this day all children of Columbia county 14 years of age and under will be admitted to the grounds free of charge. The secretary is a favorite among the youngsters of Columbia county and he hopes to see all of his friends among the boys and girls of the county present, and he wants to add some new friends as well by seeing a lot of new faces at the fair on Children's Day. Admission will be free, so don't forget the date.

Leave For England—Mrs. A. F. Barnett accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Alice Trow of Rainier, will leave today for New York and will sail from that place on September 22 for England. After several weeks visiting relatives, they will go to Rome and Mrs. Barnett will take a course in the Montessoria school which deals with school primary work. Mrs. Barnett has taught in the St. Helens schools for a number of years and is recognized as one of the state's best primary teachers. Receives Appointment—When Attorney J. W. Day arrived home last week after a month's visit to his old home in New England, he found a pleasant surprise in the way of an official notification which stated the World War Veteran Commission had appointed him as the Columbia county attorney for the Commission. It will be his duty to pass on all abstracts on property on which veterans wish to borrow money in accordance with the law which the people passed in the Soldiers' Bonus measure.
