

DISHWASHING HINTS

In the first place, is your sink the right height to save you from round shoulders and a backache? If, when you stand erect, close to the sink, your finger tips touch the bottom of the sink, it is high enough. If not, you can get the same results by raising your dishes.

hand side of your dishes and yourself the next time you wash. The drainer for the clean ones on the left saves time and energy. It is reasonable enough, for you naturally pick up a dish with your right hand, put it in the water, hold it with your left hand when washing it, and with the least number of movements take it out with that same hand to put it in the drainer close by. Concentration of motion means saving of energy. On the whole dish wiping is unnecessary and wasteful. Rubbing with hot water drives grease better than a towel, leaving only glasses and silverware to be wiped. Having finished the service of your plate, a few more dishes can now be washed in the sink, and where at any time during the process of dish washing.

GUESSING CONTEST

Miss Hazel E. Pringle, a teacher in the St. Helens school, was the one to start the guessing contest. It was held at her home on the 21st. The contest was held at her home on the 21st. The contest was held at her home on the 21st.

There were a number of very close guesses. Fred Kalliker, of Gresham, was just a pound too low, and Mrs. Ida Ginn, of St. Helens, and Walter Lind, of Warren, over-guessed the amount of St. Helens, Scappoose, Mrs. W. J. Johnson, Yankton, and Mrs. Fred Herman, of Warren, were also close with a guess of 416 pounds.

Others who were in to give a few guesses were Mrs. Mary Bartholomew, Healdton, 1411; Lillian VanNatta, St. Helens, 1414; Fred Robinson, Scappoose, 1417; Clara Lewis, Prineville, 419; H. A. Collins, St. Helens, Mrs. John Walden, Scappoose, and Mrs. Hazel Leonard, St. Helens. Letty Larson, who headed the list on the track to take up the prize, and J. Ginn, were the low at 274.

Among the guesses, which numbered about 100, were some strange ones. There were several above 1000, one of 1000 and some below 100. Sheriff Wells, who judged the contest, weighed about equal to 275 pounds, and Assessor Blakely and W. J. Patterson were about 160 pounds each. John L. Fowles, West Yankton, S. C. Norton, Van A. Grant, F. W. Harrison, J. A. Harris and L. E. Galtner placed guesses within a few pounds of each other. None of the winners in last year's contest came close this year.

KEEP SMILING

He Smiled—and his home was a place of happiness. He Smiled—and children ran out of their way to meet and greet him. He Smiled—and his co-workers in business worked better than in any other place of employment. He Smiled—and his business clients and callers spoke well of him and business increased. He Smiled—and all who entered his office door were pleased to be greeted as a friend and equal. He Smiled—and followed the smile with a brotherly hand clasp and those who were discouraged and downcast went out and took a new grip on life and their work. He Smiled—and while the years rolled on, he grew younger—because he smiled. —Charles T. Loft

Grandma at 22, Grandpa 22

How does it feel to be a grand-mother at the age of 22? Let Mrs. Ethel Pringle, champion guess grand-mother, speak for herself. "Most certainly I am proud. When my daughter's little baby girl was born it was the largest baby ever born here."

"I have always been a lover of my family. I have three other children, two married. And when our little grandchild came—well, I guess I can't like any other grand-mother would feel."

Mrs. Pringle was married the first time when she was 12, says—report from Tampa, Fla. Her daughter, Mrs. Frances McAllough, and mother of the grandchild, is only 11. Mrs. Pringle was married to her second husband, making him a grand-father by marriage, at 22. Grandpa and Grandpa Pringle believe that the honor their share in a record.
