

DUCK SEASON OPENS TOMORROW

Beginning at sunrise tomorrow morning you can bag all the ducks you can get, provided you don't shoot too many, and have a place from which you can do some shooting. Many of the sportsmen who have taken on Seaside Island will be on the job Sunday morning. The residents of the island state that there are many ducks feeding in the lake, so the hunters expect a good season.

Al Kenshaw, a former resident of West St. Helens, but who for the past three years has been residing on his farm near Seaside, is here for a short visit with friends.

G. W. Roberts, District Freight and Passenger Agent of the Union Pacific System, was a St. Helens visitor Wednesday. He said that the freight and passenger business was on the increase and that fact was indicative of better times.

Miss LaVerne Hilborn of Portland, was a guest of the Kibian family last Saturday. Miss Hilborn is a teacher of the violin and graduated from St. Mary's Academy. She has a number of pupils in St. Helens and expects to organize a large class here.

The All Star football team defeated St. Helens high Saturday afternoon in a hotly contested game. The score was 5 to 9. The high boys played a good game and gave evidence of developing into a fast team, something like they had last year.

CHURCH NOTICES

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

"The Friendly Church" Next Sunday is Rally Day. Each class is striving for a 100 per cent attendance at the Sunday School hour. Every scholar should be on hand promptly at 9:45. Classes and teachers will get acquainted and will get a start on the work for the new year. A special feature of the Sunday school hour will be the promotion exercises of the Cradle Roll in which a number of little folks will pass from the Cradle Roll to the Beginners' Department.

"The Coming of Truth" is the title of a very fine pageant which will be presented by the Sunday school at the eleven o'clock hour. This is something different from the usual order of Rally Day programs. Don't miss it.

All evening services begin one half hour earlier. Epworth League at 7:30 and the Happy Sunday Evening Hour at 7:30. This will be the last Happy Hour service before the pastor goes to Conference. Let's continue the Rally Day spirit and rally in force to help make this service the best of the year. The choir will sing one of their fine anthems. Everybody gets his vocal chords limbered up in the live song service. The pastor will preach on "Fighting Against the Stars."

BAPTIST SERVICES

There will be services for public worship every second and fourth Sunday of the month at Columbia City. A Sunday School was started last Sunday morning with a good attendance. The school will meet each Sunday at 10 a. m. Mrs. A. G. Peterson will temporarily have charge of the school. State Missionary G. L. Hall will lead the work and conduct the preaching services. Baptists and others of St. Helens who are interested will be cordially welcomed. Rev. Hall announces that he will also conduct services of public worship at Yankton at three o'clock every second and fourth Sunday in the month. Will the people of that locality please remember these dates.

CONGREGATIONAL

Sunday, October 2nd. Sunday school 10 a. m. Morning service 11 a. m. Evening service 7:30 p. m. Rev. D. A. MacLeod will conduct the services.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

WILL BUY—The St. Helens Creamery Co. is in the market for butter fat and will pay 47c per lb. 42-45.

FOR SALE—Stump puller and potato planter for sale cheap for cash, or will sell on time. S. L. BUTLER, Goble, Ore. 42-23

WANTED—By 14-year-old high school boy, place to work for board and room, or would like place to work evenings and Saturdays. Call 12713. 41-3

MIST MISTINGS

Deputy Sheriff Graves spent Sunday with friends in Portland.

Mrs. Jacob George, Mrs. Annie Cox and E. A. Rotzger motored to Portland Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Blakesley are among the St. Helens people who are attending the State Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ketel, former residents of St. Helens, were here Thursday for a short visit with friends and relatives.

C. L. Wheeler and C. D. Sutherland motored to Portland Wednesday to transact business for the St. Helens Lumber Company.

John Southard left last week for Seattle to resume his studies at the University of Washington. He expects to graduate next June.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Miles motored to Eugene Sunday last and returning stopped at Salem for a few days to take in the State Fair.

After spending a week as a guest of her daughter, Mrs. O. I. Knowles of Kelso, Washington, Mrs. H. Pritchard returned to St. Helens Tuesday.

Rev. D. A. MacLeod, who preached in the Congregational church last Sunday, will conduct all of the services of the church on Sunday, October 2nd.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Knight and Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Rothwell, all of Portland, were guests of H. M. Mason Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Morton and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beck of Portland, were the guests of Mrs. S. C. Morton and Miss Olga Heiborn on Sunday last.

Jake Hammer, the well known potato grower of the Deer Island country, was a business visitor in St. Helens Monday. He thinks the potato crop will be good this year.

Lost—Between E. A. Ross residence and K. of P. hall pair of glasses. Name "E. A. Ross" on inside of case. Finder please leave at his store and receive reward. advt.

Neal East, former manager of the Liberty Theatre, left Thursday for Seattle. It is possible that he might remain in that city as he has a flattering business proposition offered him.

Knowledge, skill and thorough experience enters into the making and fitting of every pair of Dr. Thompson's glasses. Consult him about your eyes next visit. Tuesday, Oct. 11, Orania Hotel. All day. 12-2

Jacob George left Wednesday morning for Ilwaco, Washington, where he will visit for several days with his friend, J. E. Carver, who is the owner of a cranberry bog in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Chappelle expect to leave tomorrow for California, where they will spend the winter. They will motor down in the Dodge car recently purchased from the Depot Garage.

Fall hats of domestic and pattern designs now on display at Milady's Shop. Large stocks from which to select. The ladies of St. Helens and vicinity are invited to call and inspect our millinery stock. advt.

Mrs. Madie Masten has been here this week on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Harold Beaver. Mrs. Masten has been spending the summer at her cottage at Seaside and stopped at St. Helens enroute to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips have returned from Seaview, Washington, where they have a cranberry bog and are again located in St. Helens. Mrs. L. S. Hattan, of Clatskanie, their daughter, is here on a visit with them.

Contractor Cronkrite has finished shingling the city hall roof and M. Saxon and Harry Lyons started the work of painting the roof Thursday. With favorable weather conditions, Saxon says the job will be completed by Saturday night.

L. Roseaco, a former resident of St. Helens but now residing at Las Gatos, California, was a St. Helens visitor this week. He says that business conditions in California are improving and that the produce of the Sacramento valley is being bought and good prices paid.

Miss Ruth Halsted of Prescott was here Friday attending the fair. Miss Halsted, who is teacher of the Prescott school, was much pleased with the school exhibits. The school attendance at the Prescott school is 45 and much interest is being taken in school work, she stated.

Last Saturday night St. Helens Lodge No. 117, I. O. O. F., initiated three candidates. Next Saturday Star Lodge, of Portland, will send down their crack degree team to put on the first degree. Visiting brothers who attend will see something worth while, and tables will be set for 150.

R. A. Rostad was here Thursday on a visit to his brother, C. V. Rostad. The visitor is a linotype operator on the Oregonian staff. That paper employs thirty linotype men. Mr. Rostad said, and the operating room is a busy place between five o'clock in the afternoon and one o'clock in the morning.

Mrs. Chas. Blakesley returned the latter part of last week from an extended trip to Canada and the eastern part of the United States. Mrs. Blakesley had not been to her old home in nineteen years, and while she found things greatly changed she thoroughly enjoyed her trip and visit with home folks and old-time friends.

We have just unpacked a splendid assortment of all wool dresses and they are priced at from $15 to $25. We also have a beautiful line of new coats, Bolivia and velours, in taupe, brown and blues, ranging in price from $20 to $35. All winter goods, of excellent quality and at extremely low prices. You will appreciate them. Milady's Shop. advt.

GEORGE

Our Boy Reporter :

I last Lord Rutherford if he had any fresh news as he said that he was going to be the president of the Chamber of Commerce as he said that he wished all the members would help him as I said I was going to tell em.

I was over to the cote house and I saw Mister Bill Fullerton what is a commishoner as he said that I wasn't to say anything about when his Ford coop run into George Wilson's truck an I said I wouldn't because Henry Bennett what is the lobster saw it and Mister Fullerton said that Bennett wood tel the people a bout it.

Mister Cates what is the new manager of the Liberty said he was a newspaper man as he would tell the chief the news if he had any an if he didn't he would rite it.

I ast Mister Gilby what is the deepo agent a bout the new deepo an he sed George I can't tell nothin a bout until I get in it but is is sun deepo.

Mister Van Orshoven what is the man what does stree work tole he was workin hard to finish the street jobs and he was goin to see the taxpays sum money an Mister Ballagh what is the mayer sed believed it was so.

Barney Burnett what's wife is England sed that he jus as soon there as in St. Helens and that H. Mason ain't such a good housekeeper as he was with that.

Mister White what is the county judge went to Salem this week he saw a whole lot of things what he didn't see before he let an Jim Hunt was with him.

Mrs. Oswald Denning was a Portland visitor Tuesday, the guest of Mrs. Carl Huston.

The Larabee hotel has been much improved, both inside and outside, the application of several coats of paint.

Mrs. and Mrs. Carl Huston, Portland, were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Huston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Denning.

Mrs. P. F. Gobbs, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Carman, arrived here this week for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. James Hume. Their home is in Holloway, Washington.

Mist Wantada are also getters.

17 STORES 17 STORES
20th Century Stores
SATURDAY SPECIALS
FEDERAL MILK 10c can; limit 6 to a customer
Corned Beef, full pound cans 20c
Ivory Soap Flakes, package 9c
Borax Soap Chips, large pkg. 33c 2 for 65c
Creme Oil Soap 2 bars 15c
Duck Soap, it floats, per bar 5c
Quaker Corn Flakes, package 10c
Dromedary Dates, 23c pkg. 2 for 45c
Royal Chef Clams can 15c
Shrimps, new pack, can 20c
Folgers Golden Gate coffee 1 lb- 38c; 2 1/2 lbs 95c
20th CENTURY BEST COFFEE, fresh from the roaster. 35c lb.; 3 lbs. $1.00
THE STORES ARE SO CONVENIENTLY LOCATED. OUR ST. HELENS STORE IS IN THE WELLINGTON BUILDING, ON THE STRAND.

There will be services for public worship every second and fourth Sunday of the month at Columbia City. A Sunday School was started last Sunday morning with a good attendance. The school will meet each Sunday at 10 a. m. Mrs. A. G. Peterson will temporarily have charge of the school. State Missionary G. L. Hall will lead the work and conduct the preaching services. Baptists and others of St. Helens who are interested will be cordially welcomed. Rev. Hall announces that he will also conduct services of public worship at Yankton at three o'clock every second and fourth Sunday in the month. Will the people of that locality please remember these dates.

LIBERTY THEATRE
LEW A. CATES, Manager.
LESSONS IN LOVE
Sparks from a furnace of fiery hearts are expected to fall all over the Liberty during this picture. It'll teach you how to make love; how to win 'em, how to hold 'em, and makes you laugh while you learn. It is Connie's newest and zippiest comedy, consuming 72 minutes. Funny from the sounding of the gong.
"HOLD YOUR BREATH"
A comedy in every sense of the word; and a Weekly. You can't afford to miss these.
SUNDAY and MONDAY, OCTOBER 2-3
SUNDAY 2 to 11 P. M.
"THE CABINET of Dr. CALIGARI"
RADICALLY, DARINGLY, STARTLINGLY NEW
This fantastic mystery story created a motion picture sensation, both in Europe and in New York, where it had its American premiere. All pronounce the scenic effects remarkable, and the story itself thrilling. The streets, the buildings, the rooms, the walls, the very stones act in this remarkable picture. This picture packs houses everywhere. It should in St. Helens.
"THE SKIPPER'S BOOZEM FRIEND"
A First National Comedy, and a laugh producer from start to finish. PATHE REVIEW.
TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 4-5
MAURICE TOURNEUR presents
"THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS"
From the well-known novel of James Fenimore Cooper, and a true Indian classic. It is a picture that will be screened in the public schools of the future. It is an educational picture and one that everybody should see. It is all star! Early American history is graphically represented. You should see the horrible massacre of Fort William Henry, New York, which took place on August 19, 1757, and other equally interesting historic scenes.
SPECIAL SCHOOL CHILDREN'S MATINEE
Wednesday Afternoon, 3 p. m. Price 15c
PATHE COMEDY PATHE REVIEW
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6
"UNSEEN FORCES"
The Unseen Forces that bring woman to man, mate to mate, gripped her. "There—that is your man. Love him!" they whispered. But the man was already married—to a woman whose indifference blasted his happiness. Yet Unseen Forces drew all three together, the girl and the man who loved, and the wife who stood mockingly between them. A drama of a love that waned and a love that won.
Superb cast headed by Sylvia Breamer, Rosemary Theby, Conrad Nagel, Robert Cain, Sam De Grasse.
"SOCIETY DOGS"
A sure winner comedy will amuse. It's as full of fun as the best.
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7
GLADYS WALTON in
"SHORT SKIRTS"
An Oregon girl in a splendid Universal attraction, from the Saturday Evening Post story by Alice T. Tildesley. She was just a little girl in short skirts, but my, how she would fight when reminded of it. She's simply adorable and the picture is realistic and fascinating.
"HIGH LIFE"—the Comedy
Prices: Adults, 35c; Children under 12, 15c
SCHOOL CHILDREN'S MATINEE WEDNESDAY
Continuous Performance Sunday from 2 to 11 P. M.
Articles left in the Liberty Theatre: Child's corduroy coat, child's stocking cap, box snuff, ladies' kid glove, man's cap.

When you ask for BEYOND COMPARE
MUNSING WEAR
It's the same as saying "give me underwear that's 100 per cent right"
Right is right, that's all there is to it. Munsingwear union suits are made right. Fine quality, perfection of fit, washability, serviceability, all round satisfaction—these things you are sure of in Munsingwear.
Because Munsingwear is made right it makes good with millions of discriminating people, men, women and children, who prefer wear and ask for Munsingwear.
You, too, want underwear that's right. You want it for two reasons:
First: Because in view of present conditions, the surest way to practice economy in underclothes is to insist upon quality and service.
Second: Because your own personal comfort depends largely on being underclothed with a garment that fits, wears, washes, with sure satisfaction.
Our recommendation to you is to get next to Munsingwear and let it get next to you. Its reputation as an undergarment of dependability, service and all 'round satisfaction is nationwide.
It's underwear buying time—RIGHT NOW. It will pay you to get union suited right—the Munsingwear way. Remember the name. Ask for it at our store.
Our stocks of fall and winter Munsingwear for men, women, children, offer a wide range for selection. You may have Munsingwear in every desired style, a large variety of fabrics, light, medium and heavyweight.
Munsingwear, considering the unusual serviceability and reasonable first cost is the most economical undergarment you can buy.
That's important these days of rising costs and uncertain merchandise.
AUSTIN'S