LIBERTY THEATRE

LEW A. CATES, Manager.

The fifth week under the present management opens tomorrow (Saturday) night, with a program selected with great care, and one that we are confident will afford high-class entertainment to patrons of this house. Special attention is directed to the Sunday and Monday bill—"A Tale of Two Worlds," one of the greatest character casts ever assembled, and "The Child Thou Gavest me," featuring the phenomenal 3-year-old Dick Headrick. Continuous performance Sunday from 2 to 11.

SATURDAY, OCT. 15

ROY STEWART in

"The Lone Hand"

(Western)

A thrilling story with beautiful and realistic settings. It is filled with interesting situations, and one of those pictures where the climax is not seen in the first reel. The star certainly plays a lone hand, as you will acknowledge after seeing the picture.

Comedy—"THE TEACHER'S PET"—Funny International Weekly Nine Full Reels, Total

SUNDAY-MONDAY, OCT. 16-17

Gouverneur Morris' Story

"A Tale of Two Worlds"

This is the sort of story that only this author could write! It is a stirring drama that starts in Peking during the Boxer uprising and carries one across the sea to Frisco's Chinatown. It has thrills, romance, fights, action—you are going to love it. A love story that runs like a thread of virgin gold through this tremendously exciting play of the underground dens of San Francisco, famous the world over for terrible tong wars, slave trading and picturesque population. (See lobby display.)

Comedy—"GONE TO THE COUNTRY"—Pollard Pathe Review Sunday: 2 to 11 P. M.

TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY, OCT. 18-19

An All-Star Cast in

"The Child Thou Gavest Me"

This is one of the Big Four pictures that turned them away at the Columbia in Portland every night for three solid weeks. In it Little Dick Headrick, the wonder-child, gives a marvelous performance. The story: A wife goes into marriage with a lie on her lips; a husband who finds that lie and waits; a friend who had loved the woman once—still loved her, some said—and tried to bring happiness to a home bereft of it. They, and the child, sweep to a climax of drama, surprise and absolute amazement.

Comedy—"IN THE SWEET BY AND BY"—Pollard Pathe Review Nine Full Reels

THURSDAY-FRIDAY, OCT. 20-21

DOUGLAS MacLEAN in

"One a Minute"

Or "SIXTY FOOLS BORN IN AN HOUR"

A mile of film with a laugh in every foot. The happy tale of a quack who made millions because he made life easy to swallow. If you don't think that his "Knight's 99" can cure every ill from whiskers to falling arches come and laugh while he proves old Barnum was right. It's a big comedy drama—yes, a big one.

Comedy—"A WEEK OFF"—Two Reels

PRICES: 35c and 15c. SUNDAY from 2 to 6, 25c and 10c.

SPECIAL—On Monday night we will give absolutely free, $20 worth of Fuller's Brushes, in six prizes, to holders of the lucky number. See announcement elsewhere in The Mist. See, also, display of brushes in theatre lobby.

Continuous Performance Sunday from 2 to 11 P. M.
