

OVER THE COUNTY

SCAPPOOSE

Mr. Martin, one of the managers in the Portland Ad club, has two and one-half tons iron all ready to ship to Salt Lake where it will be placed in a smelter to determine the quality of iron ore.

Judge Mac Donald has resigned as recorder and Mr. Cathcart, who resigned at one time on account of ill health, has again resumed responsibility.

All the councilmen were requested to appoint alternates to meet with the next council meeting to prepare the budget for 1922 for city of Scappoose. This is in compliance with recent state law enacted wherein it is required where the disbursement body cannot levy taxes.

Church services, Sunday school at 10 a. m., rally day service; C. E. at 8:45 p. m., evening service at 7:45 p. m. Special music. Mr. Dorks will occupy the pulpit morning and evening.

Mr. Ridgeway, prominent attorney of Portland, Oregon, also secretary of the state bar association, has been elected as a director of Scappoose bank, taking the place of Mr. David Wilson, who is up in Canada on business looking after his real estate and other financial features.

R. H. Porter, who was injured at camp, Friday, by a log rolling on him, was taken to the St. Vincent hospital and died Friday night. He was employed as hook tender at the time of the accident.

An enthusiastic crowd enjoyed the interesting game of football on the school campus, Saturday between the Scappoose and Beaverton teams. Our boys won by the score of 7 to 2. There will be a return game at Beaverton in two weeks.

The volley ball team has a game with the Portland Y. M. C. A. team on Monday, October 24th.

Several Scappoose people attended the funeral of Dr. Hatfield in Orenco, Monday. Dr. Hatfield for many years was a resident physician here, superintendent of the Sunday school and always took an active part in the betterment of the community. Cornelius Hatfield was born in Petersburg, Ill., in 1845 and practiced medicine in Chicago until 1883 and then on account of his health came west and settled at Vernonia in 1895 and to Scappoose in 1909 where he lived until 1919 when he moved to Orenco to be near his daughter Mrs. C. Barker. He is survived by his wife, one son, two daughters and five grandchildren. Mr. Meyers, who was pastor here for a while, came from Tacoma to speak at his friend's funeral. Interment was made in Riverview cemetery, at Portland.

Mrs. DuBois has been visiting Scappoose friends over the week end.

J. Mackey is home from the hospital and improving slowly in health.

Mrs. John Richardson spent the week end in Portland visiting her mother.

Mrs. George Grant went to McMinnville, Tuesday, to enjoy a week with Mr. and Mrs. Cal Weaver.

Marjorie Holoday and Ruth, are home from Vernonia during institute week.

Mrs. Fannie Barnett is here from California to see Mother Barnett.

Vera Price is holding up the honors of Scappoose at the U. of O. this fall. She has made good for the glee club and was the first one chosen after rehearsing.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sandstrom spent Sunday at Goble with her sister and mother.

The W. B. A. realized something over $10.00 at their "bake" Saturday. The things were lovely, but not near enough to supply the demand.

WARREN

Mrs. J. P. Hedwall is spending the winter in Portland.

Albert Freeman is nursing a sore finger caused by cutting wood. The axe took a small piece of the end and added it to the pile of wood.

The regular monthly meeting of the grange will be held Saturday evening. A goodly attendance is expected and several applications for membership is promised.

The members of the Swedish Lutheran church gave a surprise party to their pastor in his new home on Friday night. A pleasant time was enjoyed by the large gathering. Short talks were made by Chas. Johnson, J. J. Lindahl and others. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Adams, of Portland, spent Sunday with their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Adams.

G. Carlson made a business trip to Portland the first of the week.

Frank Beeler, Homer Beeler and Theodore Cooper were hunting pheasants, Monday. They got some. Pheasant is being extensively carried on since the recent rains.

Joseph Erickson, who has a large contract for ties and lumber in the lower end of the county, spent a couple of days in Warren returning on Tuesday.

A weiner roast was held at the Wellborn residence on Saturday night by a number of Warrens younger set.

F. A. Hoyt is in the employ of the county. He has charge of one of the big trucks.

Rev. B. Jorquist of the Baptist church returned from Minnesota, his former home, from an extended visit.

YANKTON

The Yankton school has started this year with a good attendance. The children are feeling good over their success at the county fair. They feel that they got their share of the prizes. The local grange is also giving cash prizes amounting to $25. Our calf club, who was awarded a free trip to the state fair at Salem reported a good time.

Miss Clara Lingle of Boring, Ore., is our primary teacher. Frank D. Pimm and May McColister are again principal and intermediate teacher.

The Yankton school has a traveling library received from the state library at Salem for use of the neighborhood. We wish the parents will come to the school house and get these books. You will find books on nearly all subjects. Good reading is a profitable pastime.

On the evening of October 29 the Yankton school is giving a Halloween program. Come to our program and have a good time.

PRESCOTT

Miss Isabelle Hamilton left Sunday for Portland where she will resume her studies at the Benke-Walker business college.

Bently Pritchard of Rainier visited with friends Sunday.

Miss Inez Hooker and George Wilson were united in marriage at St. Helens, the Rev. S. Darlow Johnson officiating. They will make their home with the bride's father.

Erma Korke of St. Helens visited with friends over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Mundy of Roseburg are guests at the Robert Graham, Sr. home.

The circulation of University of Oregon library books from January to June of the present year was 100,392. The library now has a total of 106,700 volumes.

Astoria school budget $20,000 below last year.

Meat and Grocery Prices

That Count

A Matter for YOU to Consider

Did you ever stop to consider that it costs the merchants of St. Helens about $20 per day to make the rounds soliciting business? In other words, to call at your home to ask you what "will you have today?" and have you stopped to consider that this expense must be added to the cost of the goods you buy? It is a fact and there can be no dispute about it.

When we started business in St. Helens, we believed that soliciting was unnecessary and that the $20 per day additional expense was unnecessary and that our customers were entitled to rock-bottom prices without the additional cost of this unnecessary service. We have lived up to this and that is why we have the big volume of business which now comes to us—BECAUSE WE SAVE YOU MONEY ON YOUR GROCERY AND MEAT BILL.
