Presumably with the idea of infusing more pep in the team and the rosters, which attended the football game yesterday, students of the St. Helens high staged a big rally Wednesday evening. They did the serpentine stunt on the main street and a well-trained chorus told all passers-by that St. Helens high was in evidence.

Tom Roy took an involuntary bath early Tuesday morning. He was working lumber on the steamer Daisy Matthews and was struck by a sling load of lumber and knocked over the side of the vessel into the river. Other longshoremen on the vessel pulled him from the water and aside from a thorough wetting and a ducking, he suffered no injury.

Mrs. J. L. Wellborn of the Bachelor Flat district was in St. Helens Wednesday to deliver a dozen or so turkeys. This year she raised 139 turkeys. The eggs were set in July and she had exceptionally good luck, as practically all of the turkeys lived. Two of them which she brought in Wednesday weighed 15 pounds each, though only four months old.

I. W. Rivers had a narrow escape from drowning Monday evening about 6 o'clock. He lives in a small house boat to the north of the city dock. A river boat coming by made a heavy swell and one of the logs under the boat house broke loose causing the structure to tip over. The door was under water so Rivers broke a window and crawled thru. Neighbors assisted him. The only article he saved was his violin. As soon as high water recedes the house will be righted.

LIBERTY PROGRAM

For the Week Nov. 27—Dec. 3

SUNDAY-MONDAY

Thomas Jefferson in "RIP VAN WINKLE"

Washington Irving's immortal classic, a fascinating story that has been read the world over, made into an engrossing motion picture. The youngsters and grownups will thoroughly enjoy the picturization of this story.

See the splendid beauty of the Catskills in storm and sun. See the revels of Hendrick Hudson and his ghastly crew. See how Rip left home—aided by the big stick.

See how the glorious dream of a Fairy Queen was changed to stern reality. See Rip's adventures while hunting—far wider than any which Don Quixote De La Mancha ever knew.

See how Rip tasted the gnome's liquor—and what befell him. See him, as a tattered and bearded old stranger, come to the little village of Falling Waters—and see his reception.

See how the rascal was overthrown—see "Rip Van Winkle." Comedy: "Over the Fence," and Pathe Review.

TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY

Tom Mix in "THE ROAD DEMON"

This is unquestionably one of Mix's very best efforts. It is a picture full of vim from start to finish. It has sufficient action to please the most exacting—in fact it's wild and woolly throughout, with Mix at his best. If you see "The Road Demon" you'll like this star better than ever. Take our word for it.

Comedy: "A Zero Hero," Pathe Review.

THURSDAY

Bernard Dunning and Seena Owen in "THE GIET SUPREME"

A play with that melodramatic quality that today is so popular with photoplay enthusiasts. It gives to the screen a remarkable production that is said not to have been equaled since the inception of the famous Griffith all-star productions, or "The Miracle Man." There are deft comedy veins ever evident to relieve the intensity. An all-star cast.

Comedy: "Never Again" — Just Funny.

FRIDAY-SATURDAY

Rex Ingham's Production "THE FOUR HORSEMEN OF THE APOCALYPSE"

A magnificent screen translation of the story that has thrilled 29,000,000 readers, enacted by the greatest cast in history, comprising more than 12,500 and 50 principals. Produced at a cost of six months' preparation, a year and a half of action, and more than $1,000,000.

From Vincente Blasco Ibanez's internationally famous novel the pinnacle of screen excellence is attained. All the virile force and dramatic intensity of the noted story is preserved and heightened in the colossal screen vision, while the vast magnitude of the gigantic events recounted are pictured by the camera with a power beyond description of mere words.

HOW CAN WE AFFORD IT? If we possessed the wealth of Rockefeller we could not buy this picture for a single night. It is played by Metro Pictures Corporation, the producers, who control the prices for admission, which in the case of St. Helens will be 50, 75 and $1, less than charged in the larger cities, and the lowest figure the management of this theatre was enabled to secure for his patrons.

(See The Mist next week.)

Continuous Sunday 2 to 11. Prices 10 and 25 until 6.

Liberty Theatre Sunday Matinee

"RIP VAN WINKLE"

2 to 6 p. m. 25 Cents

After 6 p. m. 35 cents

Chauncey M. Depew, erstwhile United States senator from New York, put $100 in a Peekskill, N. Y., savings bank in 1860. It was his first $100. Maybe Senator Depew found, as many do, that the first $100 proved to be the hardest. Anyway, in spite of strenuous temptation, he refused to draw upon that $100, and, as a result of later prosperity, finally forgot about it. Not long ago Senator Depew entered the Peekskill bank to greet some old friends and they reminded him of his "nest egg." On computing the interest it was found that the original deposit of $100 had grown to be $800 and owing to the long period in which it had lain undisturbed had achieved the distinction of being known as the bank's star account.

Mr. Hall of Delena was visiting his daughter, Mrs. Hunt Wolfe during the week. S. M. Boals arrived home Wednesday and will remain until after the holidays. Mrs. R. H. McAdams and Mrs. Ferd Washburne motored to Woodson Saturday.

Victor Carlton met with a painful accident Tuesday evening. He fell from the sto and was badly hurt. R. H. McAdams returned home from Kerry, Wednesday morning. Lou and Conrad Benson are home for the winter.

Wallace Anderson gave up high school and will go to work for his father. Mr. R. H. McAdams and Mrs. Ferd Washburne motored to Woodson Saturday.
