If all plans are completed our valley ball team will go to St. Helens next Tuesday evening to play the business men's team of St. Helens.

All persons who have not been solicited and wish to renew their membership to the Red Cross may hand their subscriptions to Mr. Hockett.

And here is the story of a man who sank his own boat. Sunday Messrs. Perry, Hostetter and Gerlach were hunting for ducks so they loaded the little boat with ammunition, gum boots, overcoats, etc., and sailed forth. Mr. Perry sat in the stern and watched what he thought was a leak. Suddenly down went the little boat. Perry who was all ready gun in hand watching skyward for little birdie, swam to shore carrying his gun, but Hostetter was not so fortunate and down went his gun to the bottom of the sea. After a change of wearing apparel and a good hot dinner the party went fishing and after several hours were fortunate enough to find the gun.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynch were hosts at a dinner Sunday and entertained Mr. West and family and Earl Matthias. Three birthdays were celebrated, Robert Lynch, Lloyd Lynch and Wesley West.

WARREN

The barn of Chas. Kohlstrand was burned last Thursday with all its contents. The origin of the fire is not known. The loss falls heavily on Mr. Kohlstrand as all his winter feed for his stock was stored in it.

F. J. Larson, Miss Anna Larson and Miss Signa Engstrom returned last week from a trip covering a period of two years. During their travels they visited California, Kansas and other states and crossed to Europe taking in France, Italy, Egypt and the Holy Lands pyramid and other points. They were in Seaside from whence they sailed for home. Their many friends welcome them home and C. J. says "Warren looks the best."

The bear has been in a pollier laugh than formerly. Many of his friends have smoked. Orville is the uncle of two girls, his brother. Will being visited by the heavily laden stork recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harms left by auto for Los Angeles on Saturday. It is stated they will remain for some time.
