SCAPPOOSE

SCAPPOOSE, Ore., Dec. 28.—(Special to The Mist.)—May the New Year bring to you—Health, Wealth and Happiness.

Ardath Duncan and Mrs. MacDonald are convalescing from severe illnesses.

Evelyn Gerlach gave her parents quite a scare Monday when she became very ill, presumably poisoned by something she ate.

Fern White is on the sick list and Mary Richardson is taking Fern's place. Mary's happy smile looks quite natural.

Goldie Grewell is entertaining Miss Geneva E. Jacobs of Hillsboro over the holidays.

Vera Urice assisted by some of the young folks home from college gave a dance party in the hall Tuesday evening.

The mill men will all be glad to know that the price of lumber is advancing. Fir lumber is from $2.00 to $10.00 stronger and the market in New York on fir is now on a par with pine lumber.

The return volleyball game with St. Helens was played Thursday evening our local team taking four games out of five. The teams were evenly matched and both sides played good ball.

School will open January 3. All the grades had Christmas programs and a visit from Santa Claus.

Mrs. Getchell entertained with a dinner Monday for Mrs. DuBois who is visiting her.

Mrs. Martin and family are occupying the Cleve Barnett cottage.

Among those who entertained guests Christmas day were Mrs. Geo. Frakes, the guests included her parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Frakes; D. W. Dobbins and son, Warren. Dinner was served in the attractive east room enclosed with glass and decorated and trimmed in blue. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Price entertained their children, Vern, Watts, Lloyd, Roy and Genevieve, Mrs. Kingdon, Mayor Watts and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Garrison entertained Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kilworth, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Garrison and Gladys, Roy Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wist and the Messrs Westover, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Grant also had Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Weaver of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Grant of Tacoma, Mrs. Shell of Portland as guests. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Grewell had for guests, Mrs. Grewell and family, Miss Tipton, Mrs. Samsen and Norman and Herman Miller. The Wikstrom family all enjoyed their Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wikstrom, N. Scapoose. Mr. and Mrs. Sandstrom entertained Mr. and Mrs. Arch Duncan, the Hoven family from Goble, and her two brothers. The Blatchford family drove over from Salem and surprised Mother DeGraff.

A. Hackett has been appointed by the mayor as councilman to serve the unexpired term of Charles Wikstrom, who has resigned.

The Sunday school program on Christmas eve was well attended. The little folks did their parts very well—one feature of the program was the presentation of a birthday cake to the superintendent, Mrs. J. G. Watts with (?) candles lighted. Her birthday anniversary is on Christmas day.

Community Church services for Sunday, Sunday school at 10 a. m., morning worship at 11 a. m., C. E. at 6:45 p. m., evening service at 7:45. A. W. Bond will occupy the pulpit morning and evening.

WARREN

WARREN, Ore., Dec. 28.—(Special to The Mist.)—The Baptist church celebrated Christmas to the Sunday school children in the church on Monday eve. The church was tastefully decorated and Christmas trees laden with sweets filled the edifice. The music under the direction of Mrs. Maybe was of special Christmas character and was enjoyed by all. Of special merit was the violin and piano solos by Mr. Asperen and Mrs. Maybe who responded to requests and rendered "Silent Night."

The solo by little Violet Skarberg was roundly applauded and was exceptional for a six-year-old child. The duet, "Whispering Hope," by Mrs. S. Huemert and Mrs. Maybe with violin and piano accompaniment was well rendered and altogether the music and singing was so much superior to what was expected that Rev. Birchswich congratulated the participants in no uncertain way. The church was crowded to the doors.

The Swedish Lutheran congregation held services on Christmas eve and special services on Christmas day. A laden tree was also in evidence for the Sunday school children.

Special Christmas services were held at the Evangelical church, Rev. Bowersox officiating. The program was arranged by Roy Tarbell, assisted by members of the congregation.

Dame Rumor is busy coupling the names of two of the popular young lady members of the Swedish Lutheran church as having been captured by that boy "Cupid," and she says look out for wedding in the very near future. Also an older prominent member of the same congregation is reported to have been caught in the meshes and will take a wife.

A goodly number of the Beeler family of St. Helens spent Monday with Dad and Ma Beeler of Warren. The vegetable grower's association of Warren is scheduled for another meeting in the near future at which time assignments will be completed for acreage to be grown and seeds to be supplied. The organization is proceeding along the right lines and its members are a unit in the enterprise.

Some of the farmers are advocating a cheese factory for Warren and steps may be taken shortly to build one. The milk production is ample for a good sized output and the milk producers need a demand for their product. A couple of expert cheese makers have looked over the field and have expressed an opinion that it will pay.

J. E. Nordlund is spending the Christmas holidays on his ranch here. He is employed by the Kerry Logging R. R. Co.

Lawrence Anderson, who is taking a course in journalism at the University of Oregon, is spending his Christmas vacation at his parents home, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Anderson.

Carl Muhr, who is attending the O. A. C. in an agricultural course is spending his holidays at home.

Miss Judith Swanson who has been suffering from an attack of pneumonia, is recovering.

Harold Carlson, rural mail carrier, expresses satisfaction that Christmas is over. The bundles he had to deliver surpassed beyond measure any former years.

Warren will not be Warren if old if the many good resolutions are carried out as intimated by its residents. A change must surely come. While these resolutions have not been expressed it is known that much good would be encompassed if they were all-carried out. Here are some: Rev. Bjorquist: "To work for the upbuilding of our little church and cause it to flourish in the same proportion as last year." C. J. Larson: "To stay at home and attend my farm and digest the wonders I have seen in the last two years." A. L. Larson: "To remain at Warren and thank my lucky stars that I am not in some parts of the country that I have just visited." T. E. Grewell: "To take it easy now as all the girls are married and gather my farm crops for me and mother." R. F. Fullerton: "To endeavor to get some kind of feed that will make those bloody lazy hens lay every day in the year." Ed Hay: "To keep the people of Warren posted when my next place of residence is moved." O. A. Erickson: "To endeavor to build up Warren and act as a help to all the residents." G. Carlson: "To build up a better, bigger and more comprehensive business for 1922."

Elmer Dahlgren: "To retain our reputation for good crops and production of fruit." Porter Loomis: "To thoroughly cultivate my berry patch so I can have strawberries the year round and get in a position that Curtis can drive the truck." Dad Beeler: "To use a little more care in chucking trees and to try to realize I am over 27 years old." W. C. Cooper: "To stay more closely at home and not bother building school houses only in certain sections." K. F. Larsen: "To cut my whiskers not more than twice this year thereby reducing the H. C. of L." Charley Johnson: "Thankful that C. J. Larson is back and that he will help to carry on the work the church has on hand." Albert Freeman: "To go on in my usual way and help wherever I can to those who need it." P. H. Lund: "To work for a better farm display at the county fair and an increased production of vegetables." Paul Adams: "To show the people how to raise Hampshire hogs and carry off prizes next year." S. Wellborn: "To raise more potatoes if possible next year than this." Lew Snider: "To just work and improve my ranch." John Farr: "To help Leo to make a success and educate our kids and just work." E. W. Boesel: "To look forward to the time when Warren can have its own cheese factory and I can be interested." A. H. Tarbell: "To improve all I can the Short-horn cattle of this country and aid in their propagation." Ernest Rylander: "To aid in every way the new organization of vegetable and fruit growers and marketers." Harold Carlson: "To see that the members of the vegetable growers are at every meeting and to make it a success." All together: "To work for a better, happier, more united and less jealous Warren District. To help our fellowman and learn that the success of any one individual is a benefit; not a hindrance to everyone to resolve if we cannot say a good word of a neighbor to keep silent."

Last week Miss Huida Gabrielson was married at Portland to Edward Bjorklund. Miss Gabrielson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Gabrielson and was popular in Warren. For the last two years she has been in the employ of the Pacific Telephone Company. The young couple spent Christmas at Warren, accompanied by Miss Esther Gabrielson.

PATRONIZING THE HOME INDUSTRIES

THE DOLLAR sent from home seldom comes back. The dollar spent at home remains and goes into circulation among the home folks. PATRONIZING HOME INDUSTRY helps to build up the community. The undersigned bakers have invested in their bakery plants more than $20,000 upon which a city, county and school tax is levied. They employ 8 to 10 people the year around and these people spend a greater portion of their earnings in St. Helens.

We claim we make as good bread and bakery products as are furnished by any other bakery. If you do not think so we will not ask your patronage, but if you find our products first-class we will appreciate your patronage and ask that you give preference as between them and bakery products, especially bread, made in Portland or any other city.

Quality and Price being equal, we ask you to ASK your grocer for St. Helens made bakery goods, or you may buy them at our bakeries. The dollar sent to Portland for Portland bread ceases to be the St. Helens dollar. We can only maintain our establishments which are a part of St. Helens, by your giving our products the preference—in other words—by your patronizing HOME INDUSTRY. We believe you will do it.

WE TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO THANK THE MERCHANTS AND BUYING PUBLIC FOR THEIR SUPPORT DURING THE YEAR AND FOR THEIR LOYALTY TO THE BAKERY HOME INDUSTRY.
