

MIST MISTINGS

Join Columbia Post, The American Legion. J. W. Thatcher was a business visitor in Portland, Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and family spent New Year's with friends in Portland.

Carl Rodgers of Portland was a guest of his aunt, Mrs. S. C. Morton and Miss Olga Heilborn on New Year's day and Monday. Carl is a member of the senior class at Jefferson high and will graduate this month. Miss Blanche Warner of Elk Rapids, Michigan, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. George Wilson for the past year, left on Wednesday for Corona, California, to visit her brother, Allen L. Warner of that city.

Annual clearance sale of all fall and winter goods now on at Millady's Shop. Big reductions in prices on all lines to make room for spring goods.—Adv.

No more stimulating line of study in any field could be found than the new series of Sunday school lessons on the Hebrew prophets. Mr. Tuttle, who is an authority on Hebrew history, will present some of the illuminating facts which form the background to this study, Sunday evening at the Congregational church.—Adv.

Harry Bennett took a short vacation from his work at the barber shop Tuesday and journeyed to Portland. Do you enjoy a live, snappy, breezy address? Hear Mr. Tuttle, Sunday evening, at Congregational church.—Adv.

Dr. Thompson wishes to notify his patrons that his practice is now entirely confined to the road. He makes regular visits to twenty-one valley towns every thirty days, and can not be found at his office headquarters in Portland. Those wishing to see him personally should arrange to do so on dates of his visits here. Next visit Saturday, January 14, Orinda Hotel, all day.

Miss Mary Long left on Thursday morning for Astoria where she will spend several days with friends. Mrs. A. B. Lake returned from Seattle Saturday after having spent the holidays season with friends in that city.

Having sold our stock of merchandise to Mr. T. V. Holstine, we wish to thank all our customers for their patronage and hope they will extend the same kindness and patronage to the new owner.—C. H. Briggs & Co., Yankton, Oregon.

Miss Edna Christie of Portland spent the New Year holidays with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Christie. E. M. Helon, who has been confined to his home with a severe cold, has sufficiently recovered to resume his duties at his store.

BEHOLD MY WIFE. NOTICE. SUNDAY ONLY— Sunday Matinee— CHARLES RAY —IN— "A VILLAGE SLEUTH"

Mr. and Mrs. John Phillip and Miss Elizabeth Phillip were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Forbes at their Portland home on New Year's day. P. E. Lovegren, a prominent resident of the Quincy neighborhood, was in St. Helens Wednesday in conference with the county court.

A picture with all the charm and heart appeal that made Charles Ray one of the most beloved actors on the screen. Folks thought he was only a hired man, but—sh-h-h—he was a detective!! Really! Even better than Nick Carter! Disguises, revolver, bull's-eye lantern, n'everything! And when that rich man disappeared and a big jewel theft baffled them smart city sleuths, and queer things happened in that Home for Nervous Women— Sh-h-h-h! Just watch Sherlock Wells—

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Solum have at their house a bouncing baby boy which the stork left in their care on Friday evening, December 30. The mother and son are progressing nicely. Have you lost your interest in Bible study? If you don't want to revive it, don't risk hearing Mr. Tuttle's address on Elijah, Sunday night at the Congregational church.—Adv.

COMEDY: "Edgar's Country Cousin" EDUCATIONAL REEL: "FAIRY MAGIC" Continuous Sunday from 2 to 11 p. m. Matinee Prices until 6 o'clock 25c and 10c.

Join Columbia Post, The American Legion. Mrs. Alice P. Manley, whose home is in McMinnville, after a few days visit with her daughter, Mrs. Edward Jones, left for her home Tuesday afternoon.

TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY— Chamber of Commerce Chanter MINSTRELS An entertainment that should place this bunch of amateur artists in the professional class. NO PICTURES — JUST MUSIC, JOKES, FUN. PRICE: HALF A BUCK.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Nauman were in Portland Saturday getting costumes and necessary supplies for the Chamber of Commerce Chanters Minstrels. Miss Jane Day, who has been spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Day, returned to Portland Monday to resume her studies in one of the Portland schools.

THURSDAY-FRIDAY— J. P. MCGOWAN —IN— "COLD STEEL" supported by Kathleen Clifford and an all-star cast. Charles Steel, known as "Cold Steel" because of his imperturbability in the face of danger, goes to San Mateo, New Mexico, to build a great dam for irrigation. Others had attempted the work before but failed. Obstacles pile up to discourage him. Cattlemen conspire against him—they plot to blow up his dam. There are tense and thrilling situations in this story of a life of adventure among soldiers of fortune near the border.

Speed up your brain work! Enjoy the stimulating and enlightening address by Professor H. S. Tuttle of Pacific University, Sunday night at Congregational church. Dry? Not a minute!—Adv.

Dainty Kathleen Clifford, who was Douglas Fairbanks leading woman in "When the Clouds Roll By," plays opposite McGowan. SENNETT COMEDY: "HIS HIDDEN PURPOSE"

D. A. Robertson an old time friend of County Clerk J. W. Hunt was here for a week end visit with Mr. and Mrs. Hunt. He is an ex-service man and is receiving treatment at the Cushman hospital.

SATURDAY ONLY— DOUGLAS MacLEAN —IN— "THE JAILBIRD" The crowded career of one Shakespeare Clancy, who ran from a cell to run a village journal. When he tried to be honest and pep up the natives, they'd swallow nothing but fake oil stock. So he fed 'em what they wanted, and was sneaking out with the profits when— Holy smoke! You never can tell about Mother Earth or a Woman! A thousand-barrel "gusher" of laughs, heart-tug and excitement.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Isensee of Modesto, Calif., who have been here since December 16, guests at the home of Professor and Mrs. A. F. Isensee, left for their home yesterday. The visitors are the parents of the professor. Mrs. Sophia Dolan and three daughters and J. B. Godfrey were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Van Dolan at an enjoyable New Year's dinner. The evening was spent in playing cards and the party watched the old year out and the new year in.

MACK SENNETT COMEDY: "ROOM 23" INTERNATIONAL NEWS. SATURDAY, JANUARY 7— "MONTANA BILL" a Big Western.

The steamer Multnomah was due last night or early this morning. A part of her upbound cargo is a steam crane belonging to the Island Lumber company. Since the mill shut down the crane has been in service in the San Diego yards of the McCormick Lumber company. The steamer will load a consignment of 500,000 feet of lumber here for San Francisco and finish her cargo at some mill on the river.
