Johnson, Jr.; post adjutant, Wm. Luebke; finance adjutant, Wm. Luebke; chaplain, James K. Boyd. In accordance with the rules of the national department is was voted to change the name of the post from Carl G. Helmuller Post to Scappoose Post No. 109. The post is starting off with a membership of 34 and bids fair to be one of the best small posts in the state. A supper and entertainment will be put on by the members, March 11th when Columbia County Post No. 42 from St. Helens will be invited to attend.

The Ladies Glee club from Willamette University was more than pleasing with their concert Tuesday evening, the audience being delighted and the club will always find a welcome when they come again. The high school presented Miss Blatchford with flowers.

At the special meeting of the council February 9th the contract for building the water system for the city was awarded to Parker-Schram of Portland.

Grant & Sandstrom have set a very good example in completing the grading of their section of the street. The rest want to get busy and do likewise.

Mrs. Boster entertained with a 500 party last Friday evening. Guests for three tables were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wikstrom were given a surprise party Saturday evening when about 25 friends walked in on them.

Mrs. R. J. Frakes is slowly recovering from a severe spell of the grip, having been confined to the house for six weeks.

Our dairy league held a meeting Tuesday evening to straighten out the dairy league business.

Mrs. Martin had for guests last week her mother, Mrs. Smith of Portland and brother, Roy Brunner of Portland.

Mrs. E. E. Wist and Miss Ruby Tipton spent the week end at O. A. C. visiting Gladys Garrison and incidentally had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson entertained Saturday evening with a dinner. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Dana Frame and Hugh Adams of St. Helens.

Mr. Pomeroy had news from Portland that the entire family of Jan. Pomeroy were ill with grippe.

There are numerous cases of the grippe in the vicinity. The entire Kilworth family are ill. Mrs. Newton is slowly recovering after a spell.

Mrs. Couganant of California is visiting her sister, Mrs. Allen this week.

WARREN

WARREN, Ore., Feb. 16.—(Special to The Mist.)—A very disagreeable and painful epidemic is covering the district. Hardly a family but has been afflicted and it serves all alike. It much resembles the old fashioned "epizootic" which was so prevalent 25 years ago. The long steady cold weather is blamed for the contagion.

A large number of the Warren farmers attended the demonstration held on the farm of P. C. Jacobson last Friday. An interesting program was carried out and much information imparted to the onlookers.

Warren's social sets are vying with each other to furnish first class entertainment to the younger classes and two dances were given, one in each of the halls last Saturday evening. A year or so ago if anyone had intimated that a successful dance could be held at Warren he was looked on with askance but now two flourish.

Louis Snider has just sold one of his prize Holstein heifers for $400. The animal was only a two-year-old and the fancy price speaks well for Mr. Snider's herd. The animal was sold to the former owner of many of the animals that now go to make up the Carnation herd and had to stand high in points for her new owner to consider her purchase.

John Josephson has sold to Peter Serafin of Trenholm a first class Holstein bull. His mother, Mohie Segis Clarinda 2nd, was first and grand champion at the 1920 county fair. Mr. Serafin now has 25 head of Holsteins.

S. W. Dalhgren who has been ill for some time is rapidly convalescing.

T. E. Grewell, newly appointed road boss, is busy with his new grader repairing the ruts in the roads.

DEER ISLAND

DEER ISLAND, Ore., Feb. 16.—(Special to The Mist.)—Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Warren and Mrs. McCall of St. Helens were Sunday callers at the Homer Stewart home.

Mr. and Mrs. Judish, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Pritchard motored to Portland Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark and Mrs. A. Adams were Portland visitors on Sunday.

Frank Daly was a Portland visitor Tuesday.

Darrel Stewart and Ben Enyart have a contract to get out the fire wood for the cook house and bunk houses of the Deer Island Logging Company.

Mrs. Chris Naegell was called to Portland last Thursday to see her brother, Ben Brugger who was seriously injured in a landslide on the highway near Troutdale. A large rock crashed through the top of the truck he was driving striking him on the head and rendering him unconscious. Only the fact that another man was in the seat with him to take the wheel immediately saved the accident from being fatal. Mr. Brugger is slowly recovering in a Portland hospital.

Mrs. S. V. Leach of Kelso is visiting at the L. W. Leach home here.

The girls' sewing club held their first social meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. S. B. Shafer last Thursday. A pleasant program was enjoyed, also refreshments.

S. B. Shafer purchased a new Chevrolet truck in Portland last week. He will use it to deliver in Portland the certified milk for which the Cloverhill farm is so well known.

The pruning demonstration given at the Naegell orchard was not very well attended due very likely to the fact that we haven't made orcharding our main business in this section. Those who attended gained many profitable ideas.

Mrs. F. A. Colvin attended the teachers' institute at St. Helens on Saturday. Miss Ruth Hunter of the Canaan district was also in attendance.

VERNONIA

VERNONIA, Ore., Feb. 16.—(Special to The Mist.)—One contract after another is being completed on the railroad. The tunnel which has caused so much trouble is completed. The laying of rails through Vernonia is expected to start soon.

The Vernonia road supervisor has been patiently waiting for an opportunity to run the road grader over the road to fill in the ruts, but since the opportunity has not prevailed he stopped waiting and began grading anyway. H. M. Condit and A. L. Parker are running the grader.

Miss Emma Walker returned from Portland Friday where she had some dental work done.

The Vernonia Evangelical church will soon begin to build a new addition for the Sunday school primary room.

The senior class gave a Valentine party Friday evening, February 10, at the Vernonia high school building for the members of the high school and the young people of Vernonia and vicinity. A pleasant time was spent in playing games.

SHORT COURSE IN BEEKEEPING

A two-days' short course in beekeeping will be given under the auspices of the Multnomah County Beekeepers' association, February 24 and 25, in room 612, Oregon building, Fifth and Oak streets, Portland, Ore. Members of the Multnomah association will be in attendance from 9 o'clock a. m. to 9 o'clock p. m., each day, and all people interested in beekeeping are invited to attend the meetings and bring their troubles and questions for the "question box."

The program at present is not completed, but A. E. Osborne will talk on "Comb Honey Production" for the small producer, Friday evening, Feb. 18. Professor Scullen, of Oregon Agricultural college, has consented to deliver a lecture on "Disease Control, Swarming and Increase," Saturday evening at 7:29 o'clock.

The subjects of "Spring Management," "Extracted Honey Production" and "Disease Control" will be taken up at the afternoon sessions. Leaders in these departments will be announced later.

A full line of equipment will be on display together with up-to-date methods of assembling same. This should be of special interest to the small beekeeper.

People in surrounding cities and country are especially invited to attend as these meetings will be open to all who are interested in beekeeping, and are the beginning of a general educational course which is to be launched by the Multnomah association in an effort to promote better beekeeping and a greater production of honey.

They Appeal to Our Sympathies.

The bilious and dyspeptic are constant sufferers and appeal to our sympathies. Many such, however, have been completely restored to health by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. These tablets strengthen the stomach, invigorate the liver and improve the digestion. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels. When you have any trouble with your stomach, give them a trial.
