Dr. and Mrs. James Martin, Mrs. A. J. Peel and Rashleigh Peel motored to Portland for ever the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Perry and son George and Ben Copeland are spending several days in Seaside. They expect to return to St. Helens Saturday.

William Foltz is the guest of Tom Roy this week. Mr. Foltz was formerly an employee of the Deer Island Logging Company and is well known here.

George W. Grant of Scappoose was in St. Helens Saturday. The principal business which brought him here, he said, was to secure a license "for my old yaller dog."

S. A. Hawkins, who is in the Emanuel hospital in Portland receiving treatment for heart trouble, was some better yesterday according to word received from Mrs. S. A. Hawkins.

Washington Muekle celebrated his 68th birthday on the anniversary of the birth of the illustrious statesman for whom he was named. A number of friends called during the day to extend congratulations.

Mrs. Dora Shaffer, who was in Portland Wednesday, brings back word that Master John Ross who was operated on for appendicitis is getting along nicely and he and Mrs. Ross will probably return to St. Helens tomorrow.

Lloyd Hattan of Clatskanie, was here Wednesday. He reports that he and E. A. Harvey who conduct the Farm Equipment Company have delivered a considerable amount of farm machinery and have several prospects in view.

SACRED CONCERT—Beautiful music by the old masters to be sung at the Catholic Church, St. Helens, by a company of Portland soloists, under direction of Mme. Catherine Covach-Fredericks, Sunday, Feb. 26, at 3:00 p. m. Admission 50c.

Professor O. L. Rhinesmith, formerly principal of the McBride school was in St. Helens Tuesday. He is attending the University of Washington but on account of an epidemic of mumps there he is taking a short lay-off from his studies.

Rev. J. T. McQueen of Seattle who was here for several days on a visit to his sister, Mrs. N. F. Baker, left for Seattle Tuesday. During the summer months Rev. McQueen does missionary work in Alaska spending the winter in Seattle.

Although the pastor, Rev. Harold Tuttle will be unable to fill the pulpit at the Congregational church Sunday on account of his being ill, arrangements have been made whereby another minister will be here and hold services in the morning and evening.

D. B. Reasoner and son, R. F. Reasoner of Hillsboro were in St. Helens Tuesday. The former was county judge of Washington county for a number of years and made an excellent record in that office. He and his son are now in the contracting business and were looking up some of the prospective work on the St. Helens-Pittsburg road.

Mrs. Lana Ross who has been here for several weeks visiting relatives, received word Tuesday that her granddaughter, Florence Ross had died at her home in Monroe, Wash. She left for Monroe Wednesday morning being accompanied as far as Portland by E. A. Ross. In Portland she was joined by Dr. L. G. Ross who accompanied her to Monroe.

BRIEF HAPPENINGS ABOUT THE CITY

First Birthday Party.—Master John Harold Beaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beaver, celebrated the first anniversary of his birth on Washington's birthday. A number of relatives called to extend congratulations and best wishes for many happy returns of the day.

Burcham Gets Contract.—Albert Burcham and pile driver crew and the driver left down river early Tuesday morning for Eufaula where he has a contract for fixing up the boom of the Eastern and Western Lumber company. The job will take several weeks.

Lumber Official Visits.—Charles R. McCormick, president of the company which bears his name, of the St. Helens Lumber Company and various other McCormick enterprises was in St. Helens Monday for a short visit and conference with local officials of the company. He was accompanied by Cornelius Gerber, one of the stockholders in the company.

Celebrates Birthday.—W. L. Goin turned another milestone in his life on Sunday and he is not a bit ashamed to say he is a half a century old in age but not in feelings. The event was duly celebrated at the Goin residence. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Howell and the Weekend family of West St. Helens were guests at the birthday dinner.

Chanter Show Postponed.—On account of the sickness of Rufus Coates and Billy Brown, the Chamber of Commerce Chanters called off the minstrel show which they were to give at Wauna Wednesday evening. All preparations had been made for the trip and the boys were keenly disappointed at not being able to fill the engagement as they were sure to have had a crowded house. It is likely that the show will be given at a later date.

Interested in St. Helens News.—The Mist is in receipt of a letter from Miss Jane Bell of Chicago, in which she stated: "Recently received a copy of The Mist and I was so impressed with the apparent growth and improvements in the city that I feel I should have the paper regularly, so am enclosing my check for the subscription. My best regards to all my St. Helens friends." Miss Bell was a resident of St. Helens for a number of months and was one of the obliging employees at the Columbia County bank.

Camp Fire Girls.—On Wednesday evening the Nawakamoka Camp Fire held a ceremonial meeting at the home of one of the members, Mildred Adams. The lights of Work, Health and Love were lighted by Mabel Cline, Loretta Coates and Ethel Saulter, respectively. Reta Atchison, Margaret Dew, Ruth Levi, Ruth Chapman, Vera Kelley and Gertrude Palmer had completed their ceremonial robes and donned them during the gown ceremony. Vera Kelley received the rank of Woodgatherer. The lights of Work, Health and Love were extinguished by Ruth Chapman, Ruth Miller and Ruth Levi.

Dinner Party.—Miss Jessie Cracroft was hostess at a delightful dinner party given at Mason's Thursday evening, in honor of Miss Naomi Phelps of the Willamette Girls' Club. Miss Cracroft and Miss Phelps are personal friends, both having resided during the past few years at Roseburg. Miss Phelps is the daughter of Rev. Guy Fitch Phelps, pastor of the Sellwood Methodist church of Portland, and well known writer and poet. The guest list included the guest of honor, Miss Naomi Phelps, Miss Grace Howell, Miss Winifred Mellinger, Miss Grace Roundtree, Miss Averie Shackelford and the hostess, Miss Jessie Cracroft.

McCormicks in Los Angeles.—H. M. McCormick wanted to know what the news was in St. Helens and community, so he wrote The Mist from Paso Robles Hot Springs, asking that a copy of The Mist be sent him. He said he was "on the way from San Francisco to Los Angeles and on our first day's drive stopped at this beautiful resort which is 218 miles from San Francisco. We will leave tomorrow morning for Los Angeles, 256 miles and expect to make it easily in one day. The weather is warm and the roads wonderful." Sherman Miles, president of the Columbia County bank, is accompanying the McCormicks on the trip.

The Plymouth Auxiliary will meet with Mrs. John L. Storla next Wednesday, March 1 for an all day session.

A number of people from St. Helens attended the Martha Washington supper given by the Wholesome Thots Club, the young men's division of the Sunday school, at Scappoose Wednesday evening. The supper was served in the community church and was from 6 to 8 o'clock. The young men did the serving and were complimented on the excellent service they gave. The dinner was well patronized and a most enjoyable affair.

Liberty Theatre

PROGRAM

For the Week Beginning with Matinee Sunday, February 26

SUNDAY-MONDAY—

"STRAIGHT IS THE WAY"

A burlesque of "Spirits" and buried gold. A couple of crooks who set out to lift silver and lifted a mortgage instead.

All warm with love and kindly hearts, and set, with its thousand thrills, in city underworld and country lanes.

SHORT SUBJECTS: "The Fox," and Pathe News; Educational Rec.

Continuous Performance on Sunday from 2 till 11 p. m.—25c until six o'clock.

TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY—

MAE MURRAY

—IN—

"THE GILDED LADY"

By night, a glittering salamander, she lived on the lights of Broadway; laughingly she played with fire and escaped.

By day, a simple-hearted, wholesome girl, as sweet as any that raised their brows at her name.

The why of it all is a story you'll thrill to see, gorgeously staged.

SHORT SUBJECTS: Harold Lloyd comedy, Pathe Review.

This is gift night—many presents given away.

THURSDAY-FRIDAY—

TOM MIX

—IN—

"PRAIRIE TRAILS"

A stirring romance of Western life. The fastest and most exciting picture that Tom Mix, the daring cowboy star, has ever done. There is action from start to finish, with beautiful scenic effects.

SHORT SUBJECTS: Mack Sennett Comedy, "Sheriff Nell's Tussle."

SATURDAY—

PAULINE FREDERICK

—IN—

"TWO KINDS OF WOMEN"

See Miss Frederick handle a horse, a gun and a lariat like Buffalo Bill. See her fight a band of scoundrels who would run her off her ranch. See her work in the clothes of her trade—flannel shirt, leather breeches, sombrero and boots.

See this tremendous drama of love and adventure in the Great West. It's a smashing story and a great star.

SHORT SUBJECTS: Philo Gub Comedy, "The Stolen Umbrella," Pathe News.

Mrs. Stella Goodrich and daughter, Lillian of Aberdeen, Washington, are visiting at the R. L. Pison home.

Mrs. Ed Lynch was called to Alameda, California Tuesday by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Wilson.

Mrs. Claude Smith and children have returned from Salem where they have been visiting with relatives for the past month.

Mrs. J. R. Gilby will be hostess at a five o'clock tea Friday afternoon. After tea several tables of cards will be made up.

After undergoing an operation for appendicitis and spending time in a Portland hospital, Llama returned home last night. He is yet a little shaky and is being nursed along nicely.

And now February, 1922.

She'll Like This Shirt, Of Course

Whether the wife helps you pick it out or not, she will certainly like the shirt you choose from our stock of

Beau Brummels

A Real Combination of Style and Comfort

She'll like its style, its crisp, fine fabrics, its attractive coloring. And besides—

She will notice fine details of workmanship, the finish at cuffs and buttonholes, the perfection of making, the careful fit which assures you absolute comfort.

And because she will find in Beau Brummel shirts materials of real quality and durability as well as good looks, she'll give them her unqualified approval.
