Margaret Foster spent the week end in Portland having dental work done.

Wm. Clark finished the work of installing the new playground apparatus at the school ground, on Tuesday. All the new features are proving decidedly popular with the children. The community has every reason to be proud of their splendid play ground and well-equipped grounds.

Mrs. Rewey, the primary teacher, is ill. Mrs. Colvin is being assisted in the management of the school by Ida Naegeli.

L. W. Leach drove to Kerry Sunday.

Miss Maude Colvin was called to her home at Marshland Monday by the illness of her mother.

Mrs. C. Phillip Shank entertained the members of her music class at a delightful party on Friday evening. Games were played and the young guests departed at a late hour. They all feel deeply the loss of their esteemed friend who will make her future home in Seattle.

Mrs. Frank McDonald is visiting relatives in Portland.

County Agent Hollibaugh and Mr. Allen visited the school Tuesday in the interest of livestock clubs.

Professor Elder of Portland will be in Deer Island Wednesdays of each week and will conduct music classes at the home of Mrs. C. H. English.

Mrs. Phillip Shank was honored at a farewell dinner party Saturday at the home of Mrs. L. W. Leach. Mrs. Leach and Mrs. John Watson were hostesses for the affair which was enjoyed by the following: Mesdames Shank, Berven, Simmons, C. E. Clapperton, Clapperton, Sr., Watson, Colvin and Leach. Mrs. Shank left Monday for her new home in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Adams have begun extensive repairs on their homes. Among other improvements an electric light plant will be installed.

Mrs. Jane Armstrong returned home Saturday from Los Angeles, California, where she has been visiting the last three months with Mr. and Mrs. Emerson and the grandson, William Douglas Emerson.

Mrs. J. F. Wheelock was a Portland visitor Tuesday and Wednesday.

COLUMBIA CITY

Miss Mary Coulogue of Maine who has been here on a visit with her sister left for Oakland, California, last Tuesday where she will make her home.

Mrs. Gill and daughter of Deer Island were visitors at the home of J. K. Bangslund last Thursday.

Belle Coulogue was a week end visitor with friends in Scappoose. A party was given in her honor at the home of Mrs. Grewell where she had the pleasure of meeting several of the genial people of that enterprising city.

J. K. Bangslund enjoys his new job in acting as chauffeur for the ladies.

The school directors at Christmas very wisely added another teacher to the faculty. Mrs. Elsie L. Dew, the new teacher, is doing splendid work in the primary room. Miss Coulogue, as usual, is doing very creditable work in the advanced grades.

A Washington entertainment was given last week in the city hall by the pupils which reflected much credit on both pupils and teachers. Refreshments were sold and a handsome sum realized which shall be used to purchase pictures for the school.

Pupils on roll of honor last month were: Advanced grades—Clyde Barchus, Clarence Barchus, Archie Adams, Alfred Sims, Naomi Max Meyer, Vera Butts, Elvira Pearson, Maurice Wootan, Elizabeth Wootan, George Rayer, Grace Raynes, Eric Zatterberg, Roy Forsberg, Julius Furford, Margaret Furford, Alice VanOver, Clarence Morgan, Charles Maxwell, Donald Hampton and Eva Kirk. Primary grades—Marion Gardner, Marion Gillan, Ada Morgan, Rhoda Pearson, Arvid Furford, Robert Konopka, Byron Snook, Henry Zatterberg and Willard Zatterberg.

BEAVER HOMES.

E. Sargent and Clyde Raney have gone to Tide Creek to fall timber.

August Runtilla is adding another 5 acres to his clearing and is adding to his dairy herd in proportion.

Land clearing bees are becoming popular again. Several are getting ready for the final co-operative effort. No argument—20 men and 4 teams skin one man and one team at that job.

F. B. Holbrook's new dog, Boots, an Airedale of pedigree stock, looks queer decorated one day with a dead hen and the next day wearing a dead cat fastened to his collar, but Holbrook says that is the way to break 'em of too much familiarity with hens and cats. Show us—we're from Missouri.

At a recent neighborhood gathering taxes and assessing were discussed and A. L. Morris, deputy assessor came in for much condemnation for the representations made last year and the alleged unequal and unjust manner in which he did his work, but Assessor Blakesley was held responsible for the acts of his deputy.

The flu has many of the Beaver Homes residents out of commission. Only a few really able-bodied persons are about—so many complain of its bad effects. Men, women and children have all been afflicted alike.

The interest in consolidation of Beaver Homes and Shiloh Basin school districts seems to be mutual. The slogan of Shiloh Basin is "a city school education for rural children at minimum cost" appeals to Beaver Homes residents as well. A grand rally meeting is to be held at Shiloh Basin school house March 18, when county and state speakers will be heard on the advantages and economy of consolidation.

DOWNING

DOWNING, Ore., March 1.—(Special to The Mist)—A basket social was held at the Downing school February 18th. The pupils gave a program before the baskets were sold. The program consisted of dialogues, songs and recitations. The social was well attended and many beautiful baskets were donated. The sum realized amounted to $32.60. The teachers, Harry Ingraham and Miss Vivian Linn, plan to use part of the money for the county annual.

The Downing school gave a birthday party in honor of their principal. It was a complete surprise. After the sandwiches, cake and jello with whip cream had been served by the worthy patrons, a portion of the afternoon was spent at games.

SOUTH SCAPPOOSE

Ernest Ziesmann is working at the Nehalem Timber company camp No. 3.

The Hahn family is recovering from the grippe.

The Scappoose Lumber company has resumed operations.

Some of the boys of our community are being made happy by the receipt of their bonus checks.

Mr. Jones is moving some of his buildings.

The Scappoose water system is progressing rapidly. The crew consists of about twenty men.

It is reported that several fine steel head salmon have been caught in South Scappoose creek lately.

The home of Fred Lange was completely destroyed by fire about eight o'clock Tuesday evening. The fire started in the second story and when discovered had gained such headway that it could not be put under control. Part of the furniture of the lower floor was saved.
