"P" WORD PUZZLE JUDGES SELECTED

Be Sure to Get into the Fun and Give Them a "Run for Their Money."

Mrs. A. F. Barnett, formerly a teacher in the St. Helens school, J. B. Wilkerson, county school superintendent and H. A. Childs, cashier of the First National Bank of St. Helens are the ones selected and who have promised to act as judges in the Mist's "P-Word" puzzle contest which closes Monday, April 19, 1922. The artist's master-list of the "p" word picture will be received by registered mail on or about April 5. It will be in a specially sealed envelope and delivered to Professor Wilkerson, chairman of the judges and not opened until the contest has closed. The judges will meet shortly after that date to consider the answers and decide on the winners of the prizes. There will probably be no mean chore but their standing as to integrity and sound judgment will mean a fair and impartial decision and the decision of the judges will be final.

We also have been asked by contestants who were in a little too big a hurry in sending in their list of words, whether they would be allowed to send in a second list. This we have allowed. In fact we invite them to do so. We want everyone to have a full and fair chance. Also if they desire to qualify for a bigger prize, they of course can do so. In looking over the answers which have been received so far, we find many contestants who have not followed the rules carefully. For instance one party includes in his list "photo" and "photo-mount." In the first place, if the word "photo" is used it cannot be used again as part of a compound word, and in the second place "photo-mount" is not in the dictionary. In the case of "pocket-knife" that can be used even though "pocket" is used as they are both complete words.

Reports are that everybody is having a jolly good time with the puzzle. The puzzler expects to get gray hairs by the end of the week. Be sure to get into the game. You may win the prize. Many are using verbs and adjectives. Only nouns, actual objects seen on the picture count. Remember that. Don't get scared out by reports of others having bigger lists than you. The chances are that their lists are padded with words that don't count. Answers to our "P-Word" picture puzzle are coming in at a lively rate and the prospects are that it is going to be an interesting and exciting game at the end. They are all working at it, it seems—the boys and the girls both old and young, the butcher, the baker, the candlestick maker, the "school-marm," and the parson. But who is going to win the prize? That is what it will be interesting to see. So don't be a "piker" (even if it does begin with "p.") Get into the game. There is no game of chance about it.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

METHODIST EPISCOPAL "The Friendly Church" During the past six months 19 of our Sunday School scholars have had a perfect attendance record, 14 having not more than two absences and 18 not more than three. These 49 scholars will join the officers and teachers of the school in an "Honor Banquet" to be served in the church parlor next Monday evening. Every scholar is urged to be on hand promptly at 7:45 next Sunday morning to get a good start for the next six months. The subject of the sermon next Sunday morning will be, "The Tragedy of the Unused Talent." We can't all go to Africa but we can hear Roberts at the Happy Evening Hour next Sunday as he brings a part of Africa to us in picture, story and curio. Rev. G. A. Roberts has been for many years in the mission work in South Central Africa. He knows his subject and knows how to tell it. Don't miss this opportunity. Passion week will be observed by this church with services every evening except Saturday. We believe that all Christians should give special recognition to the commemoration of the last week of our Lord's life in the flesh. Topics for the week will be announced next week.

FREE METHODIST

Evangelistic meetings begin in the Free Methodist church in West St. Helens Wednesday evening and will continue over Easter Sunday. Rev. W. T. Klotzbach, district elder of the Portland district is the evangelist. He is an experienced revivalist. Several years ago he conducted a very successful "no-line" here and is well and favorably known in this community. Meetings begin each evening at 7:45. Sunday morning services begin at 11 a. m.

SWEDISH LUTHERAN

Services held first and third Sundays in Adventist church. Sunday school every Sunday at 10:30 a. m. Ladies' Aid meets every third Thursday. The public is invited. Rev. J. E. Shipp, Pastor.
