A Correction.—Rebekahs, please take notice. A mistake was made in the notice sent to the Mist last week. It should have announced the meeting for April 13 instead of April 6.

LIBERTY THEATRE

Program for Week Commencing Sunday, April 9 with Sunday Matinee 2 to 6.

SUNDAY-MONDAY —
LON CHANEY
and an all-star cast in
"THE NIGHT ROSE"
Story of the underworld in which a battle of good against evil rages. A thrilling melodrama that is filling playhouses to overflowing in the big cities, lavishly screened. Chaney's characterization of King of the underworld is at his best.

COMEDY: "Almost Heroes."

TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY—
ARTHUR BOURCHIER
and an all-star English cast in
"THE GREAT DAY"
The story deals with a young Englishman who invents a steel process for the possession of which rival nations are clamoring, and this forms the basis of a tremendously interesting narrative. Photographed in England, Paris and the Alps.

COMEDY: "A Convict's Happy Bride." Pathe Revue.

THURSDAY-FRIDAY—DOROTHY GISH
—IN—
"Little Miss Rebellion"
Whirls of excitement; a riot of laughs; the funniest girl on the screen. Going stale as a duchess she becomes a flapjack maker. Admirers of Miss Gish will welcome her coming.

COMEDY: "A Pool of Peaches."

SATURDAY ONLY —
MAX LINDER
—IN—
"Seven Years of Bad Luck"
A million laughs in this big super-special. This play is arousing the mirth of a nation. It's a knockout. Pronounced by critics the funniest 5-reel comedy ever written. Come and see if the critics are right.

COMEDY: "The Paper Hanger." Pathe News.

Matinee Prices 25c and 10c. Evenings, 30c and 10c.

Tomorrow Night — Saturday — "Deep Waters," a Paramount Special.
