

MIST MISTINGS

Mrs. Howard Hudson was a Portland shopper Tuesday. F. W. Garriott and A. McQueen were Portland visitors Tuesday. H. S. Mason and C. D. Sutherland motored to Portland Thursday. L. R. Rutherford was a business visitor in the metropolis Wednesday. Mrs. R. J. Coates is in Wauna this week for a few days' visit with relatives. J. D. Switzer returned on Sunday from a several days' visit with friends in Kelso. Mrs. W. J. Coates is visiting in Portland this week with her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Coulton. P. A. Dixon left Wednesday for the Nehalem valley where he will spend a week or ten days. Mrs. L. J. VanOrshoven returned Tuesday from a several days' visit with relatives in Portland. Clovée Starr of Lawrence, Kansas, was a guest last week of his sister, Mrs. Golden Starr Scott. Mrs. Golden Starr Scott will begin the erection of a five-room bungalow on Wyeth street next week. Don't miss the Senior class play, "Molly's Aunt," Friday night, April 21, at Wats & Price hall, Scappoose. Miss Ruth Ryan, of Minneapolis, arrived in St. Helens Tuesday and will visit her friend, Mrs. Peter Looa. Sherman Miles, president of the Columbia County bank, was a business visitor in Portland Wednesday. Don't miss the Senior class play, "Molly's Aunt," Friday night, April 21, at Wats & Price hall, Scappoose. The ladies of St. Helens and vicinity are invited to call at our store today, Friday, and inspect the line of millinery which Mr. Wiley B. Allen of the Muller-Rans company will have on display. The latest creations in exclusive eastern pattern and domestic hats will be shown. Mr. Allen will be here for one day only, Friday, and we advise those who wish Easter millinery to call and make their selections. Such an opportunity may not soon occur. Miss Lady Shop, McCormick Building, St. Helens.

LIBERTY THEATRE

Program for the Week Beginning on Sunday, April 16, with Continuous Performance from 2 to 11 p. m.

SUNDAY-MONDAY— JACKIE COOGAN —IN— "MY BOY."

See this six-year-old star in this laugh-provoking photoplay. Got any dishes to wash, and spuds to peel, rheumatics to rub or shimmies to shake put Jackie on the job. (See special advertisement.)

SHORT SUBJECT: "RENO, ALL CHANGE."

TUESDAY ONLY— HERBERT RAWLINSON —IN— "The Man Under Cover."

One of the greatest Westerns ever produced. This is the first of a series of plays in which this popular Universal star has the leading role. Rawlinson crowds theatres in both big and small towns. He is hard to beat. Don't take our word for it. See him Tuesday. You'll see every one of the series.

SHORT SUBJECT: "DARK AND CLOUDY." Pathe Review.

WEDNESDAY ONLY— Woman's Ad Club Octette OF PORTLAND —IN—

Special Musical Program All community boosters are interested in this. See news item on page one.

THURSDAY-FRIDAY— DAVID POWELL —IN— "APPEARANCES."

The theme is dramatic, appealing and the story is filled with thrills from start to finish. Do you believe there's fire where there's smoke? Watch out for it!

SHORT SUBJECT: "HAPPY DAYS."

SATURDAY ONLY— HOUSE PETERS —IN—

"The Man From Lost River." Jim Barnes, boss of the lumberjacks—sullen-faced giant—ruler by right of fist and boot—king of the lonely camp in the sombre forest—was he hero or villain? There is one thrilling surprise after another in this magnificent drama of the lumbering woods. House Peters does the greatest work of his screen career in this picture.

SHORT SUBJECT: "HIS MASTER'S VOICE." Pathe News.

Don't fail to see Max Linder tomorrow, Saturday night, in "Seven Years of Bad Luck." The funniest picture of the year. It's a scream from start to finish.

Mayor Edison I. Ballagh was in Astoria yesterday conferring with officials of the Columbia River Packers' association. Mrs. Joseph Nauman, Mrs. Shirley Johnson, Miss Doris Nauman, Bob Plackburn and Hallie Heacock motored to Portland Monday. Mr. and Mrs. John Strange and sons, John and Robert of Portland spent Sunday in St. Helens as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gill. Miss Katherine Ewing, field secretary of the American Red Cross, met with the executive committee of the Columbia county chapter Tuesday. Rev. S. Darlow Johnson was in Portland Tuesday and called on N. P. Baker who is receiving treatment at a Portland hospital. Mr. Baker's friends will be pleased to know that he is improving. Miss Vivian Patterson, teacher of languages in the St. Helens high school, was able to resume her work again Tuesday. Miss Patterson had been confined to her home in Portland with an infected foot for over a week. If you wish to know whether you have any difficulty with your eyesight call on Dr. Thompson, advance optical knowledge and the right glasses "That's his reputation." Next visit Saturday, April 15, Orchard Hotel until 4 p. m. A. C. Gray, who was so seriously injured last week while doing longshoreman work on a steamer, is getting along as well as could be expected. Mrs. Gray said after having seen her husband Wednesday. The bone of his right leg was badly shattered and it will be some time before Mr. Gray can leave the hospital it is thought. Hear the DeMoss Entertainers, America's famous concert family, in an evening of music, song and story at the high school auditorium, Friday evening, April 14. They have an excellent program, blending classical, original and popular music. Special numbers are, "Overture from William Tell," sextette from "Lucia," two cornets at once by the same man, evening bells, etc. Come and hear them.
