

MIST MISTINGS

A. T. Kiblan transacted business in Portland Wednesday.

Sherman Miles transacted business in Portland Wednesday.

All hands on deck to see "The Sea Lion" at The Liberty tomorrow.

The Catholic Boy and Girl Scouts are preparing for their respective summer trips.

Mrs. Dale Perry and son George are in Forest Grove for a short visit with relatives.

Mrs. M. Cooper left Sunday for Eugene where she will visit her daughters for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Fieldes of Portland spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Murray.

Matey, you have never sighted a bigger, better sea story than "The Seat Lion" Liberty tomorrow.

Misses Rose and Lavinia Kiblan motored to Eugene Saturday and attended the junior week end.

Rev. D. M. Higbee and family left for a ten days' visit with relatives and friends in the Willamette valley.

Recorder J. B. Godfrey spent the week end in Harriaburg on a visit at the home of his old time friend, J. H. Darrah.

Ralph Hickey of Portland and Miss Mae Seffert of Deer Island were in St. Helens Saturday the guests of friends.

Misses Beatrice and Edith Lake of Portland came to St. Helens Friday to attend the graduating exercises at St. Helens high.

"There she blows!" Get the thrill of a whale fight in "The Sea Lion", Hobart Bosworth's latest picture, at The Liberty tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gill and daughter Mary Ellen motored to Portland Saturday to see Kolb & Dill, headliners at the Orpheum.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Nutbron and Mrs. D. Donceca motored to Portland Monday and bought additional stock for the Elite Variety store.

Mrs. Francis wife of Charles Francis who was seriously injured here last fall, has undergone a major operation at St. Vincent's hospital.

Mildred and Carl Tucker are in the Nehalem country for a short vacation. They made the trip on horseback going via the St. Helens-Pittsburg road.

Mrs. Molly Masten, Mrs. Annie Morris and Miss Fay Beaver of Portland motored to St. Helens Friday last and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beaver.

L. L. Lamby and family of Eugene were in St. Helens last week, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Simmons. They left by auto Sunday morning for Dufur.

County Agent F. C. Hollibaugh and S. C. Morton, editor of The Mist, expect to leave this morning for Vernonia to attend a big meeting of the Vernonia Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hudson and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Phillips were Portland visitors Saturday and attended the Orpheum to see and hear Kolb & Dill, well known comedians.

T. J. Flippin of Rainier was in St. Helens Thursday. He is disappointed that he did not receive the nomination for county commissioner, but says he will work with the successful nominee.

Prof. H. L. Bates, of Pacific University, Forest Grove, who is very well known throughout the state as well as in St. Helens will supply the pulpit of the Congregational church for several weeks.

Roy Werlings and Leon Kitchen, young men who have resided in St. Helens for some time, left by auto Wednesday for New York. They plan to go via San Francisco and then take the transcontinental highway.

John Colwell of Bourbon, Indiana who has been in St. Helens for the past two weeks on a visit to his old time friend, Eli Shaffer, left Wednesday morning for Idaho where after making a brief visit he will proceed to Indiana.

Special sale on Capes at Milady's Shop, McCormick building, St. Helens. On ladies' and misses' Capes a cut of from $5 to $6 has been made. Now priced at from $12 to $25—real bargains. Milady's Shop, St. Helens, Ore.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Gray of Albany were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Hawkins this week. The visitors formerly lived in St. Helens and Mr. Gray will be remembered as assistant roadmaster for the county. They have many friends here.

Neal East formerly manager of the Liberty theatre but now traveling representative for the Paramount Picture company, was in St. Helens Tuesday calling on friends. Neal likes the "road" job and judging from his appearance it agrees with him. He hasn't lost a pound of his 245 weight.

Father Clancy, accompanied by Carl and Mildred Tucker, traveled on horseback to Vernonia last Sunday afternoon. They camped on Mrs. Tucker's claim a mile above town. Property was secured for the Catholic church which is to be built in Vernonia during July. Services were held at the house of Mr. Corey.

Mrs. A. F. Barnett had as her guest the latter part of the week, Miss Ethel Matthews of Portland. Miss Matthews who formerly resided in St. Helens and for several years was one of the school teachers, has many friends here who will be much pleased to learn she has met with marked success in her school work at Portland.

Mrs. W. A. Ketel and family spent Wednesday in Portland.

Mrs. David Smith entertained at a bridge party Wednesday evening.

Mrs. A. C. Tucker left for Portland Thursday morning to spend several days with relatives.

Wade Rutherford attended junior week end at the U. of O. Eugene last week.

Mrs. Eugene Blakesley spent Monday and Tuesday in Portland the guest of relatives.

Mrs. William Muckle and son Jim of Portland were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Brakke.

Mrs. W. L. Crathan and children of San Francisco are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. VanOrshoven.

Miss Ella Hattan, who has been teaching school in southern Oregon, has returned to St. Helens to spend the vacation season.

Miss Elvira Blair and Miss Ruth Chambers were guests of honor at a dinner given by Mrs. Thos. E. Ketel last Thursday evening.

Miss Lois Dixon gave a wienie roast Thursday evening at her home back of Houlton. A number of friends were there and all enjoyed the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roland of Camas, Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lister of Carroll, Washington were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lassard.

Mrs. Lena Ramsey and her brother, Clifford Gobba, expect to leave next week for California. They will make the trip by auto and expect to return to St. Helens about July 1.

Miss Elvira Blair left Thursday morning for Seattle where she is expected to remain for a few years and then return to Portland where her home is now. The many friends of Elvira regret her departure.

G. W. Roberts, district passenger agent of the Union Pacific system, was in St. Helens Thursday. The outlook for an increase in both passenger and freight business is very good Mr. Roberts stated, partly due to the decrease in rates.

John Sten, Doane Sutherland, Tom Ketel and Jack Gilby returned to St. Helens Thursday after having been in the Nehalem country for several days. They had a fine time but the catch of trout was not more than they could dispose of.

F. E. Malmstein, proprietor of the Vernonia hotel was a business visitor in St. Helens Wednesday. Mr. Malmstein is a member of the Vernonia school board and reports that the $25,000 issue of bonds have been sold and work will start soon on the new high school building.

There will be dancing in the Blue Rose hall Saturday night.

W. R. Magruder, a prominent resident of Clatskanie transacted business in St. Helens Tuesday. Mr. Magruder is identified with the diking project in the Clatskanie delta.

The local Odd Fellows lodge will have work in the second degree Saturday night, at which meeting officers for the ensuing term will also be elected. A good turn-out of members is desired.

Judge White, Commissioner Fullerton and Roadmaster Mills went down to Kerry Wednesday morning to view a road which has been built into the diked lands and which, according to reports filed with the court has not been properly constructed.

CIRCUIT COURT NOW IN SESSION

Circuit court, Judge J. A. Eakin presiding, convened on Monday morning. Several cases have been tried and disposed of and there are a number of others on the docket. It is not likely that the court will complete its work before tomorrow night and probably the session will go into next week. A full account of the proceedings will be given in the next issue of The Mist.

Patrick Lahey, father of Mrs. John Cates of this city, died at Linton Wednesday, May 24. Deceased was 82 years of age and had lived in Oregon for a number of years. Funeral services will be held in Portland today.

CHAUTAUQUA TICKETS ARE NOW ON SALE

The chairman of the chautauqua ticket committee reports that the sale of tickets will begin immediately and that all guarantors and solicitors are requested to call on H. A. Childs, at the First National bank in St. Helens for their tickets. The chairman also requests that the ticket committee push the sale of tickets with all possible vigor between now and June 1st and report their progress to Mr. Childs.

The trouble with most of those who want to do something for the community is that they want to do it at somebody else's expense.

As often as not a candidate lives to realize that he was fortunate when he failed to get the nomination.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR SALE—If you want a good cow, see or write F. L. Hodges, Houlton, Oregon. Farm on the Yankton road.

It Always Pays to Trade at Roy's

The people of St. Helens are beginning to realize this. Those housewives who want the best of groceries and vegetables at reasonable prices. If you are not one of our many customers, we invite you to give us a trial order, and we feel sure that we will get your next grocery order. We will have an extra nice lot of vegetables today and Saturday. We will be glad to serve you.

ROY'S

"The Money-Saving Grocer"

Phone 42 McCormick Bldg. St. Helens, Ore.

The Liberty, Thursday-Friday, June 1 and 2 ONE SHOW EACH NIGHT

D. W. Griffith's Masterpiece

THE BIRTH OF A NATION

18,000 PEOPLE! 3,000 HORSES!

The Most Massive -- the Most Spectacular --- the Most Thrilling Screen Production the World has Ever Known

Popular Prices: 50c and 25c. 12 Reels One Show Each Night at 7:30

The Liberty, Sunday-Monday, May 28-29 Sunday Matinee, 2 to 6

Alone in the Big City

(Loud Sobs)

No mother to guide her. No nuthin'—so hungry that by the time she gets a job in the Follies a plate of pork and beans will look like a Bacchanalian feast.

Here we see why girls leave home

Oh Man It's a Joyful Show

Constance Talmadge

"Polly of The Follies"

Follies Beauties - Sweet Patooties - Vamps and Villains - Stage Struck Girls. Home-made Fillums - Sure to Thrill 'em - Connie Talmadge - Makes Things Whirl

Harold Lloyd Comedy: 'Back to the Woods'

Sunday Matinee 25c; Evenings 30c, Children 10c

Vertical text on the right edge of the page, including 'HAUTA WEDNE...', 'LUM...', 'STEAMERS LUM...', and 'During the...'