

MIST MISTINGS

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Foote spent a few hours in Portland last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Dixon and family were at Seaside Monday and Tuesday.

Judge and Mrs. John Philip were among St. Helens visitors in Portland last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shinn made a trip to Portland Saturday morning returning in the evening.

H. S. Mason and S. C. Morton motored to Seaside Monday afternoon and spent the Fourth at that popular resort.

Miss Ora Hattan left Saturday morning for Seaside for a week's stay with her friend, Miss Marion Morton.

Mrs. Raymond Deavers spent the Fourth with her husband at Woodburn, where he recently located as a practicing dentist.

Mrs. Louis Smith and daughter, Helene, of Portland are here for a visit with Mrs. Smith's daughter, Mrs. A. C. Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keating and son, Donald, were among the many St. Helens people who spent Monday and Tuesday at Seaside.

Mrs. J. H. Wellington, who has been at her beach cottage for the past several weeks returned to St. Helens Tuesday evening.

Miss Viola Oglethorpe of Salem, is spending several days visiting at the home of her friend, Miss Ruth Chambers of West St. Helens.

John Deming and Lester Wellington motored to Seaside Sunday and spent a very small portion of the time at the Wellington beach cottage.

Thomas Ketel, Jr., returned to St. Helens Thursday after celebrating the Fourth with friends in Seattle.

J. A. Lyons of Salem was here this week visiting his brother, Harry Lyons.

Two of the most important items of your home building and often the most neglected are ample Fire Protection and Paint. I can supply both. P. J. Kavanagh, Agent, St. Helens.

Edwin Hellenberg returned to St. Helens Tuesday morning coming from San Francisco where he was discharged from the U. S. marines. Edwin spent two years in the island of Guam and one year in the Philippines doing duty to Uncle Sam. Edwin is a St. Helens boy and has lived practically all his life in St. Helens.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. Julia Thompson, Thursday afternoon, July 13th at 2 o'clock. The assistant hostesses will be Mrs. C. B. Adams and Mrs. B. D. Williams. Mrs. L. G. Ross will present the lesson from the "Alphabetary," the topic being "Evangelistic and Medical Work."

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Lindberg and family of Knappa, Washington, spent the Fourth with Mrs. Lindberg's sister, Mrs. John Olson of Bachelor Flat. They returned to their home Wednesday. The Lindbergs own a nice little farm in the Bachelor Flat neighborhood and in the near future they expect to move into it.

Rev. G. G. Edwards of Newberg, has been appointed pastor of the West St. Helens Free Methodist church. Rev. Edwards and wife spent 31 years as missionaries in India in evangelistic and orphanage work. He has also served as pastor in the Washington conference. He will be in St. Helens over Sunday to fill the pulpit and expects to move his family here in about two weeks.

D. M. Higbee will move to Portland this week to take charge of the work assigned him by the conference which was held in The Dalles last week. He was elected as conference Sunday school secretary and will have the general supervision of the Sunday schools of the church over the northwestern part of the state. In connection with this work he was given the Bethany circuit which embraces the Linnton community.

WEEK'S PROGRAM AT THE LIBERTY

The Liberty opens a new week's program on Sunday afternoon with "The Great Alone," a strong dramatic story of the snows, featuring Monroe Salisbury. The theme of the production is gratitude of a half-breed Indian toward a white girl who has been kind to him in a time of need. The picture was produced in the far north, and the fury of blinding snow and intense cold is graphically shown.

"The Call of Home," in which is shown what is said to be the greatest flood scene ever flashed upon the screen, comes to the Liberty on Tuesday and Wednesday. It is from the novel "Home," by Geo. Agnew Chamberlain, and is directed by Gastner. The cast is all-star.

The Japanese star, Sessue Hayakawa, in "Black Roses," is booked for Thursday and Friday nights. It is an underworld story, starting in the Orient and ending in New York. It is said to be one of the Jap's very best productions.

Frank Mayo in "The Man Who Married His Own Wife," is the attraction for Saturday night. This is Mayo's latest picture and pronounced by the critics as his best.

ANNOUNCEMENT.
Lottie Cummins, pianist of Portland, who is spending the summer in this city, will accept pupils for summer work. S. C. Morton residence. Telephone 25 for appointment.

Finger Prints to Identify Babies

A lifelong system of identification for infants born in New York is approaching consummation. Co-operation between the police department and the health department has resulted in the first finger printing of an infant born in a New York hospital. Dr. Royal S. Copeland, health commissioner of N. Y., advocated the finger printing of every baby—although the time is not yet ripe for an official attitude requiring the records to be kept in such manner. Photo shows left to right—Thomas M. Reilly, finger print expert; Deputy Police Commissioner Jos. A. Faurot; Dr. Copeland, health commissioner of New York.

RECKLESS DRIVER BUMPS CARS; FINED

Joseph Ekstadt of Portland was hurrying along the highway Tuesday night bound for his home. In order to maintain his nerve and the speed, he bought some "Sweet Tincture of Orange Peel," which is guaranteed to contain 75 per cent alcohol by volume. Evidently Joseph had inhaled of some of this "sweet tincture" and was browsing along at about 40 miles per hour. Possibly the tincture made him cross-eyed for he failed to see two cars just ahead of him near Deer Island. He bumped into the nearest one and side-swiped the other. Traffic Officer Harry Hadfield was nearby and induced Mr. Ekstadt to come to St. Helens where he visited Justice of the Peace John Phillip. He left what remained of the "sweet tincture" and also $75 which was the fine imposed. He promised the justice that hereafter he would not mix gasoline and orange peel juice.

FOREST FIRES A HEAVY LOSS

A bulletin issued by the western forestry and conservation association has the following to say as to the forest fire condition in Oregon and Washington:

The forest fire situation is critical over most of the Pacific coast, according to bulletins received by the western forestry and conservation association, the clearing house for all western protective agencies. While high mountain regions have the advantage of late snow disappearance this spring, May and June were abnormally dry and woods conditions have reached a danger point earlier than usual. Already slashing fires have caused heavy losses. Unless rain falls in a few days bad fires in green timber are expected and should there be wind the situation may get beyond control. Appeals are being made to all persons in the woods to use extraordinary care with campfires, matches and tobacco, and to refrain from burning slashings. The fire laws are being enforced rigidly, nine convictions having already been secured.

Washington has suffered worst, having already had over 200 fires with an estimated loss of $750,000 and two lives. Two fires were caused by moonshine stills. Little mature timber was affected, being molsted, but nearly 50,000 acres of young growth was injured while 15 or 20 million feet of logs were burned, with logging equipment worth $350,000, railroad property amounting to $100,000, and residences or property of settlers totalling $140,000. About 300 patrolmen are now being maintained co-operatively by private state and federal agencies on the territory outside the national forests which are wholly under government protection. The state forester is urging that logging operations cease on extremely warm or windy days and that as the berry season approaches pickers in the woods refrain from smoking or building fires. Oregon had only 100 fires reported in June with small damage, but the forces are being recruited to full strength and particular effort is being made to perfect a prompt detection and dispatching system for getting fire reports by telephone and sending men to the danger points. In few previous years has the hazard been so great at the beginning of July.

WATER BOARD FIXES SPRINKLING HOURS

In the Mist this week is a notice from J. B. Godfrey, clerk of the water board, informing water users that the hours for sprinkling are from 7 p. m. to 9 p. m. The water supply is getting low and water users are cautioned to observe the rules laid down by the commission. The commission asks the co-operation of the water users to avoid a threatened shortage. The dry weather of the past several weeks has reduced the supply and with the seven or eight weeks of dry weather coming on the supply will be inadequate if water users waste the water.

Judging by some recent verdicts in divorce cases, it seems to be cheaper to stay married than to pay alimony.

"IT'S A FRIEND IN NEED" SAYS LITTLE WOMAN

Portland Resident is Astonished at Way Tanlac Rid Her of Dyspepsia and Restored Her Health.

"I am certainly grateful to the friend who urged me to try Tanlac as it has certainly been a friend in need," said Mrs. C. A. Larsen, 392 East 30th St., Portland, Oregon. "Two years ago I began to suffer from indigestion and a very bad form of stomach trouble. My appetite was very poor, what I ate distressed me terribly and would bloat me up so bad I just had to gasp for breath, and my heart would palpitate so it frightened me. I suffered awfully with constipation, dizzy spells and sick headaches. My arms ached badly and the muscles of my legs hurt so I could hardly get about. Nothing I tried seemed to do me any good. "It's astonishing the way Tanlac helped me. My appetite is now splendid. I sleep well and my nerves are steady. In fact, all my troubles have disappeared and I feel just fine. "Tanlac is certainly a good medicine." Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

Have You Noticed

That about every fourth car you meet or pass on the road is a FORD? And did you notice that the FORD was buzzing along with all of the other cars?

DID YOU STOP TO THINK

Why there were so many FORDS. If you did not, we will tell you the reason:

- 1st. The Ford is a comfortable reliable car.
- 2nd. The price is within reach of anyone.
- 3rd. The operating expense is lowest of any car.
- 4th. At our garage or any FORD garage the Ford owner can always get any parts at a nominal expense and also the FORD service.
- 5th. That the FORD owner tells his friends about the FORD and the friend buys a FORD and tells his friends.

There are many other reasons why FORDS are the popular car. Let us demonstrate some of them. We can make prompt delivery of touring cars, sedans and coupes.
