It is probable that a number of the members of both the legion and auxiliary will attend the state meeting.

Conserve Moisture in Orchards.

Due to the present draught, orchardists who do not have irrigation should take care of the moisture supply. Moisture can be conserved by cultivation but not added to. As long as the dry spell lasts growers are urged to cultivate thoroughly at least once a week as late as the middle of the latter part of August. This will maintain good growing conditions, sizable fruit and prevent the "draught spot."—Oregon Experiment Station.

THE LIBERTY

Program for the Week Beginning Saturday, July 22

SATURDAY ONLY—WILLIAM FAIRBANKS—IN—"A WESTERN ADVENTURER" Stunt, action, thrills and romance. An unusual Western story. One that will please. HAROLD LLOYD COMEDY and Pathe News.

SUNDAY-MONDAY—GEORGE BEBAN—IN—"ONE MAN IN A MILLION." This is unquestionably one of the big pictures of the decade. That is what you will say when you see it. It is this distinguished actor's masterpiece of characterization, written and directed by himself. COMEDY; "IN THE MOVIES;" Aesop Fable.

TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY—SESSUE HAYAKAWA—IN—"BLACK ROSES." Motion picture fans recognize in the Jap a great artist. "Black Roses" in his latest and best effort. See this splendid drama. Unscrupulous criminals framed the man who possessed the secret of growing black roses.

SPECIAL ATTRACTION See Major Jack Allen rope a panther in the jungles. It's a thrilling reel and real. Pathe Review.

THURSDAY-FRIDAY—"THE BOOTLEGGERS." Probably the most sensational drama of the year. Terrific struggle between revenue officers and bootleggers, showing the sinking of the rum ship, and the aerial revenue patrol. COMEDY; "A CLOSE SHAVE."
