

AMERICAN LEGION

The Dalles, July 20.—Registration is beginning to pile up here for the fourth annual convention of the Oregon branch of the American Legion which will be held July 27, 28 and 29, when 2,000 ex-service men and women are expected to foregather for the hospitality of Wasco county.

Simultaneously with the big meeting, the first grand promenade of La Societe des 49 Hommes et 3 Chevaux and the second annual convention of the American Legion Auxiliary, the woman's branch, will be held. The forty and eighters will meet on July 26, at an all-day, and meet on the 28th, with Hatting Ortega as the headliner attraction. The morning session of the women's convention will be held on the 27th and adjourn Saturday, the 29th.

With The Dalles centrally located for veterans of eastern and western Oregon, a great host of visitors is expected here on the morning of the 27th, when the convention will be opened by Governor Ben W. Olcott, and other dignitaries. The 59th U. S. Infantry band from Vancouver barracks has accepted an invitation to be present throughout the sessions.

Outside of the regular convention business, a great program of entertainment has been arranged. The chief features will be a military ball in the new municipal auditorium on July 27th, the boxing bouts on the evening of the 28th, with Hatting Ortega as the headliner attraction, and the annual convention parade on the morning of July 29, the closing day.

Beside these, there will be a swimming meet for ex-service men. This will be a five-event program, staged in the Columbia river, and arranged in three series, preliminaries, semifinals and finals, given at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of each day. An elaborate list of prizes has been prepared.

The Dalles Post No. 19 is the entertaining organization this year and its members have announced that the visitors will be entertained as no legion convention in Oregon has been entertained before. The general committee is headed by Francis V. Galoway, district attorney of Wasco County, and Pat Foley is commander of the post. The chairmen of the various convention committees are, Fred McNeil, publicity; H. S. Rice, decoration; Simon Cohen, entertainment; R. M. Weber, parade, and J. T. Henry, registration.

Men from the Willamette Valley and other western Oregon points who do not drive through are expected to mobilize at Portland on the 26th and come through to The Dalles on a special train. If this train arrives on the evening of the 26th, as anticipated, there will be entertainment features immediately following the arrival of the visitors.

Hanford McNider, national commander of the Legion, has just accepted an invitation to attend the Oregon convention. He is expected here Friday and Saturday, and special arrangements have been made to entertain him. A number of the members of his staff will accompany him on the westward trip.

Local legionnaires are extending special invitations to nearby points to turn out en-masse for the parade on the 29th, when it is hoped to have 1,000 ex-service men and women in line. A unique feature of the parade will be the Indians from the Warm Springs reservation who are expected to participate. The parade will start at 11 o'clock in the morning, and Commander Lane Goodell of the state department has announced that he will convene the delegates in final session immediately afterwards for the election of officers and selection of the 1923 meeting place.

The convention here will be staged in the spacious new civic auditorium, dedicated this spring. It was constructed from city funds and dedicated to the honor of the men and women of the county who served in the war.

On a hot summer night in New York a fleet of 300 motor buses carry no fewer than 125,000 "night hoppers" over ten different routes. The passengers enjoy a tour through the city, riding continuously for four hours, at a cost of 40 cents.

OLCOTT ASKS RECOUNT IN ALL PRECINCTS

Salem.—Letters tending to show that the Ku Klux Klan has "developed a powerful financial organization which is raising a fund up to $50,000 or more to be used in financing the recount contest of Mr. Hall," were made public by Governor Olcott Saturday in a statement in which the governor invites Hall "to make a fair and square count of all the precincts of the state to determine the exact result of the election and to satisfy the people of the state," instead of limiting the recount to the few selected precincts in which the contestant feels that a recount might result to his advantage.

One of the letters which is made public by the governor is signed by T. A. Rogers, super-keagle of the knights of the Ku Klux Klan, realm of Eastern Oregon-Southern Washington. It is dated at Walla Walla, Wash., June 27, and calls attention of the klansmen to the fact that "at the regular meeting on June 24 of the Walla Walla provisional Klan, it was unanimously voted that the Klan should contribute an amount equal to two dollars ($2.00) per member to assist in financing a recount and such other legal action as is necessary to order that the will of the majority of the people of Oregon may prevail in the recent primary nominating count."

Cost Estimated at $50,000
The estimated cost of such a recount, the letter explains, is placed at $50,000.

The letter from the super-keagle directs the klansmen to "make their checks payable either to cash or P. L. Wadley" and admonishes the reader to "destroy this letter by fire upon reading it."

Another letter made public by the governor is signed by R. W. Sinclair, Kligrapp, of the Ku Klux Klan, realm of Oregon, and calls upon the klansmen in his realm for voluntary contributions of $2 per member to defray the expense of the recount instituted by Hall.

A third letter is signed by Hall himself calling for contributions to the recount fund which he estimates at $25,000.

These letters, the governor points out, indicate that the influence back of the primary result contest are not confined to Oregon alone.

The governor, in his statement, declares that "if I did not receive the plurality of the republican votes cast for the governorship in the recent primaries I do not want the nomination," but insists that "it is preposterous to assume that if there were irregularities in all of the precincts designated by Mr. Hall these irregularities would all be to the detriment of Mr. Hall and that no irregularities could exist in the 1000 or more other precincts not mentioned in the petition."

POULTRYMEN'S MEET AT CORVALLIS AUG. 1-3

For the benefit of the poultrymen of Columbia county, attention is called to the statewide poultrymen's convention to be held at Corvallis, August 1, 2 and 3.

No poultryman can afford to miss this opportunity to meet with other poultry producers of the state at this statewide poultrymen's convention. Many speakers of note will be present, among them Professor James Rice of Cornell University, Doctor J. R. Beach of the University of California and Professor James Dryden of Oregon Agricultural college. A full program has been arranged, starting at 1 p. m., August 1 and continuing through each day and evening until the close on the afternoon of August 3rd.

Splendid facilities will be available for those who desire to camp, and nice rooms at a nominal charge for those who do not desire to camp. The county agent's office would like an expression from different poultrymen who are expecting to take in this convention, in order that we may have some idea as to the number that can be expected from Columbia county.

SCHOOLS INCREASE TUITION FEE

Yearly Rate to be $105 Next School Year at Oregon Agricultural College and U. of O.

Non-resident fees for students in the college and university were increased from $60 to $105 a year, effective with the opening of the next fall term, by action of a joint meeting of regents of both institutions in Albany.

The two Oregon institutions by this action, taken as a means of reducing the burden of state taxation, puts the two Oregon institutions on a par with the state universities of Washington and California in respect to non-resident tuition. In each of the neighboring states the differential between the charges paid by the residents and those paid by students from outside the state is equal to the $195 to be charged in Oregon. Graduate students in both institutions will be exempt under the new fee. The committee of regents emphasizes that the increased fee is not retroactive; any non-resident who has entered the university or college under the present fee of $60 a year will be permitted to finish his course at that rate. To put the fees where they would be prohibitive and at the same time would be on an even basis with other states, so that the flow of non-resident students would neither be entirely cut off nor become a flood which would tax the institutions' facilities, was the aim of the committee.

Members of the joint committee considering fees were, J. K. Weatherford of Albany, chairman; Walter M. Pierce of La Grande, and President W. J. Kerr from the college, and Judge J. W. Hamilton of Roseburg, chairman, C. E. Woodson of Heppner, W. S. Gilbert of Astoria, and President P. L. Campbell from the university.

NINE YEARS OF TROUBLE WAS QUICKLY ENDED

Mrs. Abbey Could Not Even Drink a Glass of Cold Water Without Suffering Dreadfully — Gains 39 Pounds and Feels Fine Since Taking Tanlac.

"I hardly see how I endured such awful suffering and if it hadn't been for Tanlac, I don't believe I would be here today," said Mrs. Mollie Abbey, of Jennings Lodge, Oregon. "For nine years my stomach kept me in continual misery. I had no appetite and everything I ate caused me to vomit so that it almost drove me distracted. I didn't dare eat any fruit and for four years if I even drank a glass of cold water I would suffer dreadfully. I was very nervous and was troubled continually with dizziness and nausea. No one who didn't see me can imagine the awful condition I was in."

"After taking Tanlac for a short time I began to feel better and now I'm simply feeling fine. My appetite is splendid, I eat anything I want and have actually gained thirty-nine pounds and have so much strength and energy I easily do all my household work. Tanlac is a remarkable medicine."

WEATHER KEEPING PRICES STRONG

As a result of the continued dry weather coupled with the railroad strike, local wholesalers report the market for canned goods, including fruits and vegetables, as strong, with prices showing an upward tendency. The price of sugar continues at $7.40 per hundred and the market is steady, although sales are not being made at lower rates on account of large stocks being purchased before the recent advance of 30 cents. The wholesalers say they expect the price to remain as at present until the new crop of raw sugar is available. The flour market also continues steady, with the product selling at $8 a barrel and no material change is expected during the coming 60 days, when the new crop of wheat will be fit for grinding.
