Mr. Adams measured one cherry that was four inches in circumference. Norman Merrill, of Clatskanie, a respected and old time resident of the county, transacted business in St. Helens Thursday. The potato crop in the highland section of the Clatskanie country will be short owing to the dry weather but he believes that the crop on the diked land district will be up to its usual production. B. F. Lane, prominent merchant and city recorder of Vernonia and J. A. McGown, a contractor of that city, were in St. Helens Thursday. They came over the St. Helens-Pittsburg road and made the trip from Vernonia to St. Helens in one hour and fifty minutes. Mr. Lane stated that the people of Vernonia and the Nehalem section were in hopes that the county court could make some arrangements whereby the macadamizing of the road would be completed this year so that the road would be open for winter travel.

WHITNEY BOYS TO COME WEDNESDAY

Fifty of the famous Whitney Boys chorus will come to St. Helens on Wednesday, August 2 and give a performance at the Liberty theatre. There will be vocal, instrumental and humorous solos, glee clubs and elocutionists. A 32-piece drill team will give a free exhibition of fancy and spectacular marching on the street at 7:30 p. m. and the concert will begin at 8:15 o'clock. The drill team which will perform here is the same team which attracted so much attention at the Rose festival. The members of the drill team will be dressed in pure white, red ties and blue sashes and make a pleasing appearance. Their fancy marching is a marvel and is sure to bring the plaudits of the spectators. They form the Human Cross, the Hollow Square and the Double Shooting Star and many other unique and artistic figures. They will be under the personal supervision of their instructor, Mr. F. C. Bennett. The local members of the Whitney Boys chorus, under the direction of Dr. James T. Martin, will participate in the concert. The boys went to Portland and participated in the concerts given on Multnomah field during the Rose festival and they will sing with the fifty members of the chorus who are coming Wednesday. While in St. Helens the boys or two chorus will be the guests of the public-spirited citizens who appreciate their coming and the opportunity to hear them sing. HIGHWAY COMMISSION PICKS COAST ROUTE The highway commission at their meeting held Wednesday in Portland decided that the route of the section of the Roosevelt highway in Curry county shall be down the coast to the John Greisel cemetery. It decided on the location of the route of the mountain section of the Alsea highway for 6.6 miles, beginning just west of Yaw creek and running to the easterly limit of the Jackson White ranch. Bids will be received next month for the grading of this. An agreement on the Mount Hood loop was delayed by the refusal of Chairman Rudeen of the Multnomah county commission to vote for the promised $175,000, on the ground that it should be put in next year's budget.

Miss Helen White arrived from Seattle this week and is visiting her father, T. S. White. The Depot Garage delivered to R. L. Anliker of Goble, a Dodge automobile of the latest model. Mrs. James Sasey and daughter Mae and Miss Hilda Maheffy are visiting with friends in Seaside. Manson Chamber has bought the most market, the deal being consummated Tuesday. Tom Kiblan left Tuesday afternoon for Seaside to manage the general merchandise store of Murray & Co. during the illness of the proprietor. Mrs. Harry Hadfield had as a week end guest her friend, Miss Crystal Knight of Portland. Charles Graham is in Portland serving on the federal grand jury. "Safety First." She was a bright little girl about three, taking her first trip west to visit her grandfather. There was not much that failed to interest the baby mind and questions and answers kept her parents pretty busy. When they arrived in one of the Middle West cities it was decided to break the trip there and stay over until the next day. The usual rivalry was evident between the taxi and hotel bus drivers, and Betty was an interested and curious spectator until two of the men started some friendly sparring that seemed pretty serious to Betty. Her mother felt a tug at her skirt and looked down to see the cause—a loud whisper followed from Betty: "Mover—get daddy—let's wun, that man over there hits ev-we one who dahn't go to his house."—Exchange. Judge rules it no crime to play a grind orlean on Sunday. We rule it's a crime to play any time.

Text: "THE LIBERTY Sunday-Monday, July 30-31 SUNDAY MATINEE 2 and 4 The Screen's Most Magnetic Novelty NANOOK OF THE NORTH A Story of the Snowlands Pathepicture The Marvel Picture of the Age--You'll See It Twice and Talk About It Forever Dramatic Hand-to-Hand Fight! Sensational as a Flight in the Clouds! Human as a Woman's Heart! Beautiful as a Dream Picture! There is no film, anywhere in the world, on any subject, so absolutely unique as 'NANOOK OF THE NORTH.' Its story is not the product of the fertile imagination of a scenarioist—it is life, stark and dramatic, as it is lived day by day in a barren and uncivilized land. It was photographed entirely in the frozen North, 800 miles north of civilization's most northerly outposts, where the sea is frozen and the land produces nothing; where the average temperature is 35 degrees below zero. Unusual! — Thrilling! — Dramatic! FILMED AT THE TOP OF THE WORLD. Because of the High Price of this Picture a slight advance in price is necessary, as follows: Sunday Matinee Prices, 2 and 4 p. m. 30c Evenings, 7 and 9 p. m. 40c Children under 12, 10c Always."
