

MIST MISTINGS

H. S. Mason was a business visitor in Portland Tuesday.

Captain and Mrs. Milton Smith of Rainier were St. Helens visitors on Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. James T. Martin motored to Seaside Sunday morning and spent the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christiansen and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Sutherland motored to Astoria Sunday.

Hon. W. B. Dillard left Monday for Seaside expecting to spend a week on his place near that city.

Mrs. Pearl Boyer Allen, vocalist and pianist of Portland, was a weekend guest of Miss Lucille Cummins.

Charles Hillberg, a prominent business man of Rainier, transacted business matters in St. Helens Monday.

Mrs. P. A. Dixon and son Paul and daughter Lois and Miss Alma Hedges were Saturday and Sunday visitors in Vernonia.

Miss Grace Boyd left Tuesday for Portland where she will join a party of friends and motor to Tillamook for a vacation trip.

Miss Barbara Jordan has returned to St. Helens after a pleasant vacation spent at the Oregon and Washington beach resorts.

Mrs. A. F. Barnett spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Alice Trow and her mother, Mrs. Victoria Perry at their Rainier home.

The Copeland Auto company report the sale of a Chevrolet light truck to George Chambers, proprietor of the Houlton Meat Market.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Akin returned to St. Helens Wednesday evening where they have been on a several days visit with Mr. Akin's parents.

Misses Lois and Annette Payne of Kelso, former residents of this city, have returned to their home after a two weeks' visit here with Miss Mabel Davies.

Mrs. Amanda Lake, who has been spending her vacation at her old home in Michigan, is expected to arrive in St. Helens within the next few days.

Mrs. F. W. Christie of Astoria came Sunday and spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. H. W. Christie. She returned to Astoria Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Snow, of Vancouver, B. C., were here Tuesday for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Arch Duncan. Mrs. Snow is a sister of Mr. Duncan.

Mrs. J. F. Pence left Wednesday afternoon for her home in Dundee, Oregon, after a pleasant ten days visit at the home of her daughter Mrs. B. L. Monish.

Mrs. C. W. Blakesley has received the sad news of the death of her brother, James McCallam, who died on August 4 in Neppawa, Canada, as the result of an auto accident.

Manager Edward Jones of the Austin store is taking his vacation and Leland Austin, who manages the Woodburn store, is looking after the business of the local establishment.

Harvey Jordan and Cass Fowler left Sunday morning on an auto trip which will take them to Government camp near Mt. Hood. They expect to visit several other places before returning to St. Helens.

Professor E. F. Carleton, wife and son Edmund were here Sunday for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Day. The professor is superintendent of the Eugene public schools and a well known educator.

The Mist received a postal card from Jack Lafferty this week. He is in Albany, New York. He is cutting stone blocks for street work. He says: "I have been in many cities since I left St. Helens, but am coming home for Christmas as there is no place like Oregon."

Miss Gretchen Bierbach of Honolulu, who has been visiting her aunts, Mrs. S. C. Morton and Miss Olga Heilborn, at Seaside, and other relatives at Astoria for the past month, expects to leave Astoria tomorrow evening on the steamer Lurline for Honolulu, via Seattle.

W. E. Stevens, who claims Scappoose as his home, but has resided in Seaside for the past year, was in St. Helens Wednesday and Thursday on a business mission. His sister, Mrs. Mary Copeland is living with him at Seaside and her health has been much improved since being at the seaside resort, Mr. Stevens said.

Mrs. C. W. Blakesley returned to St. Helens Sunday after a several weeks' visit with Mrs. F. W. Christie of Astoria. Mrs. Blakesley was the guest of Mrs. Christie on an auto trip to Long Beach, Washington, and to Raymond and South Bend. In the latter place they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Harrison, former residents of St. Helens.

The Woman's association of the First M. E. church is extending an invitation to the cradle roll and primary mothers to attend the regular meeting of the association in the church auditorium Wednesday evening, August 23rd at 8 o'clock. At this meeting an address will be given on "The Care and Feeding of Children under six years," by Dr. L. C. Ross and the second paper on Christian Citizenship will be read by Mrs. Hollibaugh.

A. F. Extine, representing the Polk company of Seattle, who publish yearly the Oregon-Washington Gazette, was in St. Helens Wednesday assembling information to go into the 1923 edition of the Gazette. The Polk company have published this useful directory for many years and Mr. Extine has been with the company for the past 13 years. There were many changes in St. Helens he said, which necessitated several corrections in the St. Helens directory of the Gazette.

Miss Lois Clear was a Portland visitor Thursday.

Mrs. Harry Bennett and daughter were in Portland Wednesday.

Judge John Philip and Mrs. Philip were Portland visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keating and son, Donald, were Portland visitors Sunday.

Mrs. I. L. Abbott and W. R. Patterson of Portland were guests at the Liberty Inn Wednesday evening.

Jack Keating, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Keating of Portland is here for a visit to his grandmother, Mrs. F. J. Hiley.

Miss Mabel Davies left Thursday morning for Portland and will spend the week end with some of her college friends.

Miss Nellie Burcham left for Seattle Tuesday where she will spend the remainder of this month visiting friends, going into British Columbia and to Rainier National park.

A. M. Holt, proprietor of the St. Helens garage is spending his vacation in Oakland, California, visiting relatives. He made the trip by auto, leaving St. Helens last Saturday.

District Attorney John L. Foote who sojourned at Seaside for the week returned to St. Helens Monday evening. Mrs. Foote and children will remain at Seaside for several days longer.

Judge and Mrs. Martin White went to Yamhill Saturday afternoon to visit relatives. The judge returned to St. Helens Sunday afternoon and Mrs. White will remain in Yamhill for several days.

Mrs. A. Holden and daughter Margaret arrived Wednesday evening, coming from their home in Everett. They are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christiansen. Mrs. Holden is Mr. Christiansen's sister.

Mrs. C. W. Hansen, son Wade and daughters Lois and Louise left for their home in Chehalis, Washington, Thursday afternoon. They have been here for several days the guests of Mrs. Hansen's sister, Mrs. Carl Christiansen.

Mrs. Dewey Harrison and Mrs. Gus Weist and daughter, Yvonne, drove up from Seaside Tuesday evening, concluding a pleasant sojourn at that resort. Mrs. Weist and daughter will visit here for several days before returning to their home in Portland.

Lawrence Davies, who is one of the staff of writers on the Portland Telegram, was here Sunday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Davies. Lawrence has been with the Telegram for almost a year and the several promotions he has received is indicative of the value of his services to his employers.

The Oregonian of yesterday gave an account of the drowning of two men, Sidney W. Hoffman and C. E. May, both of Portland, and the rescue of Miss Dorothy Austin of Woodburn, by Jack Pobochnenko, the lifeguard. The young lady who is about 10 or 11 years old, is a cousin of Leland Austin who says that she is a good swimmer and not the least bit afraid of the water. This probably accounts for the young lady venturing out too far in the surf. Mr. and Mrs. Austin and Miss Dorothy have been at the beach for the past ten days and were to leave there last night for their home in Woodburn.

HAROLD LLOYD IN GRANDMA'S BOY THE LIBERTY Sun.-Mon., Aug. 27-8

The Liberty SUNDAY & MONDAY... AUG. 20-21 Two Shows Sunday Afternoon, 2 & 4

ALICE LAKE -AND- RODOLPH VALENTINO -IN- Uncharted Seas

HAROLD LLOYD COMEDY "HEY THERE" and Aesop Fable, "The Farmer and the Ostrich." PRICES... AS USUAL

Fred Lengacher, a Goble merchant, was transacting business in St. Helens Wednesday.

The steamer Multnomah laden with 935,000 feet of lumber and carrying a number of passengers sailed Monday night for San Pedro via San Francisco.

Dan Richardson has completed the cement foundation for the new home he will build to replace the one recently burned. The frame work will be started next week and work will be rushed to completion.

During the absence of John Deming, who is on his vacation trip, E. L. Laws is working at Deming's drug store. The work is very familiar to him as he worked at the same old stand for a number of years before going to California.

Hotel Changes Hands.—Wednesday morning the Larabee hotel property and business was transferred to Mr. Warren Troyer who is now conducting the hotel. He is pleased at the patronage accorded him and promises to give the same good service as did the former owners.

Lucile Cummins, pianist and accredited teacher for the state of Oregon, will be in St. Helens one day each week beginning September 1 and will accept pupils for winter work. With a sufficient number of young beginners class work according to the latest methods of thorough and systematic teaching will be given in addition to the regular private lessons. High school students may obtain credits for outside music study. Miss Cummins will be at the Morton residence during August. For appointments call or phone 25.

WEST ST. HELENS

Miss Lavinia and Miss Helen Kiblan visited in Clatskanie Sunday.

Mrs. A. W. Armitage and daughter, Mrs. Charles Brittain and child, are visiting friends in Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. David Smith of West St. Helens motored to Clatskanie on Sunday for a short visit with friends.

Miss Helen White returned to West St. Helens Tuesday after having visited friends in Portland for several days.

Traffic Officer Louis Kestner and family have moved from the Larabee residence and are occupying the Butts residence.

Hugh Chambers who has been attending the military training camp at Camp Lewis is expected to return home next week and will go to work for his father in the Houlton market.

The Liberty

Program for the Week Beginning Saturday, August 19.

SATURDAY ONLY—Frank Mayo in "Out of the Silent North," a tale of real men—a story of quiet heroism and sacrifice. A Canadian Northland picture of thrills and rare beauty.

Two reel comedy and Pathe News.

SUNDAY-MONDAY—Alice Lake and Rodolph Valentino in "Uncharted Seas," a soul-sounding story of woman's test of manhood.

Harold Lloyd comedy and Aesop fable.

Two shows Sunday afternoon, at 2 and 4.

TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY—Gloria Swanson in "Under the Lash." The story is dramatic and appealing. The scenes are laid in South Africa. Comedy and Pathe Review.

THURSDAY-FRIDAY—"The Little Minister," a special production of Barrie's story that has been read by millions, and will be viewed by additional millions on the screen.

Two reel comedy.

Two shows on Sunday Afternoon at 2 and 4.

PRICES... AS USUAL

The Liberty THURSDAY AND FRIDAY AUGUST 24-25

Special Attraction Alice Calhoun -IN- "The Little Minister"

ADAPTED FROM THE FAMOUS STORY BY JAMES M. BARRIE Millions have read the book—Millions will see the Picture. NO ADVANCE IN PRICES 30c AND 10c

Mary, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Quillish was taken to a Portland hospital Wednesday. The attending physician was of the opinion that she was suffering with an attack of appendicitis.

J. L. Canton has opened a tailor shop and pressing and cleaning establishment in the Harris building. Such an establishment has long been needed in this section of the town and Mr. Canton is pleased with the patronage given him.

A fire which is supposed to have originated from a defective flue damaged the roof of the residence of O. W. Bean Sunday night. The fire was discovered by neighbors and was extinguished by the time the fire department arrived. The damage was nominal.

The new store building of A. T. Kiblan is almost completed. The three store rooms and is a creditable addition to the business section of the town. It is understood that Donald McDonald and James O'Connell will open a meat market in one of the store rooms and rumor has it that a drug store will be another business to go in the building.

22 STORES 22 STORES 20TH CENTURY STORES

The Natural Way of Buying Is: GETTING THE BIGGEST RETURNS FOR THE INVESTMENT

Let us show you that the 20TH CENTURY Way is the most natural way. Easy buying for SATURDAY AND MONDAY is offered in the following quotations:

Table listing various goods and prices: Federal Milk, tall cans 25c; Borden or Carnation Milk, tall cans, 2 for 19c; American Made Cocoa, bulk pound 8c; Mason Jars, Boyd manufactured, equipped with zinc caps, porcelain lined, pints 78c; Golden West Coffee 39c; Corned Beef, No. 1 size, can 20c; Pancake Flour "Crown" 3 lb. pkg. 23c; Cane Sugar, 100 lbs. $7.35; Lemons, 300 size 15c; Onions, Walla Walla's, 5 lbs. 10c; Large Fancy New Potatoes, 10 pounds for 25c.

White Summer Footwear

Still Sought After

It is predicted that White Footwear will be worn later in the season than ever this year, perhaps because a longer summer is anticipated; at any rate, we have prepared for late demand for Summer Oxfords, Pumps and Strap Pumps in white and combination of black and white, Biege and black-brown and white.

Perhaps your summer stock of footwear is becoming depleted and shabby, the prices are reasonable enough to permit you to purchase the final pair without being extravagant. Come in and look our stock over. We know we can please you. This is truly the height of the White Season—our line of Sports and Dress Oxfords is awaiting your inspection.

Our CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT Can Supply All the Wanted Styles for the Young Folks

Don't Forget Black Cat Hosiery---We Carry It for Women

St. Helens, Ore. AUSTIN'S St. Helens, Ore.