COMING TO THE LIBERTY FAIR WEEK SEPT. 19 AND 20

Griffith's "Way Down East"

MAKE IT A POINT TO SEE THIS!

SCENE FROM "TOO MUCH BUSINESS"

"Too Much Business" is a delightful comedy of business and babies. One of the most amusing features of the whole piece is the group of children who appear in some of the most humorous bits. These little tots entered into the spirit of the play and proved to be admirable comedians. Above, several of them are shown besieging Amos Camby, played by the famous character actor Tully Marshall, who is largely responsible for the fact that "Too Much Business" stands out as one of the funniest comedies of the year.

The Key that Unlocks the Door to Long Living

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund, well-fed, but thin, spare men, who live on a slender diet. He as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, causing indigestion or constipation and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to move his bowels and invigorate his stomach. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to a ripe old age.

Six and a Half Million Farms---

Late census reports state that in the United States there are six and a half million farms with an average of 148 acres. The total value of these farms is nearly seventy-eight billion dollars.

It is evident, therefore, that farming is, not only in importance but in size, the basic industry of our country.

Our facilities are always at the command of the farmer. We want to do our part in the development of Columbia county.
