

MIST MISTINGS.

Mrs. A. F. Barnett was a Portland visitor Saturday.

Attorney John L. Stora transacted legal business in Portland, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Morton and family and Miss Olga Hellborn motored to Portland Sunday and spent the day with relatives.

Mrs. A. S. Harrison left for her home in South Bend, Washington, after a pleasant visit with her daughter, Mrs. Dewey Harrison.

The stork called recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cade in West St. Helens and left in their arms a fine baby boy who was accorded a welcome by the happy parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Simcox had as their guests Friday, Saturday and Sunday, three young men from Columbia University, Wm. McKay, Thomas Jones and their son, Forrest B. Smith.

Miss Grace Howell left last Friday for Barber, Idaho, where she will visit for two weeks with friends. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Howell accompanied her as far as The Dalles, making the trip by auto.

E. E. Quick was drawn as a member of the federal jury and went to Portland Monday. For good and sufficient reasons Judge Bean granted Mr. Quick's request that he be excused from jury duty.

Make your eyes more useful than they are; you can do it if you will permit Dr. Thompson to prescribe the needed glasses. Glasses that will help you see more and better. Consult him about your eyesight visit, Saturday, October 14, Orcadia Hotel until 4 p. m. 4312.

Mayor and Mrs. Batlagh and Harry Wilkins returned to St. Helens Friday from an auto trip which took them to Pendleton, Spokane and over the Blawie Pass to Seattle and Tacoma. Frank Wilkins of Westport, Washington, accompanied them as far as Pendleton where the party spent several days seeing the round-up.

In "Little Lord Fauntleroy" which comes to The Liberty next Tuesday and Wednesday for a two-day run, Mary Pickford rivals the athletic stunts of her athletic husband. She rides a bicycle which is six feet high, falls over the handlebars into the mud, and performs other things as daring as any of Doug's most dangerous offerings.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris C. Walker of Portland spent the week end in St. Helens, the guests of Mrs. Walker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson E. Quick. Mr. Walker is one of the firmmen for a contracting firm in Portland. Building is brisk, he said, but has been held up to a considerable extent by the shortage of materials, principally mill work and cement.

Miss Sue Watson of Livingston, Montana, arrived in St. Helens Tuesday for a few days visit and was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse. Miss Watson, who is Mr. Fieldhouse's aunt, was taken to Gresham yesterday to visit relatives and with Mr. and Mrs. Fieldhouse will view the Lower Columbia highway. The party will motor to Astoria and Seaside, returning to St. Helens Saturday night.

RALLY DAY PROGRAM IS INTERESTING

The rally day program presented by the M. E. Sunday school at the hour of the morning service last Sunday was very interesting. Special interest was taken in the Class Seven Girls' chorus, and the original dialogue, "What We are Learning in Sunday School," by Classes 8, 9 and 11. The program as presented follows:

- 1. Voluntary.
2. Hymn (the Congregation) - Coronation.
3. Prayer - Concluding with the Lord's Prayer - Rev. S. Darlow Johnson.
4. Hymn - Class Seven.
5. Responsive Reading - James 1, 12-27 - Friendship Class.
6. What we are learning in our Sunday School - By a Group of Boys.
7. What we are learning in our Sunday School - By a Group of Girls.
8. Hymn - Class Seven.
9. Responsive Reading - Leader.
10. Hymn - Boys and Men in the School.
11. Recitation - The Children's Service - Hene Cronkite.
12. Address - By the Pastor.
13. Offering.
14. Benediction - Mr. Shaffer.

IT'S TOASTED one extra process which gives a delicious flavor. LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTE.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for colds, croup and whooping cough for almost a half century and has constantly grown in favor and popularity as its good qualities became better known. It is the standard and main reliance for these diseases in thousands of homes. The facts that it can always be depended upon and is safe and pleasant to take are greatly in its favor when it is wanted for children.

AN ABSORBING TALE OF DANGER DAYS

The mystery of the sea and of those swift sailing vessels that sink so far off parts of the world is abundant in Goldwyn's absorbing film of adventure, "Yellow Men and Gold" which comes to The Liberty, Sunday afternoon at 2 and 4 o'clock. If you enjoy the trials of brave young souls in search of fortune, if you can thrill to the conflict of strong men in pursuit of gold, if you enjoy the salt tang of sea adventure, with reckless rovers and gentle lovers you will be enthusiastic about this colorful tale by Gouverneur Morris.

All the color, action and romance that made Robert Louis Stevenson's adventure stories the joy of our childhood are present in this fascinating picture-play of buried treasure on a volcanic island of the south seas. Helene Chadwick as the delightful mistress of a strange Chinese rover of the sea and Richard Dix as the mighty-flated treasure hunter will arouse in every soul the liborn love for stout hearts in glorious adventure.

High School Notes.

The physical training class for girls met for the first time Monday afternoon. Miss Tozier will direct the girls throughout the year.

At the first meeting of the literary societies held Tuesday afternoon Marion Morton resigned the office of president of her society. Her successor has not yet been elected.

District Attorney John L. Foote gave an interesting and helpful address before the civic class Tuesday.

Owing to the large number of students in the American history class Miss Harrett has divided the class so that she has a class in the morning and one in the afternoon.

The school had the first fire drill Tuesday afternoon. The new fire gong proved very satisfactory.

Plans are being made for the football game with Hill Military academy in Portland, Friday afternoon. A twenty-five passenger bus has been secured to take the fans and our eleven. The contest will be staged on Multnomah field.

We consider "Heinie" a genuine football fan. The eleven hot apples were surely appreciated by the football boys Tuesday noon.

S. H. H. S. has fully decided to have the best annual ever put out by this school. We sincerely hope the people of St. Helens will boost the school by giving us their support.

Tuesday, October 10 will be senior ribbon day in high school. Don't forget your ribbons!

S. H. H. S. plays Scapoose in football Thursday, October 12. The second day of teachers' institute. The game is on the St. Helens field. Admission 25c and 35c.
