MIST MISTINGS.

Let's go to the movie Sunday-Monday.

Attorney John L. Storla was in Portland Monday attending to legal matters.

District Attorney John L. Foote was in Kerry yesterday on professional business.

Mrs. Edison I. Ballagh and daughter Hope were Portland shoppers on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Muchow of Portland visited with Mr. and Mrs. Von A. Gray Monday.

Mayor C. D. White of Vernonia was here for the week end, a guest of his brother, T. S. White.

Charles Graham returned from Portland Wednesday evening. He has been serving on the federal grand jury.

Max Wilson, who is attending the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, spent the week end in St. Helens.

Mrs. Mary Muchow of Portland is spending the week in St. Helens, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Von A. Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Dixon and son Paul and Ralph Connor motored to Seaside Saturday returning to St. Helens Sunday evening.

Miss Mabel Davies, who is attending Willamette university in Salem, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Davies.

Mrs. M. Wilson has been quite sick for some time, but is improved, a bit of information which will be gladly received by her many friends.

Mrs. Howard Hudson and Miss Nan Hudson motored in from West St. Helens Tuesday and spent the afternoon with Mrs. John R. Cates.

Miss Virginia Morton expects to leave tomorrow morning for Astoria to spend the week end with her friend, Miss Marjorie Halderman and to attend a Hallowe'en party.

Mrs. C. E. Lufkin of Yankton entertained the Foreign Missionary society last Tuesday. Many of the ladies of St. Helens were present and enjoyed the beautiful dinner served.

Major Earl Larrabee, U. S. army, is here on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Larrabee. The major is en route to Honolulu, the war department having assigned him to some special work at that place.

The McBride school now has an enrollment of 138 pupils which is an increase over the past year. The pupils of the 7th and 8th grades are preparing a program which will be rendered on Friday afternoon, November 3.

Postmaster Williams states that the postal receipts for the quarter ending September 30th showed an increase over the same period last year which indicates that the West St. Helens section of the town is growing.

Judge and Mrs. M. F. Hazen returned to St. Helens Tuesday from South Bend, Washington, where they spent several days. While in the Willapa Harbor city they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Harrison, former residents of St. Helens.

Much building activity is noted in West St. Helens, especially in the school house neighborhood. The following parties now have houses under construction: Guy Chambers, Mr. Urie and Mr. Cooper and several other property owners are securing on building.

Representative Sherman M. Miles returned to St. Helens Tuesday morning after a short business trip to Eugene and Coos Bay. This week he has been in Deer Island, Clatskanie, Goble and Rainier interviewing the voters and he is confident that they will re-elect him to the legislature.

Mrs. Ole Dahlgren and two children are back in West St. Helens after having spent several months in Florida where Mr. Dahlgren was employed in getting out paving blocks. Mr. Dahlgren has gone to North Carolina to engage in the quarry business and will be there for several months.

Judge Martin White and County Commissioner Fullerton went to Vernonia Tuesday night to meet the public service commission and transit matters relative to the railroad crossing some of the highways. Judge White said it was a very disagreeable trip. The rain fell in torrents and it seemed as though the road was afloat. They arrived in Vernonia late at night and were ready to meet the members of the commission on Wednesday morning, but they didn't meet them because the members of the commission did not show up. The county officials returned to St. Helens Wednesday evening.

Entertainment including moving pictures in the city hall, Monday evening, November 1, 1922, under the auspices of the Modern Workmen of America. Everyone invited.

TO THE VOTERS OF ST. HELENS AND VICINITY.

The undersigned was nominated for Representative on the Republican ticket by a substantial majority, after a clean campaign. St. Helens as a whole gave me a majority vote. I ask you that in the coming election you give consideration to this fact, as I believe that I am entitled to every Republican vote in Columbia county. I have supported

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS presents THE THREE MUSKETEERS

Ransack the libraries of the World; search the literatures of all Nations, and nowhere will you find the equal of Dumas' undying story of thrilling romance and stirring adventure. Nowhere will you find a tale with the vigor and sparkle of 'The Three Musketeers.' Here is a story that glows and sings and charms. A perfect pictorial reproduction of the greatest novel of all time.

SEE IT AT THE LIBERTY TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY EVENINGS, NOVEMBER 7 AND 8.

your nominees wholeheartedly. If we cannot elect Republicans to office, then our party must of necessity disintegrate, for our party cannot exist if our standard-bearers must go to defeat. I therefore, ask your united support on November 7. Respectfully,

A. E. VEATCH, Republican Nominee for Representative.
