

Correspondence

SCAPOOSE

Scappoose took her share of premiums at the stock show. Mr. Wist and Mr. Smith received premiums on all stock exhibited as usual and also grand champion for a young bull. Henry Wist received fourth on a Holstein cow which was about dry. Paul Adams of Warren also received numerous ribbons. Dr. Blatchford received first prize on his Spy apples, also first on Winter Nells pears. Mr. Keys had a splendid display of Jon attractive and the credit goes to Miss Minnie Heimuller who had charge of the booth. And aren't we proud of Miss Laura Uhlman for winning the $50 prize and cup in the milking contest at the show. The Portland people enjoy jokes on Scappoose but when it comes to a contest Scappoose leads and they take a back seat. We will add her name to the list with Marjorie, Ollie, Loriel, Helen, Dix, Joe, Vera, Mary, Gladys, etc.

The Parent-Teachers' will have a social evening Friday, November 17 in the school. A spelling bee, short debates and other things are planned. A small admission of 10 cents will be charged to pay for material used for playground equipment. Refreshments will be for sale.

The Ladies' Aid gave an entertainment in the hall Friday evening. The audience was small but very appreciative and the spirit of the evening was social.

Charles Wikstrom spent part of last week at Bear River.

Miss Clara Novak was tendered a shower last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. John Kostirba. Many pretty and useful gifts were received. The wedding of Miss Novak and Mr. George Kovach is announced for Saturday, November 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Frakes, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Frakes were frequent visitors at the stock show last week and on Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frakes, Mrs. L. McLaughlan attended the Holstein banquet at the Hotel Portland.

Mrs. Floyd Grewell delightfully entertained the Ladies' Aid at her home last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Shirlev and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wist motored to Hillsboro on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Weaver of McMinnville spent the week end with their parents and Scappoose always welcomes them.

Miss Pringle entertained her mother and sister over Friday.

The American Legion are planning a dance to be held in the hall on Thanksgiving eve or Thanksgiving.

The Washburn family motored out from Portland Sunday and visited old friends here.

Mr. Guin and May were Sunday guests at the Watts home.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Perry were week end guests at Mayor Watts home.

There has been several case of the gripe in our vicinity. Among them is Mrs. Newton, Mrs. Coffyn, Inez Wikstrom and Mrs. Price.

Mrs. Getchell is visiting in Portland. Her stay is indefinite.

A meeting was held Monday at the school to adopt the budget for the following year. Very few were present.

The Auxillary of the legion met with Mrs. McManus Tuesday afternoon to sew on convalescent robes for the boys in the soldiers hospitals. The attendance was small and there are still suits to be made.

Earl Pierson has accepted a position with the St. Helens baker and is doing the driving.

The work is being rushed on the Pace home to get under roof while the weather permits.

Scappoose Students Make Good at the O. A. C.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Nov. 16.—(Special to St. Helens Mist.)—Scappoose is represented by 9 of the 42 students registered in regular courses, summer session and short courses this year (Columbia county has a total registration of 32 students.)

Norman Miller, senior in electrical engineering, is secretary of Eta Kappa Nu, honorary electrical engineering fraternity. Mr. Miller is also vice president of Sigma Tau, honorary engineering fraternity and a member of the American Association of Engineers, American Institute of Electrical Engineers, and Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity.

Herman Miller, senior in electrical engineering, is corresponding secretary of Sigma Tau, honorary engineering fraternity. Mr. Miller holds the position of vice president in the American Association of Engineers, and is a member of Eta Kappa Nu, honorary electrical engineering fraternity, American Institute of Electrical Engineers and Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity.

Walter Erickson, senior in commerce, is a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Wastina club. Mr. Erickson is specializing in business administration. Mr. Erickson played on the Wastina baseball team last spring and helped them win the college championship.

Valdes White is registered as a junior in electrical engineering this term.

Kenneth Ackley, junior in horticulture, is president of the Western club, a member of the Agricultural and Horticultural clubs, and holds a position on the advertising staff of the Oregon Countryman, the official student publication of the school of agriculture.

Gertrude Uhlman, sophomore in home economics, is a member of the second cabinet of the Y. W. C. A. and takes an active part in "Y" work. Miss Uhlman is a member of the Home Economics club, the Actacon club and the college chorus. The course in home economics prepares the young woman to be better home-makers, teachers in home economics, and managers of cafeterias and tea rooms.

Inez McKay, freshman in home economics, is a member of the Home Economics club and the Phillon club. Thelma Cole, freshman in commerce, is a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and a pledge to Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Burt Smith, freshman in agriculture, is a member of the Agricultural club and is playing center on the freshman football team. The aim of the work in agriculture is to train young men to become successful farmers, farm managers and specialists in the service of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Scappoose School Notes.

The Scappoose grammar school football team defeated the Warren team by a score of 19 to 6. They played on our field.

Fred Heimuller is back in school after two weeks' absence on account of a sprained ankle which he received at Castle Rock. We are all glad to see him back.

The Freshman Science class attended the stock show on November 7. They saw the judging of the cattle.

The Senior class has chosen their rings for this year. They decided they wanted rings instead of pins as their emblems.

The football game with Kalama proved our team victors. This was the first time they had any yelling on the side lines for them away from home this year. We all see every support to our team does so let every one do their best to help them along.

The algebra class has been having a contest and Helen Anderson has proved herself the champion.

The students of the high school have been so good the last week that we are having nice weather. If other schools would follow this plan maybe we would have good weather all the time.

The English I class is studying "The Lady of the Lake." They all find it very interesting.

On Monday afternoon a budget meeting was held in the Commercial room. There were not very many in attendance.

A number of the students expect to participate in the homecoming events at O. A. C. this week end.

The Civics class organized a senate. Delbert Snider was elected president. We expect to "absorb" an abundance of knowledge from the proceedings.

One member of our faculty, Mrs. Bryant, our English teacher, viewed Armistice day ceremonies at Portland, Saturday. She tells us the parade was about two miles long consisting of all local units and persons that participated in the late war. The Salvation Army float received great applause. A great number of the ex-service men wore one or two medals of honor. After the parade occurred the unveiling of the fine bronze statue of our famous friend, Roosevelt. If one reads last Sunday's Oregonian he can obtain a good idea of the exercises. Each one should go and see this fine piece of work when they go to Portland.

Three members of the high school faculty, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Bryant attended the stock show on Wednesday evening and stayed on the night horse show. They called it a "never-to-be-forgotten" sight. While there Mr. Smith met friends from Montana, some former classmates as well as stockmen. Among them were Mr. W. O. Bahart of Bozeman, Montana, with a herd of 21 Brown Swiss cattle.

Professor E. D. Dasee of the department of vocational education at O. A. C., was a visitor at the school on Monday and Tuesday. Mr. Dasee came to inspect or supervise the newly organized Smith-Hughes agricultural department under the direction of Mr. Smith. He reports the department very well organized and among the best in the state.

WARREN

The Ladies' Aid society of the Evangelical church will hold their annual bazaar and sale on Friday evening, November 24, at Erickson's hall. A fine assortment of useful articles will be offered to those in attendance and a good time will be

VERNONIA

VERNONIA, Ore., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—C. D. White was re-elected mayor of Vernonia at the recent election defeating his opponent, D. W. Keasy by the narrow margin of two votes. White's vote was 94 and had, by everyone. The ladies have been busy the last year in preparation for this event. Warren people are cordially invited to attend and are promised an entertaining time.

The Warren Social club had a very pleasant time at their semi-monthly event on Saturday evening. A goodly crowd enjoyed the social and a "shower" was given Mrs. J. A. Bacon, one of the members who lost all her household goods when the Bacon residence was burned recently. Mrs. Bacon was the recipient of a number of useful articles and was taken by surprise when the affair transpired.

A large number of Warren people attended the International Stock show in Portland last week.

G. Carlson was the victim of a holdup Monday night. A complete account is given elsewhere.

E. House of Portland was a Warren caller on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Israelson have moved into their new and handsome cottage recently finished by Wm. Hammerlock.

John A. Carlson has the new home of L. Johnson nearly completed. C. O. Churchill is doing the plastering. Dennis Duncan has been at The Gallies for the past few weeks.

Columbia Heights School District No. 39, one and one-half miles from Houlton, on the Yankton road, will have a program and social gathering Wednesday, November 29 at eight o'clock. The children have been working hard and a fine program is expected. A small admission will be charged, the proceeds to go for the benefit of the school.

A pie social and entertainment will be given by the Warren school at 8 p. m., Saturday, November 25, in Erickson's hall at Warren. An excellent program is promised. Coffee and cake will be sold. The ladies will furnish the pies.

Ex-Premier Clemenceau was at one time a librarian in New York City.

Kuhn, Loeb and Co. of New York, have this year received in gold from Europe up to October 1, $30,625.00

BACHELOR FLAT

Mrs. William Skuzie was shopping in St. Helens Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Pope and family left last Saturday for Kelso, Wn., where they expect to make their home for a time. They will be missed by their many friends on the Flat.

Walter Booth of St. Helens visited with Kendall Burkhead Sunday.

The friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herdahl gave them a farewell reception at their home last Wednesday evening. The ladies brought a beautiful supply of cakes which was served with coffee.

Mrs. C. R. Saxton and Mrs. J. M. Burkhead were guests of Mrs. J. D. McKee Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Lillich of Quincy and Mrs. William Woods of Clatskanie are guests at the Guy Lillich home.

Miss Ina Blair was shopping in Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. P. C. Jacobsen entertained several friends with a turkey dinner Sunday in honor of Mr. Jacobsen's birthday.

Miss Hodapp and Miss Royer are very busy drilling the children for the entertainment to be given Nov. 25. A basket social will follow.

Ole Olson transacted business in St. Helens Tuesday.

Miss Crystal Burkhead entertained her primary Sunday school class with a party at the school house Saturday evening. She was assisted by the Misses Lois Masten, Viola Soderberg and Elsie Peterson. The afternoon was spent in playing games after which a dainty luncheon was served. All at 30 were present. The little folks report the usual good time.

The preaching services held at the school house Sunday evening by Rev. Horquist of Warren was well attended and much appreciated.

Keasy's 92, Reuben Hall, C. W. Mettinger, Guy R. Mills and B. L. Sears were elected councilmen and H. E. Metiraw, treasurer. The light and power franchise secured by a substantial majority as did the charter and water measures. It was the hottest election Vernonia has ever held and a large vote was cast.

This section of the county is somewhat disappointed that William Pringle was defeated for county commissioner, but the close race he gave his opponent is gratifying to his many friends.

Judge and Mrs. W. A. Harris went to St. Helens Monday to spend a few days.

Lee Hall left for Portland via St. Helens Sunday. He was summoned to Portland to serve on the federal jury.

The Red Cross roll call will begin this week and it is expected that the Nehalem Valley will do as it always has done for this cause. "Go Over the Top."

YANKTON

Mrs. C. R. Karth is home again after spending several weeks in a Portland hospital.

Mr. Vernon and family have moved onto the White place which they recently purchased.

Mr. Newton sold five of his Blue Jerseys last week to a Mr. Spencer of Vancouver, B. C.

The Jersey breeders will meet at the grain hall next Saturday for the election of officers. Topics of interest will be discussed in the afternoon. Basket dinner at noon. Everyone welcome to come.

A goodly number of our people attended the International Stock show and all praise the quality of the animals there. We were pleased to see the showing Columbia county made both in cattle and agriculture. Mrs. Jennie Sobieski and Mrs. Lampa entered the milk maids contest and perhaps their names would have been in the papers if the cow hadn't kicked the bucket over.

Good Health.

If you would enjoy good health, keep your bowels regular. No one can reasonably hope to feel well when constipated. When needed, take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are mild and gentle.

Turkey is doing a lot of strutting. What a pity the Thanksgiving fete of turkeys cannot be meted out over there.

In describing a whirlwind talker you can leave off the whirl!

IT'S TOASTED
one extra process which gives a delicious flavor

LUCKY STRIKE
CIGARETTE

The Rockland Lake lighthouse on the Hudson river began to lean shortly after it was built. It was caused probably by the washing out of an old oyster bed. The lighting machinery has been adjusted so that it functions properly.

"To enjoy happiness is a great good, but to be able to confer it also on others is a greater still."—Bacon

"When an occasion is piled high with difficulty, we must rise high to the occasion."—Abraham Lincoln

No. 21 All Cast Best Lined Heater $24.75

No. 20 Lined Air Tight Heater $3.25

E. A. ROSS
Masonic Building St. Helens, Oregon

Several other kinds at prices according to quality. These stoves are made in Oregon, bought direct from the factory and thoroughly guaranteed.

Bridge and Beach STOVES

A. T. KIBLAN
West St. Helens Phone 35 Prompt Delivery

For years this make of stoves has been recognized as the standard make of stoves and heaters. We have a full line of the dependable heaters and stoves.

Priced from $25.50 to $36.50

Winter time is almost here. Make your preparations now to keep the house comfortable.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

For shoes, dry goods, clothing, groceries, light hardware and any other items of general merchandise you should call at our store, and if you can not call use the phone. We deliver promptly.

MR. CAR PROSPECT

Do you know that the Ford car today is constructed of better materials and more nicely fitted and balanced than ever before? Do you know that it sells for less money than ever in the history of motordom?

There is no car that has the ready resale value of the Ford nor is as economical in cost of operation. Why spend several hundred or a thousand dollars more for a car which will give you no more and probably not as much service? We will welcome an opportunity to show you the improvements of the new Ford.

The New Prices:

Model T Chassis	$235.00
Runabout, regular	$269.00
Touring, regular	$298.00
Truck Chassis	$380.00

To these prices should be added $70 for starter and $25 for demountable rims.

Ford Coupe, self starter and demountable rims	$520.00
Ford Two-Door Sedan, self starter and demountable rims	$595.00

Prices F. O. B. Detroit

Fieldhouse Motor Co.

AUTHORIZED FORD AND FORDSON DEALERS
ST. HELENS, OREGON

MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

In Unsettled Weather

Banking by mail is especially popular with our depositors during the winter months.

This safe, convenient and speedy method brings the facilities of the bank to your home.

Our banking-by-mail plan is only one of the many ways we serve our patrons.

A post-card or telephone inquiry will receive prompt attention.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF SCAPOOSE

S. A. Wilson, Pres. Albert D. Ridgeway, Vice Pres.
E. E. Wist, Cashier

Capital and Surplus $30,000 United States Depository

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent