VETERANS DISABLED IN WAR AIDED

With the 1154 injured world war veterans of this district rehabilitated, the Pacific northwest section of the United States Veterans' bureau leads all other districts of the country in the number of vocationally rebuilt former service people as compared with the number entering training. This announcement was made by L. C. Jeseph, northwest district manager of the bureau, who stated that there are 2767 others in training at the expense of the government now. Only veterans who received disabilities in war service which prevented them from resuming their pre-war vocations were awarded training.

This district which includes Washington, Oregon and Idaho is also one of the two leaders in the United States in expeditious adjudication of compensation claims, Mr. Jeseph stated. Only 476 such claims out of a total of 14,347 filed by veterans in the district are pending action at the present time. This is three per cent plus of the total number. With less than one per cent of its mail unanswered, the northwest district of the bureau leads all others in the matter of prompt answering of correspondence when this work was checked throughout the country recently.

There are 762 disabled war veterans hospitalized in this district at the present time, a slight decrease under the number in hospitals in October. The peak of hospitalization was reached early in the spring of this year. Mental, nervous and tuberculosis cases are still increasing, it was stated.

ANCIENT BIBLES.

Many ancient Bibles are owned in Genesee county, according to reports coming into Flint, Michigan, says a dispatch to the Detroit Free Press.

Rev. George Bedford, pastor of the Congregational church at Grand Blanc, claims to own the oldest one. It was printed in Oxford, England, in 1525. He has another printed in Worcester, Mass., in 1797.

Of the many old Bibles in the country, a majority of them are reported to be well preserved, and are distinguished from the modern Bible by the addition of books to be found in them, such as Esdra, Baruch, Susanna, Maccabees.

DOG CAME 592 MILES.

Tired, hungry and bleeding, Shep, a 9-month-old collie pup, returned tramping home from Owen, Wisconsin, a distance of 592 miles. George Schaub sent Shep by express to Mr. John Wolty of Owen, a relative, several months ago, after she had expressed a desire for the dog. Several days later Mrs. Wolty wrote that Shep had arrived safely. Mr. Schaub was unable to explain the dog's instinct, as, having been sent to Wisconsin in an express car, he had no opportunity to observe landmarks.

EGYPTIANS STUDY HERE.

Ten Egyptian students, graduates of the engineering and polytechnic schools of Egypt, sent to America by the khedive's government to learn American manufacturing methods, have arrived in Washington, D. C., and have been placed by the department of commerce in automobile and other factories, where they will for two years work as actual employees, with the purpose of carrying back to the land of the pyramids American technical knowledge and skill.

The Egyptian government pays all the expenses of the mission.

Past and Present.

A New York city official, as the story is going the rounds, was walking through City Hall park with one of his commissioners. As they passed the statute of Nathan Hale, who stands with his hands behind his back, the commissioner said:

"Mr. Official, don't you think that statue of Nathan Hale is a beautiful piece of work?"

"Hale? Nathan Hale?" said the official in a puzzled tone. "Why, I thought that was a statute of Houdini!"—Argus.

SMALL POTATOES MAKE CHEAP FEED FOR HOGS

Cull potatoes, either raw or cooked, make an excellent feed for swine. Cooking greatly increases the food value. It is always desirable to feed grain with the potatoes—1 pound to every four pounds of cooked potatoes, or one pound of grain to two pounds of raw potatoes. At this season of the year, and particularly this year, there are considerable quantities of cull potatoes which may be readily turned into money by feeding to swine. If the grain and potatoes are the only feed given a small self-feeder containing tankage or fresh fish meal will be found a profitable investment if placed where the swine may have free access to it.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the winter is over and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first indication of a cold appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug.

RECIPES

Lamb Delight.

One pound neck of lamb, two onions, one carrot, one-half cup stewed tomato, one tablespoon butter, one pound flour, one cup water, salt and pepper, celery salt.

Fry meat in butter until brown, then remove meat and brown flour. Add water and stir until it boils, add meat and vegetables and cook in oven until tender, then put the following biscuit over on top and bake until they are done:

Cup flour, two teaspoons baking powder, one-fourth cup milk, one-fourth teaspoon salt, one teaspoon melted butter. Use casserole, as it can be set right on the table.

Pumpkin Muffins.

Sift together one and one-half cup of flour, a tablespoon of sugar, a teaspoon of salt and four level teaspoons of baking powder, work in two tablespoons of shortening, then an egg beaten with three-fourths of a cup of milk and a small cup of boiled and mashed pumpkin. Beat well and pour into hot, greased muffin pans. Bake 20 minutes.

Eggs (Malta.)

Boil and slice 6 or 8 eggs and arrange in a butter baking dish. Add a sauce made as follows: Mix on the fire 1 cup of good white stock, 1 tablespoon of finely chopped ham, 1 ounce of butter, 1 ounce of grated cheese, juice of 1 lemon, a dash of pepper, a bit of parsley, a grating of nutmeg, 1-4 teaspoon salt and 1-2 cup of strained tomato puree. Stir about 20 minutes. Pour over the eggs, sprinkle with grated cheese and bread crumbs and bake in a rather quick oven.

Oysters With Macaroni

Break macaroni into small pieces, wash well, put into boiling water and cook 20 minutes. Wash and drain 2 quarts of oysters, put one layer in well-buttered baking dish, cover with macaroni, sprinkle with salt and pepper and butter, continue in alternate layers until all oysters are used. Cover with bread or cracker crumbs, dot with butter and moisten with milk or cream, or, if desired, a rich tomato sauce. Bake one-half hour. Lesser quantities can, of course, be used in same proportions.

Bread Pudding

Spread stale slice of bread with butter. Buttered toast left over from breakfast does nicely. Put a layer of the buttered bread in the bottom of the baking dish, spread with jelly or jam. Cover with another layer of bread. Pour over a custard and bake about 40 minutes. Save the white of one egg in making the custard. Whip this and sweeten slightly. Spread over the pudding when done and return to the oven a minute to brown.

Flavored Beets.

Two cupfuls sliced cooked beets, 1-2 cupful sugar, 1-2 cupful vinegar, 2 tablespoons butter, 1-4 teaspoon of salt, 3-4 tablespoon cornstarch.

Mix the cornstarch with the vinegar, add sugar and salt and let come to a boil, stirring constantly. Cook five minutes, add butter, pour over beets and serve hot.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

If the milk strainer gets clogged up, rub table salt through it and it will instantly be cleared and be as bright as new.

To whiten discolored clothes dissolve one teaspoon of cream of tartar in a quart of cold water. Put the clothes in and soak over night. When washed they will be almost as white as when new.

A broken egg will remain fit for use for some time if placed in a cup of water.
