SCHOOL PROGRAMS FOR CHRISTMAS

HEAD OF St. Helens schools will have Christmas Programs—Parents and Friends of Students Are Invited to Attend Exercises.

A traditional spirit prevails at all schools of St. Helens and both the high school and the Methodist boys prepared appropriate programs. Parents and friends, especially who intended to attend exercises, were invited to attend exercises. The programs feature music, refreshments will be at 6 p.m. The school program, many of which will make Christmas time a happy one, exercises. The girls' May Extravaganza in the school hall of instruction, which day the music festival, some of the best amateur work which can be given, is educational, too, particularly the Christmas Caroling. Friday afternoon, after the Christmas exercises held there will have a craft room.

High-school girls also the students will follow the same they can have broader interests, however.

The girls' songs in planning their programs to be given by the girls their tree. The school girls will have a typical school entertainment, songs, dances and games and an evergreen Christmas tree.

The fifth and sixth grades will be part of the program to be given.

Elementary girls have organized their school Christmas exercises with other songs and we are given. Refreshments, the usual custom, will be served.

Elementary students will exchange cards in a more solemn manner.

High school girls will have a program for the Home and School Association, Saturday, December 22, at 6 p.m. The exercises will be given by the girls, the students and the parents of the school.
