Our Boy Reporter

John Ford's son N. G. for the first time. I don't know what N. G. is, but I just the other day saw a N. G. means never again. I don't know if he got the job when he got the letters which he has written me 49 years my father and the letters I got. I don't know if he made them put up three or four years ago the same. I don't know if he is still in the same place. I don't know if he is still in the same place. I don't know if he is still in the same place.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

As we pass from the old to the new 'tis well to pause, to reflect on the favors bestowed upon us and to remember our friends who in no small measure have contributed to our successes.

As we pass the glad Christmas time and look into the beaming New Year our minds fill with thoughts of gladness.

We hope for each of you a joyous Christmas and a Happy New Year filled with sunshine of contentment, good health and prosperity.

Traffic Regulations Must Be Obeyed

PARKING

Keep back from street intersections a safe distance. Obstructing view across the highway is a serious offense. Do not stop on the sidewalk or in front of a building. Do not stop on the street in front of a building.

KEEP TO THE RIGHT

Keep to the right at all times except in passing vehicles when in the same direction.

SPEED LIMIT

The speed limit is 15 miles an hour in congested districts. This district is from the corner of Oak and Willamette streets, on St. Helens street east of Oak and on Columbia and Strand streets. On other streets, including the paved highway to West St. Helens, the speed limit is 20 miles per hour.

LIGHTS

From one hour after sunset to one hour before sunrise, motor cars shall display two white lights in front and a red light in the rear. Lights must be dimmed when approaching a low vehicle.

CUTOUTS CLOSED

Cutouts must be kept closed at all times.

RIGHT OF WAY

The one on the right always has the right of way.

STOP MOTOP

Stop motop when an attendant is not in the car.

TURN AT INTERSECTIONS

Turning to opposite direction must be at street intersection only.

ALL VEHICLES MUST OBEY

Bicycles and horse-drawn vehicles must obey the law as well as motor vehicles.
