United States and County Official Paper.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Trespass notices on cloth for sale at this office.

Bacon sells groceries cheap, at Gillton. Call on him.

Wanted—A girl to do general house work at once. Good wages to good girl. Call at this office.

Little Daisy Curtis, of Albina, aged 11 years, was drowned at Hood River while bathing last Saturday.

Albert Tucker made final proof on his claim Monday, with James George and Jacob J. Miller as witnesses.

Miss Mary Conyers, of the Oregon City Enterprise, was the guest of Miss Alice Cox of this place the fore part of the week.

Mr. O. P. Mason, attorney at law, of Portland, was in town Tuesday on legal business connected with the estate of Isaac Thomas, deceased.

Thomas O'Keefe of the Portland paid fire department was run over and killed last Friday morning while engaged extinguishing the flames on that day.

All kinds of job printing, such as letter heads, bill heads, note heads, statements, posters, envelopes, cards, etc., done at THE MIST office on short notice.

The corner stone of the Portland University, of which mention the MIST has heretofore made, was laid last Monday evening, at Portsmouth on the Willamette just above St. Johns.

John Horgren of Clatskanie river, proved up on his homestead claim, the S. 1/4 of the N. W. 1/4 and the N. 1/4 of the S. W. 1/4, section 2, T. 5 N. R. 3 W. He had as witnesses A. F. McDonald and Geo. Fichtel.

The steamer Mascot went from Woodland to Kelso on an excursion last Sunday. The steamer was under charter by the Woodland and Kelso baseball nines who were to play at Kelso on that day.

Mr. M. F. Hazen, of Gillton, left at this office last Saturday, samples of the finest oats and wheat we have yet seen. The oats were six feet long and such cluster, one numbering eighteen and the other thirty-six stalks, is the product of two grains of oats planted.

The moonlight excursion to Vancouver last Friday night was a success, financially and otherwise. The steamer Mascot left the wharf at this place promptly at 7:30 as advertised. She went up Lake river to Union Ridge, and there took on board a number of passengers. Leaving there she stopped a few times along Bachelor's Island and then proceeded to Vancouver, arriving there at about 10 p. m. After a stay of fifteen minutes, (just long enough to give the excursionists a chance to say they were ashore in the city), we started for home. There were over eighty tickets sold, and a more good-humored crowd of excursionists is seldom seen in these parts. The refreshments consisted of ice cream and cake, and the music was instrumental and vocal, and was very good. After leaving the passengers off at Union Ridge that came on board at that place we proceeded to St. Helens, arriving at about 12:30 a. m. Saturday morning.

One more at the seaside. This time one of Portland's prominent attorneys, Mr. H. T. Bingham was drowned at North Beach on Friday last while fishing in company with Joseph Knott, at North head rocks back of Ilwaco. The two men were out on a projectile of rocks, quite a distance from shore at high tide, fishing for porgies. When the tide came in it surrounded the point on which the men were standing, and they having splendid luck fishing, did not notice the incoming breakers until their avenue of escape was cut off. Then they, thinking that the tide would not rise high enough to wash them off the rocks, resolved to stay there. The tide came higher and higher and finally a huge breaker swept the two fishermen from their feet and into the sea. Mr. Bingham called to Mr. Knott, saying: "Save yourself, Joe, don't mind me, I can keep afloat for forty-eight hours." In this, however, he was mistaken, for in another instant a huge breaker caught him and carried him out of sight. A moment later he was seen by his companion for the last time, the current seeming to carry him southward. Mr. Knott made his way to shore in an almost unconscious condition. Mr. Bingham was one of Portland's brightest legal lights and a warm personal friend of Thomas A. Sutherland, editor of the Sunday Welcome, who was drowned Thursday evening. His loss will be greatly felt by his associates in the legal profession.

Again we are called upon to record the death by drowning of one of Portland's very prominent citizens and journalists, Mr. Thomas A. Sutherland, editor and proprietor of the Sunday Welcome, which occurred last Thursday evening, August 20. As the Stark-street ferry was leaving the Portland side of the river at Portland, two men were seen running down the incline to catch the boat. They were about fifty feet from the boat when she started from shore. The men continued their race for the ferry and one of them made a desperate leap and landed safely on the boat. Mr. Sutherland being a short stout built man realized that he could not make the jump and endeavored to check himself; but it being a down grade and traveling too fast, to stop was impossible. Just as he reached the edge of the slip he stumbled and fell headlong into the river. The current caused by the wheel of the ferry-boat washed him under the pontoon and he was seen no more. Finally by the use of the same current that sent the body under the pontoon it was washed ashore under the wharf. On the recovery of the body the excited crowd seemed to lose their heads entirely and not one out of the hundreds that had congregated there thought of summoning a physician, or even to attempt rolling the strangled man, until life was extinct. Mr. Sutherland had been for a good many years connected with the Sunday Welcome and is well known all over the state.

Many years practice have given C. A. Snow & Co., Solicitors of Patents, at Washington, D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents for all classes of inventions. They make a specialty of rejected cases, and have secured allowance of many patents that had been previously rejected. Their advertisement in another column, will be of interest to inventors patentees, manufacturers, and all who have to do with patents.

A dispatch from Central Mexico says that there has been no rain in many sections of that state for nearly two years. The cattle are dying by thousands, and men, women and children by scores are dying from hunger. President Diaz has been appealed to and has suspended the customs duties in order that bread stuffs from the United States can be gotten to the starving people with the least cost.

The Oregon Press Association meets in annual session at Astoria today. The Oregon editors took passage on board the steamer R. R. Thompson at Portland at 8 o'clock last evening for Astoria and will spend today, tomorrow and Sunday in the vicinity of Astoria and return to Portland Monday. Astoria is undoubtedly the proper place for this occasion, and the affair will be a pleasant one.

Ed. Smith of Spokane, and Mid Russell of Vancouver, fought to a finish with two-ounce gloves for a purse of $250 and the light-weight championship of the Northwest Sunday morning last. The fight took place on Government Island, near Vancouver and lasted twelve rounds, resulting in Smith's favor.

Judge F. A. Moore made a trip to Astoria Monday, looking after railroad matters in connection with the proposed Goble-Astoria road. The work of securing right of way for this road will commence in a few days, and it is expected grading for the road bed will follow shortly afterwards, provided the right of way can be secured.

Mr. William Holsapple informs us that he has not been receiving his paper regularly at the Tryon postoffice. The fault is not at this office as the MIST is mailed regularly every Friday morning to all of its subscribers, and they should receive it.

There will be preaching in the Rainier school house, Saturday August 29 and Sunday August 30, 1891, by Rev. B. P. Williams from Portland Oregon. All are invited to come.

The board of equalization meets next Monday. All persons who have grievances to present to the board should be on hand on that day.

Special Land Agent Travis, accompanied by an assistant, was in St. Helens Monday looking after Uncle Sam's interests.

William H. Braden of the Nehalem Journal was a welcome caller at this office Tuesday. Mr. Braden reports business as lively as usual in his section.

Rev. W. W. McCart has been assigned the St. Helens and Clatskanie charge by the Oregon Annual M. E. conference for the next year.

The steamer Kellogg took an excursion from Kelso to Vancouver last Sunday. They had a very good crowd on board when they passed this place.

Richard Hughes, employed on the Oregonian's new building in Portland, was accidentally shot and killed by John Bevan last Sunday morning.

To insure publication all communications should reach this office not later than Thursday morning of each week.

Walter Blakesley left last Monday for Crescent City, California, where he expects to engage in mining.

Highest price paid for butter, eggs, etc., at Bacon's farm-ra' alliance store.

GOODS EXCHANGED FOR PRODUCE AT BACON'S STORE.

The steamer Manzanillo broke her shaft last week and has been laid up for repairs ever since.

Have you sampled those beautiful sweet candles at the drug store? They are very fine indeed.

Burton O. Vose made final proof on his pre-emption claim the s. e. 1/4 sec 28 t 7 n, r 3 w, with William Holsapple and C. S. R. Washburn as witnesses.

Superintendent Watts this week sent out by mail, to the various school district officers, one copy each of the new school laws. Let him know if you fail to get a copy.

John Gildner made final proof on his pre-emption Tuesday, the n. w. 1/4 of sec. 18, tp 6 n, r 2 west, with S. A. Fowler and H. D. Burris as witnesses.

Mr. Charles Meserve, editor and proprietor of the Oregon City Enterprise, was in St. Helens on Sunday last. The pure water and bracing air of the falls city evidently agrees with Mr. Meserve.

Bertha M. Davis made final proof in support of her claim, the s. e. 1/4 of sec. 4, tp 5 n, r 3 west, on Thursday, with Edwin Ross and George M. Tennant as witnesses.

The Oregon state fair will be held at Salem, commencing Monday, September 14, 1891, and continue for one week. The fair this year promises to be far ahead of anything in previous years. The fair grounds are in splendid condition and many new features have been added to this year's programme.

Professor C. H. Jones, a graduate of Monmouth college, and who taught the spring term of school at Gillton, has been engaged to teach the fall term at St. Helens, which opens Monday next. We hope to see a large attendance, especially at the commencement. Nothing encourages a teacher more than to see a disposition on the part of the patrons to use their undivided efforts in behalf of the school. On the other hand, if there is a large enrollment to begin with it makes it the more interesting for the pupils and a larger pupil will attend.

The Lewis River Transportation company who own the steamer Mascot, are building another boat for the Lewis river route. As the Mascot draws too much water to get up Lewis river at all times of the year, the new boat will be of light draught and will only ply on the two forks of the Lewis river and transport the freight down to deep water and on board the Mascot, which will continue to make daily trips to Portland from or near the mouth of the river. The new steamer will be 120 feet long and twenty-six feet beam, and it is claimed that she will be the best light draft boat on the river.

The Woodland Transportation company are progressing nicely with the construction of their new boat which is to run in connection with their steamer Toledo on the Lewis and Lake river route. The new steamer will ply on Lewis river only, above tide water and transfer the freight to the Toledo. She will be eighty feet long and twenty feet beam. The steamer is now being built at Woodland, and as soon as completed will be taken to Portland to receive her machinery and boiler, after which she will be placed on the route in time to handle the winter trade. The Lewis river grangers evidently are in dead earnest, and are making it rather interesting for the old company.

Mrs. Frances Fuller Victor, whose name is familiar to a great many of our readers, is in St. Helens in the interest of a book she is having published entitled "Atlantis Arisen." The work is the most complete historical illustrated production we have ever seen of the Northwest. It contains a number of beautiful illustrations of Oregon City, Portland, Tacoma, Gray's Harbor, Seattle, Spokane, the Cascades of the Columbia, etc. The work is a carefully prepared one, containing about 400 pages, and a book which no household can afford to be without. The price of the book is $2.50. Mrs. Victor some years ago published a book entitled "All over Oregon and Washington," which was, at that time considered far superior to anything previously published.

SCAPOOSE NOTES.

Nice warm weather with plenty of smoke.

Prof. Griffith, the phrenologist, gave a course of well attended lectures this week.

Mr. Jas. Craig leaves this week for Hubbard, Oregon, where he will engage in business.

Honeyman, Balch and others burned their large slashings Monday with very good results.

The laying of the corner stone for the new church on Thursday of last week was well attended, and the building will be carried to completion at once.

J. L. Armstrong began work on his brick yard Monday.

Fruits of all kinds are quite plentiful, in fact farmers have little to complain of in this year's products.

CORRESPONDENCE.

WARREN.

Business is a little dull in town on the account of farmers being busy harvesting. Crops are unusually large and our warehouses will be filled to their utmost capacity.

Our old friend (and granger) Thos. Cooper will do our threshing this year. He says that he intends to give the farmers a big yield this season.

J. W. McGuire and wife left today for their home in Kansas. They have been visiting their daughters, Mrs. N. F. Baker and Misses Ella and Kittie McGuire, for the last two months. Mr. McGuire is very much pleased with our climate and soil and will return as soon as he can dispose of his property in Kansas.

Mr. Derby was on our streets last Sunday shaking hands with old friends. Eugene is always a welcome.

W. J. Fullerton has been kicking up quite a dust on his farm since he sold his store.

Mr. F. M. Hoyt and family and Mr. George Haneagan and family have returned from a few days camping at Bunker Hill. They report a very pleasant time. Of course the venison that they got was dear meat and we have not sampled the blackberries, but think they are very nice as good things are done up in small parcels.

Misses Zoe and Ethel Semple accompanied their mother, Mrs. Hoyt, to the mountains and were delighted with their trip. They had the pleasure of listening to the coarse growls of a panther one dark night while there, which was quite entertaining.

DEER ISLAND.

We have received THE MIST from a new manager and editor. It is to be hoped that the new man will continue to heap fuel on the fire so that none of the sparks will die out that have been kindled by the former editor, and that our county journal will become a blazing fire that will warm the hearts of its readers and give light to those that are in darkness, and become an electric light to the other county candidates.

Some people think that a road supervisor should fix every part of his road district at once. But friends, this is impossible. When there is a dangerous bridge, or a real bad place the supervisor should give it his attention immediately. There are some bridges between here and Enterprise that are dangerous to traveling. The supervisor knows of those places, and why not fix them before the county is compelled to pay a heavy damage from accidents.

Mrs. W. O. Tucker, of Hunters, has been quite poorly of late with chills and fever, but is at present able to be up and around, though not entirely well.

There has been but very little sickness here this summer, and only a very few deaths as compared with other places, and, in fact, other years. Whether the climate or the hand of St. Vitha have been removed we do not know, but we have great reasons to be grateful.

Miss Burdick is visiting her father at the Connell ranch.

Miss Maul Swager visited her grandmother, Mrs. Charles English, last week.

The Sunday school is progressing very nicely under the management of Mr. Shockey, with twenty scholars enrolled.

Deer Island needs a gun and rod club to protect the game, for at the rate hunters are conducting matters the game will be annihilated in a few years. The law is a dead letter with some, even the chief justice of Deer Island was seen hunting for ducks on the 10th inst.

If you think last Friday was not a hot day to be chargedly a farmer for hunting ducks on his land, just come around Close, Kalama and you will find out.

APIARY GLEANINGS.

Weather fine and business good.

Our two "Billies," Winters and Graham, are going East to spend the winter. We are sorry to lose them as they are both in good demand when winters come.

Business at the sawmill of L. F. Banzer will be delayed for a few days. The pump is so badly damaged that a new one will have to be substituted.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season came off last Saturday evening. Vin Wilson gave a ball at C. Wilson's sawmill. It was attended by people from all the adjoining precincts. The supper was the best the markets afford, and as to the music, John and Charlie know how to "saw" for a dance.

The latest "fandango" of the season came off Sunday. A party of ladies and gentlemen gathered at the Beaver falls, including our artist, which resulted in a fine photo of the party and the falls. All desiring pictures should apply to C. A. Girt, Apiary, Oregon. Price $1.

There has, of late, been complaints made against the Clatskanie mail route. This takes the cake. The first of this week a bag of potatoes containing a note, and a letter was sent from Clatskanie on the same day to Apiary. The freight arrived one mail day ahead. When it becomes necessary to bag up important mail matter and transmit it as freight in order to insure speedy delivery—we will give it up. Lazy Ned is beat. LAZY NED.

FROM CLATSOP BEACH.

This county like most of the forest regions on the coast, is almost inaccessible to visitors and settlers, on account of lack of wagon roads. It probably loses five hundred families per year for this reason. And, instead of gaining taxable property from improvements, remains for the most part a wilderness with nothing to tax, while the surface is substantially timber. Owing to windfalls, burns, etc., not more than half is timber worth preserving. The half left would make about 2000 excellent dairy and vegetable ranches. Efforts to open roads are, however, being made. The last important road, is now being viewed to cut

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary, the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma and all pulmonary affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. A. NOYNS, 520 Powers Block, Rochester, N. Y.

HOULTON.

The N. P. R. R. Co. are going to build a fine new bridge over Milton creek at this place. They already have several cars of lumber on the ground. The hoisting engine came today and they expect the crew to go to work in a few days.

Mr. E. L. Harrison, traveling auditor for the N. P. R. R. Co., called and gave Mr. Plummer an examination as to his proficiency to handle tickets and express business. As the examination was alright and his bonds satisfactory, he was appointed ticket agent and a ticket office formally opened with the promise of a freight and express office in the near future. Mr. Plummer has been doing all in his power for the past year to have tickets placed on sale at Houlton. ONE OF THE BOYS.

No law can pay a man's private debts, or put money in his pocket. These statements, as self-evident as they are, need to be repeated occasionally to those men who have an idea that it is possible to be idle and at the same time be prosperous, by means of legislation. The citizens support the state and it is only the paupers who are or who can be supported by the state.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's new discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from the first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as ever she was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Edwin Ross' Drug store.

THE ST. HELENS HOTEL.

This house, under the management of Mrs. McNulty, is complete in every detail as a country hotel. Every department has been thoroughly refitted and re-furnished. The tables are spread with everything the market offers, and the looking apartments are all that can be desired. A good horse and buggy is kept for the convenience of customers. Give the St. Helens a call.

Final Settlement.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that I, William Symons, Administrator of the Estate of Eleanor Reed, deceased, have filed in the county court of Columbia county, Oregon, my final account of my administration, together with my petition for distribution of the residue of said estate, and that the judge of said court has fixed Monday, September 7th, 1891, at 1 o'clock p. m., of that day, and the court room of said court as the time and place for settlement of said account and hearing said petition, when and where any person interested may appear and offer objections thereto.

WILLIAM SYMONS, Administrator of said estate. 31 34

NOTICE.

U. S. Land Office, Oregon City, Oregon, July 26 1891.—Complaint having been entered at this Office by James Sinton against August Holmgren for abandoning his Homestead Entry No. 7978, dated July 9, 1889, upon the S. W. 1/4, section 25, township 5 N. Range 3 W., in Columbia county, Oregon, with a view to the cancellation of said entry, the said parties are hereby summoned to appear at this office on the 29th day of Sept., 1891, at 10 o'clock a. m., to respond and furnish testimony concerning said alleged abandonment.
