

THE OREGON MIST.

United States and County Official Paper.

ST. HELENS, NOVEMBER 27, 1891.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

There is more ships in Portland just now than ever before at any one time.

The Bonita came down with the mail for Astoria Monday.

A. K. Wilson, representing R. W. Dunn & Co. mercantile agency, of Portland was in St. Helens Tuesday.

Judge W. W. Page, of Portland, was in St. Helens Tuesday last looking after legal matters.

Mr. Sam Rafferty, of Mountaineers, Washington county was in St. Helens Tuesday.

A motor line is to be built between Portland and Hillsboro, a distance of twenty-one miles.

Mr. H. P. Watkins is having extensive improvements made to his residence, making it considerable larger.

Messrs. J. S. Bacon and H. O. Hazen, of Gillton, were in town last Saturday night, in attendance at Masonic lodge.

Judge Wingert, of Reuben, was in St. Helens last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. D. C. Tedford has purchased an interest in the store at Rainier which has been conducted under the firm name of W. J. Muckle & Company.

Mr. A. L. Richardson, of Rainier, was a caller at THE MIST office last Friday.

Before going to Portland for your job printing give THE MIST a chance to bid on it. See our samples.

Mr. E. Copeland, of the Woodland Navigation Company, Portland, was in St. Helens Saturday last.

Messrs. Thomas Hodgkins and James Quinn, of Quinn, were at the county seat Monday on legal business.

The duck season is fairly on. Messrs Joseph Hayburn and H. Cox succeeded in capturing about forty fine birds last Sunday.

The property valuation of Portland and suburbs for 1891 is $50,000,000, being an increase of $19,000,000 over last year.

From the length of the court docket in Washington county the whole people of the county must intend to put in the winter at that lucrative business.

A horse belonging to Al Robinson came near bleeding to death Monday, caused by falling on a rock cutting an artery. It is uncertain as yet whether the animal will live or not.

A man by the name of Ole Dahl was examined at The Dalles a few days ago and pronounced insane. Dahl is a Norwegian and claims to own a ranch on Cedar creek, near La Center, Wash.

J. B. Beagle, editor of the St. Helens Mist, and wife, visited relatives in Hillsboro last Sunday. Mr. Beagle has improved the Mist until now it is one of the best local papers in the state.—Hillsboro Independent.

Mr. L. Samuel and Judge Page, of Portland were in St. Helens Friday last, the former representing the Equitable Insurance company, of New York, and the latter looking after legal matters.

Mr. C. D. Crandall, representing D. A. Budget, was in St. Helens Monday looking after the taxes for his firm. Mr. Crandall has examined the assessment roll in several counties of the state, including Washington, and says the roll of Columbia county is in the best shape of any he has yet seen.

The Emma Hayward, so well known to the old settlers along the lower Columbia, is again on her old route carrying passengers and mail to Astoria. The Hayward was taken to the Sound about six years ago where she has been in active service ever since until about six weeks ago she was returned to Portland where she has been thoroughly overhauled and painted preparatory to going on this route.

Many years practice have given C. A. Snow & Co., Solicitors of Patents, at Washington, D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents for all classes of inventions. They make a specialty of rejected cases, and have secured allowance of many patents that had been previously rejected. Their advertisement in another column, will be of interest to inventors patentees, manufacturers, and all who have to do with patents.

John August Buomela made proof on the e of se 1/4 and lots 5 & 6, sec 20, and ne 1/4, ne 1/4 of sec 29, tp 8 n., r 4 west in Columbia county. This is a tract of land which was purchased by Thomas Hodgkins from the state in 1889, as swamp land, and holds a warranty deed from the state for the same, and has filed a protest against the land office issuing a patent to the said Buomela. Buomela's filing dates back to January 2, 1886, but the protest sets up that the land was strictly swamp land as declared by the act of 1850 and therefore is not subject to homestead entry. This is a case that will be watched with marked interest as it involves thousands of acres of land in the state already deeded, and the final outcome will be the most important land case yet set up from Oregon.

The steamer Harvest Queen, on her way down last Friday, broke down between St. Helens and Portland and was compelled to tie up until the Mascot came along, by which steamer she sent her passengers and mail back to Portland; consequently we received no mail by boat on that day; neither did we get any mail up from Astoria Saturday. The Union Pacific has a number of steamers lying at the boneyard in Portland, yet the mail contract, for which they receive several thousand dollars a year for carrying, was violated for two days. There was no good reason why we should not have had the mail every day. If Uncle Sam would deal as strictly with the corporation as he does with the individual contractor our mail facilities would be in a great deal better condition. The Union Pacific and its predecessors have always treated the people along this route just as they pleased, and when complaint has been made would simply ask: "What are you going to do about it?" We long for the day when the Astoria mail will be carried by rail.

The social at the Masonic hall Friday night, as usual, was a success, the shadow market being good. The leading feature of the entertainment was the sale of the young ladies' shadows to the highest bidder for cash. A white curtain was drawn across the hall and the lady would stand between a lighted lamp and the curtain, thereby magnifying their shadow on the curtain, and the auctioneer, (who, in this case, was Mr. Wm. H. Dolman) would cry them the same as any other sale. The audience would bid on them, and after the purchase was made the successful bidder would have the privilege of eating lunch with his prize. One shadow brought $5 50, Walter Blakesley being the successful bidder. The supper was donated by the good ladies of the city and was excellent. The proceeds were about $30, part of which were applied to the organ fund. The organ for the school-house is now paid for. The entertainment is said to have been the most pleasant one of the season.

The Oregonian, at great expense, has prepared a sectional map of Oregon and offers it as a premium for subscribers to the Weekly Oregonian. The map is corrected up to date, is 10x50 inches in size; scale, six miles to the inch. It is neatly finished and on rollers, ready to hang up on the wall. This is the finest map of Oregon ever issued, and should be in every household in the state. Anyone sending $3.00 will receive the Weekly Oregonian for fifteen months (if the subscription is received prior to January 1, 1892) and one of these maps as a premium. The price of the map without the paper is $2.00. Address: Oregonian Publishing Co., Portland, Or.

The fall term of school closed Wednesday, after a successful three months run. There will be a vacation for the rest of this week and the winter term will commence next Monday. Professor Jones has given splendid satisfaction so far and has been re-engaged to teach the winter term, with Mrs. Way as assistant, having charge of the primary department. Mrs. Way has had considerable experience in teaching and will be an able assistant. If anyone from outside of the district desires to attend school here the tuition has been placed at $1 50 per term of three months. Remember the new term commences next Monday.

There seems to be a gang of thieves in this vicinity who make it their business to avail themselves of every opportunity to carry off such articles as they can get their hands on. Last Saturday night an entrance was effected to the warehouse and a keg of powder carried away. On the same night a boat belonging to Muckle Bros. was stolen from the wharf and has not yet been recovered; and also a valise was taken from the residence of Mr. Pat Hughes of Deer Island. They will steal potatoes, turnips, clothing, or in fact anything that they can get hold of. Look out for them.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. C. S. Emerson on Milton creek last Sunday, the contracting parties being Miss Jennie M. Emerson and Mr. J. H. Meranda. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. M. Burlingame, after which the gathering, composed of the many friends of the young couple sat down to an elaborate dinner which consisted of a variety of every thing that is good. The young couple left on the evening train for California, where they will reside in the future. The best wishes of THE MIST go with them.

A new schooner, the Charles R. Wilson, was launched about the middle of this month at Eureka, Cal., being named in honor of C. R. Wilson, a former millman of Beaver valley; is 138.6 feet length of keel, 36 feet beam and 11.6 feet deep. She will carry 500,000 feet of lumber, and is owned by the Wilson Bros., and will run between San Francisco and Gray's Harbor.

Mr. Charles English, of Deer Island, is seriously ill with intermittent fever. However, under the skillful treatment of Dr. Cliff he has somewhat improved. St. Helens was treated to a bear parade on the streets Monday last.

Yesterday was Thanksgiving Day, and from the deserted appearance of the streets about noon the turkeys must have been suffering in most every household.

Mr. L. V. Moore, the leading music dealer of Portland has an ad in this weeks Mist on the first page. Write to him for catalogue and prices. You will get the best rates going.

The following persons made proof on their claims this week: J. A. Buomela, Herman Hendrickson, on Monday; and on Tuesday Peter Buomela, Emil Luota and L. B. Hendrickson, all of Clatskanie, Oregon.

The national republican convention for the nomination of candidates for president and vice president will be held in Minneapolis, Minn., on the 7th day of June, 1892, this being the day fixed by the national committee at Washington last Tuesday.

Mr. Isaac H. Copeland, formerly of Gillton, but now of San Bernardino, Cal., who has been spending a few weeks visiting friends and relatives in Oregon, will start for his home in California in a few days. He is interested in fruit raising in that state, having an orange grove in the immediate vicinity of San Bernardino.

Advices from San Francisco state that the Southern Pacific's steam collier, San Pedro, is ashore off Victoria, B. C., with a large hole in her side. The San Pedro loaded a cargo of coal at the Union callery for San Francisco which was valued at $24,000, consigned to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company. The vessel is the largest of her class on this coast and is valued at $350,000 without any insurance on either vessel or cargo.

CLATSKANNE NEWS.

Charles W. Jones has gone to Astoria with his witnesses this week to make final proof on his claim in Clatsop county.

E. S. Bryant is spending a little time along the Columbia river on pleasure but with some bills in his pocket for collection to pay expenses.

John Campbell, the shingle man, has taken himself to Montana for a more lucrative field of labor.

A John Lindgren had quite a large supply of chickens for shipment on Monday brought in from Mt. Portland can have chicken for Thanksgiving; or if duck is preferred W. E. Conyers sent off a crate to the city by the same steamer.

The Bryant & Conway mill has suspended operations for a time owing to a scarcity of logs.

Rev. Barkley of the United Brethren church was in town on Sunday evening and attended the preaching service by Rev. Coats in Merrill's hall.

An annex is being added to the new city hall.

Bert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kelly, is quite ill from malarial fever.

The shooting match season is upon us again, and on Saturday the first contest of the season took place at Blood's. Samuel Graham was up from Marshland and carried off the honors by securing three turkeys. He had a very close second in Ernest Bryant, who got two turkeys and was not an inch off on the third one. Mr. Graham says he is getting old now and the boys ought to beat him shooting, but he does not find them able to do so yet.

The Mist of last week was scarcely fair in making the statement that the success of the entertainment on the evening of the 13th was not due to any effort on the part of the people of St. Helens. The lady and gentleman who favored us with their presence, both contributed to the enjoyment and success of the evening. Others were expected and would have been welcomed, but we felt grateful to the two who came.

On last Friday evening a social gathering convened at Conyers' hall and soon responded to the strains of music by indulging in the merry dance. The weather was very unfavorable without but seemed to have no terrors to those who wanted to hear the good music that had been promised. So far as heard from everything passed off pleasantly. Mr. Shute looked very sleepy the next morning, having been kept up most of the night supplying refreshments.

Judge F. A. Moore, of the county at, is spending a few days here in company with Mr. Mann, securing the right-of-way for the Astoria-Goble railroad.

Letters of administration have been taken out by E. S. Bryant for the estate of his father, the late E. G. Bryant, deceased. W. A. Edgerton, W. H. Conyers and Adam Barr have been appointed appraisers, and have been doing the work required of them in that direction.

Frank Merrill and family have returned from Deer Island and are now arranging the new house for their habitation.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. Bryant went over to Beaver on Sunday morning to attend the services, which was in the nature of a funeral sermon upon the death of Mrs. Rutter, whose death and burial were mentioned last week.

Our present mail facilities are much more satisfactory than the old mail route to Quinn's landing.

Roads are in a bad condition owing to the late heavy rains.

Strikeback, the wife-beater, was up before Justice West this week and will need to mend his ways or find himself in the law's hands.

A shooting match for turkeys will take place here today.

M. Englert has moved into town.

H. Barnett is now keeping boarding-house at Seapooose.

An old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner will be given in the church Thursday the 26th.

The report that San Jess scale exists in our orchards is questioned by good authority. At any rate the matter should be thoroughly investigated, and if the pest is here we should know it and prepare for its extermination.

Superintendent Watts will, this week, send out the clerks' and teachers' record books, etc., for the use of the various school districts during the next year.

William White, who left here last summer to prospect in Harney county has been heard from. He has located the celebrated Blue Bucket gold mine, which was known to early settlers, but afterwards lost.

H. Sharrington and family, long residents of this place, have removed to Portland where they will reside hereafter.

O. D. Garrison came down from Portland on a fishing and hunting trip last Sunday.

Whooping cough is reported in the upper settlement.

A good deal of attention is being given to setting out fruit trees this fall.

All kinds of produce is dirt cheap and money is scarce—well—and lo! taxpaying time is approaching.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hard, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could not live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Maker, determined I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at Edwin Ross' Drugstore regular size, 50c and $1.00.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary, the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge
