PACIFIC COAST.

City of Saints Has a Vilitation of Footpads.

WHITTING DICK IS DOING TRUCKEE

Honor—He is Regarded as a Veritable mascot.

Spokane is to have a $500,000 court house.

The Salt Works at Salton have begun operations again.

The steamer Keweenaw, 154 days from New York, has reached San Diego.

The Portland Smelting Works are to be run to their full capacity.

Sacramento's freetholders to form a charter have organized for work.

A most important find has been made in the Old Abe gold mine at White Oaks, N. M.

California will have 469,000 tons of wheat for export between now and the first of next June.

The closing of the Candler mines has considerably affected traffic on the Carson and Colorado roads.

So far $8,300 has been paid out as two weeks wages in an effort to raise the steamship La Pedro, on the rocks off Victoria, B. C.

A new evening paper is contemplated for Virginia City, "to be run independent of the mining companies and in the interest of the stockholders."

The violators of the game law in Oregon are many, and an association has been organized at Portland which offers a reward of $25 for the arrest and conviction of each offender.

The celebrated mining outfit of Gilpin was the Sierra Nevada Company, has ended in favor of the defendants at Boise City, Idaho. Gilpin, by an injunction, has kept the mine closed three years.

Harry Gath-hal, a well-known saloon proprietor of Astoria, is under arrest for running away with his sister-in-law's diamonds and jewelry and a negotiable note for $500. He was caught in Portland.

The chapel car Evangel is traveling through the Northwest in the service of the Gospel Army. It has been turned over to the American Baptist Sunday School Association, under whose charge it will be while on this coast.

Salt Lake City is overrun with footpads. Scarcely a night passes but from six to ten men are held up at night on the residence streets of the town. The police seem powerless to deal with the fellows. Anacondas is likewise troubled.

Johnathan Oldham, a carpenter of Seattle, lost what little cash he had at fair, and not satisfied with his ill luck, forged his wife's name to a certificate of deposit of $200. The paper was cashed and Mrs. Oldham will hold the bank responsible. The officials of that institution will prosecute Oldham for forgery.

The first full cargo of American tin ever produced from an American tin mine was received at San Diego last week from the Tamsel mines. The shipment consisted of 430 pigs, or 35,800 pounds. The output of the Tennessee mines is being rapidly increased, and American tin will be regularly put on market in car load lots.

Mrs. Delaguerra, the widow of Don Pablo Delaguerra, who was a prominent character in the early history of California, is suing for the plans on which the city hall of Santa Barbara now stands, a valuable piece of property in the center of the business portion, claiming the land by virtue of a grant made by the Ayuntamiento of the town in the 4th, and confirmed in 1865 by the City Council.

Whitting Dick is respected at Truckee as the luckiest man who ever entered the town. He has been shot at nine times by men who meant business, and has escaped the slightest injury. The other day he got in a dispute with a bartender, and was ordered to leave the house. Dick refused, and called the bartender a bad name. The latter pulled his revolver and fired at Dick point blank. Although hardly six feet separated the men, the bullet struck the door three inches from Dick's body. Dick turned and walked out of the door.

All the composers on the Oakland Times went out on a strike the other night. They state that about three weeks ago the proprietor of the paper left notes on the cases of several printers, saying that their services were no longer desired and warning them not to come around the office again. The men walked out quietly. A committee had an ineffective conference with the Times manager afterwards. It is understood that the printers asked for reinstatement of the discharged men and the manager refused.

The first failure, caused by the unusual condition of the grain market and the drop in charter rates of ships, occurred at San Francisco one day last week. Lowenthal, Livingston & Co., shipping and commission merchants, were attached by ship owners for money due on unfiled charters and attachments. This money for the general failure of the firm. The formal attachment was for $10,137, but this is but a small part of the money due by the firm. The Sheriff took possession of the office, receiving some $3,000 or $4,000 on hand in cash. Lowenthal, Livingston & Co., were dealers in salmon, and have an interest in an Alaskan cannery. They shipped canned salmon to B. B. Crooks & Son, a large and very wealthy firm of Liverpool. Mr. Lowenthal said today that as a result of the attachment the firm will either make an assignment or go into liquidation for the general protection of all creditors. "The failure is due to all causes," he said, "the fall in the price of salmon, and the fall in charter rates." The debts of the firm are $50,000 or $70,000 to ship owners and $100,000 due Robert Crooks & Son. The amount of the assets will be learned in the court proceedings. The failure of Lowenthal, Livingston & Co. is not likely to cause any bankruptcies among the ship charterers.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Ives, a Convict in the Massachusetts Pen, Has Translated Eight of Dumas' Novels.

Arthur James Balfour, the English leader, is a bachelor and about 43 years old.

Count Herbert Bismarck's resemblance to his great father is said to grow more striking as years roll on.

Captain J. Wall Wilson, a survivor of the Kane Arctic expedition, is hale and hearty despite the loss of a toe in the ice.

Gilbert Beckett, the humorist, who recently died, was a man of sweet and gentle disposition, though a life-long invalid.

Dr. Charles C. Abbott has found a cave of slate in New Jersey in which were discovered vestiges of the life of pre-Columbian man.

Professor F. Nichols Crouch, the composer of the music for "Kathleen Mavourneen," now lives in Baltimore at an advanced age.

Although Horace Greely died ninety years ago, letters to his address are still received every now and then at the New York Tribune office.

The czar's famous minister, M. de Giers, is now in bad health, suffering from the painful disease which carried off the last Emperor of the French.

William H. Lovers homely fare. He insists on having on his table every Thursday a dish of mashed peas, mixed beef and sauerkraut to be eaten together.

In Boston the remarkable shock of hair which Paderewski, the pianist, wears has led somebody to remark that he looks like a human chrysanthemum.

Mr. McDermott, nephew of the late Mr. Parnell, who acquired fame by horsewhipping Timothy Healey, is said to be the best waltzer in Dublin society.

Mrs. Hodgson Burnett has called a new-born home that she has founded "Lionel's Home," to perpetuate the memory of her son Lionel, the original of "Little Lord Fauntleroy."

Field Marshal Von Moltke was in the service of the Sultan of Turkey between 1836 and 1841. During that time he wrote several essays on Oriental military affairs and the geography of Asia Minor.

Mr. Du Maurier, the famous social caricaturist, has been for some time without the sight of one eye and the other is considerably affected. His work is done on a large scale and reduced by the engraver.

Dean Swift did not consider critics immortal. He once said: "If the men of genius would resolve never to complain in their works of critics and directors, the next age would not know that they ever had any."

G. B. Ives, the young ex-assistant district attorney of Essex county, Mass., who is now serving a sentence in Charleston State prison for extensive forgery, has translated eight of Dumas' novels for a Boston publisher since his term of imprisonment began.

Stovr, the sculptor, and Hooker the banker, are among the most conspicuous Americans in Rome, the latter gentleman having lived in the Eternal City about forty years. The American colony there numbers about 2,000.

Dr. William F. Poole thinks there is no doubt that Shakespeare died of too much conviviality at and after the wedding of his daughter Judith. It is as astonishing that there should be so much certainty about this detail of his life which is otherwise almost entirely conjectural.

NATIONAL CAPITAL.

To Purchase the Collection of "Historical Information Concerning the Western Half of America."

The office of Assistant Chief of the Weather Bureau has been filled by appointment by Secretary Rusk of S. S. Rockwood, Chief Clerk of the Department of Agriculture. Henry Casson, Private Secretary to Secretary Rusk, was appointed Chief Clerk.

The President has issued an order for the removal of Samuel D. Warmcastle, Collector of Internal Revenue for the Third District of Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, and designating Deputy Collector Mitchell to perform his duties temporarily. Warmcastle is charged with neglect of duty.

Senator Frye has introduced a bill appropriating $500,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to purchase the collection of "Historical Information Concerning the Western Half of America," consisting of books, pamphlets, maps, mss, etc., about 10,000 in number, and known as the Bancroft Library, and situated on Valencia street, San Francisco.

Senator Hansbrough has introduced a bill in the Senate authorizing the Postmaster-General to extend, when practicable, the free delivery system to the rural and farming districts. The bill authorizes the Postmaster-General to expend such portion of the amount that may hereafter be appropriated for the compensation of postmasters as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of the act.

Representative Wilson says he feels perfectly assured of getting through one public building for Washington. Representative Sweet, of Idaho, who is on the committee, says that he observes that the Washington Senators have indicated little for four cities and that he does not think more than one will pass. In that event he naturally favors interested in Spokane, as it is the city nearest his home, and one which his people would naturally expect him to favor.

The Treasury Department has received applications of late from bankers who wished to have the 4 1/2 per cent. bond-extended at 2 per cent. for the purpose of increasing their base of circulation. The applications have all been refused, as Secretary Foster holds that to permit it after his circular, naming the date when such 4 1/2 could be presented for continuance, would not be in effect, it would be to revise dead bonds, as under the law the 4 1/2 per cent. bonds do not now bear interest, and cannot, therefore, be used as a basis of bank circulation.

EASTERN ITEMS.

THE GRANGE ON UNCLE SAM.

Land Containing Aluminium Does Not Render it Subject to Entry Under the Mining Laws.

Keeley's gold cure has been applied to the tobacco habit.

Rabbits are so thick at Burleigh, Pa., that the trains run over them.

An electric road is to be built across the Potomac at Washington.

A movement is on foot to organize a naval battalion at Portsmouth, N. H.

Natural gas is being discovered in abundance in Western Pennsylvania.

The overhead electric system is to be used by New Orleans street railways.

The State debt of Pennsylvania has been reduced $2,538,352 during the year.

The American District and Mutual District Telegraph Companies have been consolidated.

The project of draining the City and the Valley of Mexico has been temporarily abandoned.

Iowa State Grange thinks Uncle Sam should run the liquor business as he does the postoffice.

This year's hop crop is much larger than last year's, but owing to lower prices will net less money.

The Illinois State Board of Agriculture reports that winter wheat has been greatly damaged by drought.

The Grand Army of the Republic in Indiana will probably erect a monument to the late Governor Hoey.

A rich vein of silver and gold ore has been found on Monasnock Mountain, near Colebrook village, N. H.

Ex-Secretary William Windom's portfolio decreases the new $2 note just put in circulation by the Treasury Department.

A member of a commission to negotiate for Indian lands in Wyoming declares them to be utterly useless for settlers.

The railroad and express officials are considering preventative methods to protect their trains from future attempts at robbery.

W. H. Winans, a wealthy farmer, prominent in church, social and political circles at Franklin, Pa., has been arrested on a charge of burglary.

About $27,000,000 in gold has been returned to the United States from Europe since the movement in this direction set in three months ago.

The Vice Consul from Japan at New York has made an appeal for the assistance of those who are suffering from the effects of the great earthquake.

The Interior Department has decided to pay Round Valley Settlers whose land was taken for use as an Indian reservation about $300,000 in the aggregate.

Harvard's Committee on Athletics has entered Princeton on its baseball and football schedule for next season. Hitherto Yale only has been recognized by Harvard.

The great bridge in course of construction over the Mississippi at Memphis is to be completed by May 1, when it will be opened with formal and imposing ceremonies.

Millionaire Thomas Cornell, the Hudson river steamboat man, left a will and cut off his son-in-law. The legal fight against the will has begun. The estate amounts to $5,000,000.

The grip is epidemic in Philadelphia. Physicians assert that the number of cases is almost as great as at any time last year, but that the disease is of a much milder type.

The December report of the Department of Agriculture giving the conditions of the crops is not flattering to the growers of winter wheat. The average condition is reported at 85 1/2.

John Hoey, late President of the Adams Express Company, has made restitution to the company to the amount of about $500,000. This is not what Hoey owes, but all the company could get.

The railroads of Mexico employ a large number of Americans in positions of responsibility, and when an accident occurs that results in the loss of life the Government feels hard with the person or persons in fault.

A scheme is on foot to prevent destruction of coast lines during storms by constructing iron pipes or tubes into the ocean at frequent intervals and discharging crude petroleum through them into the troubled waters.

The recent heavy disbursement for pensions have reduced the Treasury cash balance to $33,128,315, of which amount $13,364,491 is on deposit with the national banks and $19,763,824 is in subsidiary coin.

The eating of dog flesh to cure consumption is quite a fad at St. Albans, Ind. In one case the diet in a few days has been beneficial, and now several people who are afflicted with the disease are trying the "remedy."

William Peake, ex-City Treasurer of Kansas City, who was charged with having embezzled $20,000 of the city's money, was acquitted Saturday week. It was shown that the clerks in the office got away with the money.

In a decision rendered by the Commissioner of the General Land Office it is held that deposits of clay valuable for aluminum or for the manufacture of pottery ware does not render the land containing such deposits subject to entry under the mining laws.

A law suit in Chicago has brought out the fact that the various middlemen and promoters of the syndicate sale of the Milwaukee and Chicago breweries, nearly a year ago, received no less than $5,250,000 of the $11,000,000 in stock and bonds paid by the subscribers.

EDUCATIONAL.

Kansas to Have a Quaker College—A School of Special Instruction for Dull People.

Young women are not allowed to graduate from German universities.

The students of Brown University are to try the experiment of running a daily college paper.

Texas learning has been made the target for many a shaft, yet the State has a school fund of $100,000,000.

In Ecuador and several other South American nations, primary education, at least, is compulsory.

The University of Michigan had last year 105 more students than Harvard University. This year Harvard has 118 more than Michigan.

Washington, Kas., is to have a Quaker college. When $25,000 shall have been raised a start will be made on the foundation.

At Harvard 210 courses are offered in the liberal arts and sciences. It would take a student forty years to pursue all these courses.

Mrs. M. H. Hotchkiss of Lakeville, Conn., has given seventy-five acres of land and $275,000 to found a preparatory school for Yale College.

That is a pleasant innovation of the trustees of Columbia College whereby the public is to be allowed to attend many of the courses of lectures.

Professor Totton, in a military lecture at Yale, remarked that the average age of the 110 men in the class was twenty-one, and he added: "Upon graduation you will have before you about forty-eight years apiece."

There are at present 132,000 colleges and schools in India for men, with 8,026,300 students, but there are only to be found a few hundred schools of low vocational standards and half a dozen colleges for women, with 294,261 students.

Three thousand women of Greece have signed a petition to the government asking that public schools of art and industry be established for women, and claiming that the failure of Greece to meet the expectations of its well-wishers is due to the backward condition of its women and their nonparticipation in public affairs.

University extension is producing a good effect, not only upon its students, but also upon its lecturers and teachers and upon the student body of the universities. College presidents are already finding that the men who go out as lecturers in the university extension courses are doing better work in their own classes. The effort to please and instruct a promiscuous and popular audience reacts upon the university class-rooms; the individual needs of the students are more carefully studied; the teaching is modified to meet them, and professor and student come into more sympathetic relations. All the large universities report increased numbers; and experience is proving that university extension tends to create a university influence and that university extension means university extension.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.

Coal Palace to Be Erected—Estimated That the Fair Will Cost All of $31,000,000.

It has been signed out that the World's Fair will cost $31,000,000.

Ludwig Wieler, a member of the Lower House, has been appointed Commissioner to the Chicago World's Fair by the Cape Colony.

Seranton, Pa., coal operators are going to build a Palace at the World's Fair out of anthracite coal.

The Pennsylvania display at the Chicago exposition will cost $200,000. The State appropriated $300,000.

The Latin-American department of the World's Columbian Exposition has received information at Washington that the Republic of Columbia has issued a decree appointing a commission to take special charge of its display at Chicago. The members are all well-known, influential persons. Carlos Martinez is the president, and the other members are Vincent Restero, Gonzales Ruse, Nicholas E. J. Fassa, Carlos Calderon and A. D. Cummil.

The special High Commissioner of the Chinese Empire has arrived at New York from France. He is Chu Yow Sing, attache of the Legation in Paris, and comes by direct appointment of the Peking Government to investigate the question of the Chinese exhibition at the World's Fair. To a World reporter Chu Yow Sing said it was his first visit to this country. "I do not know the intentions of the Chinese Government," he said, "concerning the exhibit at the World's Fair. I understand that the Government declined to exhibit, but my instructions are to make searching inquiry into the conduct and probabilities of the exposition. I suppose the Government's decision would be influenced by my report. I want to see what preparations have been made, and above all, to try to learn just what interest the American people take in the fair. If China makes any exhibit I think it will be a creditable one."

Scarcely anything has yet been done toward securing an adequate representation of Austria-Hungary at the Chicago World's Fair, says a Vienna dispatch. The Reichsrath has voted 65,000 florins, but the proposal is regarded as pathetic on the subject. Austria, representing the Vienna Chamber of Commerce, the Industrial Association, the Export Society, the Arts and Craft Society, the Museum of Trips Arts and the Merchants' Syndicate, have had a conference, at which the subject of the amount to be appropriated by the government for the Austria-Hungary exhibit was discussed. Herr Thurn announced that the government would ask the Reichsrath for an additional 55,000 florins, but the delegates were unanimous in declaring that at least 300,000 would be required. "We are very doubtful," he expressed of the Reichsrath listening to the suggestion of so large an amount. A commission will probably be appointed early in January to take charge of the Austria-Hungary section of the fair. It is expected that the Austrian Consul-General in New York, Herr Pallatich,
