CLATSKANIE NEWS.

Christmas day was a merry one in-leed in this town. Snow covered the ground in the morning and sleds were ground in the morning and sleds were brought into use, furnishing plenty of anusement for both children and adults, while the battles with snow-balls made the town ring with shouts and laughter, indicating more sport than had been enjoyed this winter. When the day ended the snow soon disappeared, but it made a day long to be remembered.
