THE ASTORIA RAILROAD.

For twenty years Astoria has wrestled with the railroad problem. For twenty years Astoria has talked railroad because talk didn't cost anything. For twenty years Astoria has invited propositions from Eastern capitalists, entertained and accepted sixteen different ones. Individual residents of Astoria, have expended thousands of dollars to wine and dine railroad builders, who hadn't had a square meal for six months, but because their grandfathers were acquainted with men who had built railroads and they represented a syndicate. For twenty years Portland has been fighting every railroad proposition ever inaugurated and by their influence have smothered them all. This talk of building railroads has been left as legacies to the progenies of our race and become an heir-loom in many families in Astoria. Anxious mothers who have rubbed the boys' stomachs for cramps, discovered when too late, that it was only wind on the stomach caused by the father being an advocate for years of a railroad to Astoria. It has become a hereditary taint unfitting the rising generation for any other pursuit in life. Too much paregoric and soothing syrup has been consumed.

There is one way to build a railroad to Astoria. There is only one way to build it. Dwyer will not build it. The Goble people can build it, and have a proposition all ready to submit to the trustees as soon as the Dwyer contract expires. They held an important business meeting in this city, Friday, at which meeting the matter was fully considered. The Goble people mean business and are prepared to talk business.

The property owners in Astoria have selected three good, honest, representative men as trustees, and entrusted them with 1000 acres of land, with instructions to enter into contract with any reliable company for the purpose of building a railroad. These men are John A. Devlin, F. J. Taylor and Geo. Flavel. If the property owners who have subscribed to the land subsidy will authorize the trustees to turn the subsidy over to the Goble syndicate and enter into contract with them, work on the road will be commenced within thirty days.—Astoria Herald.

FROM our latest advices with reference to the Chilian troubles, we are again led to understand, that an amicable settlement will be made. However, the interest of the people throughout the entire country is none the less abated, but on the contrary, has increased to that extent that they are more than ever anxious to be made acquainted with the whole facts, which have been unnecessarily kept from them so long. The president, we think, has had sufficient time to come to some decision in the matter, so as to inform congress clearly as to the situation, and at the same time express his views and offer any suggestions as to a course that this government should pursue. Congress is evidently waiting for this, and if not forthcoming, should demand that the entire correspondence, and every matter and thing connected with the controversy be laid before that body at once. This, we can safely assert, is the universal sentiment of the American people.

EX SPEAKER REED is quoted as saying that neither Blaine nor Harrison would be nominated for the presidency in 1892, and says: 'I do not believe the chances for either Harrison or Blaine are as good as some dark horse not yet mentioned. While Mr. Blaine is not an outspoken candidate, the action of the party leaders industriously importuning his candidacy and ardently advocating his cause receives his approval. The Blaine forces will persist in contention, and the Harrison faction will not succumb to any compromise measure in favor of the former. The contest will grow more heated and bitter as the time for the convention approaches. I feel certain the result will be similar to that of the convention of 1880, at which James A. Garfield was nominated. The bitter feeling between the factions would be modified and the whole party harmonized by the nomination of a dark horse." Mr. Reed ought to be good authority on this point, but we believe that the American people are so closely allied to the policy advocated and executed by Secretary Blaine that the Harrison faction will cut but a very small figure in the contest. If the convention was tomorrow and Mr. Blaine would openly permit his name to be used he would be nominated on the first ballot; in fact the opposition would sink into insignificance at the very mention of his name.

THE much-talked of special edition of the Oregonian is at hand, being presented to its readers Tuesday last. The edition contains twenty-eight pages, handsomely illustrated, showing some of the principal buisness houses and manfacturing establishments of the city of Portland and a general synopsis of the progress of its suroundings during the past year. Printed on a new press with an entire new dress of type the Oregonian is a model publication.

JAMES LOTAN, chairman of the republican state central committee, has issued a call for a meeing of the committee in Portland on February 3, for the purpose of fixing the time and place for holding the state convention, to apportion the deligates among the several counties, and to recommend the time for holding county conventions. It is desired by the chairman that each county be represented.

CLATSKANIE NEWS.

Gus Player spent a few days in town last week and left on the Shaver Monday night for Knappa, where he is employed at the Howitson logging camp.

Norman Merrill and daughter spent part of last week in Portland and Woodland, Wash.

Rev. H. C. Coats and family left Friday night for St. Helens, to attend quarterly meeting for this circuit.

Frank Merrill and wife are in Mist, where Frank is taking an invoice of stock in the store. A partnership is anticipated, with Fred Gates as junior partner.

R. C. Fritz blows no more in the brass band, he having left early last week for Jackson county, to repair fences and otherwise look after the farm. He expects to be absent about six weeks.

The Clatskanie hotel has again closed its doors to the traveling public and turned its patronage over to its competitors.

If the weather was a little colder, a few men would be better suited. These are the men who are cutting up some of our large trees into cordwood and trying to sell all they can.

Mrs. S. Lindgren leaves this week to join her husband in Oakland, Cal., where they will probably spend the winter.

J. W. Fouchee, of the colony, was in town Monday.

Miss Katie Schloth came in on the Shaver Monday evening to visit her parents and exchange greeting with old friends. Katie has friends here, as a gentleman across the way is willing to testify.

A. M. Tichenor has been taking charge of the school subscription list for the past few days and has met with very encouraging success, so that the building of a new school house in the near future may be looked upon as pretty well established, and this without bonding the district. If the delinquent tax payers come to the front now and promptly pay off the last assessment roll, the matter will be put in much more encouraging shape. An effort will be made to induce the non-resident tax payers of this district to subscribe the amount of their taxes for a couple of years, to avoid debt and insure success.

One of our worthy gentlemen from the suburbs, who does not see without glasses as well as he used to, was quite mistified and disturbed by a sign he saw placed in a conspicuous position in front of one of our business houses. He read it "Lunge," and said to himself, "what does that mean?" Lunge! Lunge! "What an odd sign." As he thought it over he came to the conclusion it must be a new name for a saloon or some disreputable occupation, and going into a business house near by, said with a good deal of warmth, "What kind of a place is this up here where the sign, Lunge, is hanging out?" "What sign," said the clerk. Why, L-u-n-g-e, spelling it out, a ridiculous sign. I'd like to know what it means. Well, said the clerk, don't you think you made a mistake in reading it? If you look carefully, or have your glasses on, you will find that the word is "lunch," instead of "lunge" and you certainly know what lunch means. Oh, is that it, said the man, and immediately his wrath abated as he felt that Clatskanie had not yet gone to ruin.

Rumors of approaching weddings begin to fill the air about here, until it really seems as though bachelors were fearful they would be put up at auction to the highest bidder, and have concluded to sell themselves in advance, selecting their own purchaser. We await developments, and will endeavor to keep your readers informed.

Our town was visited by a show on Monday evening, which came in unannounced as the steamer landed late in the evening. After some work in drumming up a crowd, a fair sized audience assembled in Conyers' hall, and were generally pretty well entertained.

In contrast to the above it may be said that Rev. Baker, of the United Brethren church, has been holding a series of religious meetings in Merrill's hall, during each evening of last week and of the present. The attendance has been very good.

Norman Merrill is confined to the house from an attack of pneumonia.

Miss Laura Nichols was a victim of jaundice last week and has not yet resumed her natural color.

Word comes from E. D Tichenor that he has reached San Diego, Cal., and is delighted with the climate of that region.

The Future Manufacturing Suburd of Portland—Already a Pay Roll of $40,000 Per Month.

It is a well known fact that a manufactory, employing labor no matter where situated, is the nucleus of a city. The greater the number of employees, the greater the prospective city. The Krupp gun works of Germany, support a city of 96,000; the Pullman Palace Car Co., of Pullman, Ill., a city of 12,000. Oswego, Oregon, is in its infancy. Today the Oregon Iron & Steel Works, and other industries, make a pay roll of $12,000 a month. With an increase in the manufacturing output, the city increases in population. Population increases values of real estate; therefore Oswego offers today, to the careful investor, the very best field for investment. Oswego is only two miles outside the limits of Consolidated Portland. It has cheap train service of 8½ cents a trip, and eight trains a day; also six steamboats each way on the Willamette. Oswego is a beautiful site for a town. Oswego has a splendid 2,400 water power, which is offered to manufacturers for a term of years free, and land with it. Oswego has pure spring water in pipes over the town. Oswego has a beautiful lake where the pleasure-lovers of Portland will soon establish a summer resort. Property values in Oswego will advance rapidly and permanently as its future is founded on the development of the favorable location for manufacturing. Lots in Oswego invite the home-seeker. Lots sold on easy installments of $10 down and $5 a month. Ask the publisher of this paper to show you a plat of Oswego, or address a postal card to BORTHWICK, BATTY & Co., 71 Alder Street, Portland, Oregon.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D, we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my Lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could not live but a short time. I gave my self up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at Edwin Ross' Drugstore regular size, 50c and $1 00.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary, the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. A. NOYES, 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.
