Ogden has the tug-of-war craze.
There will be no extra session of the Idaho Legislature.
New Mexico will hold an irrigation convention at Los Angeles March 16.
The Sunset Telegraph Company will have two distinct lines from Stockton to San Francisco.
Candidates for municipal offices, to be elected this spring at Sacramento, are numerous.
There will be a much larger acreage put in sugar beets at Chino this season than last year.
Phoenix, A. T., is much disturbed over the disappearance of Dr. E. E. Powell, a well-known druggist.
Joe Crocker and George Dawson have been arrested at Los Angeles and charged with forging checks.
Philip D. Yesser, a stenographer at Phoenix, has been arrested on a charge of forgery at San Bernardino.
Eastern expert safe-crackers are doing work profitable to themselves at Los Angeles and the neighborhood.
The forger and professional wool-shipper, Robert Flato of Anthony, N. M., has been captured in Juarez, Mexico.
A vigorous policy is being adopted by Southern California horticulturists to prevent the importation of infected stock from the East.
A reward of $500 has been offered by the Governor of Arizona for the arrest of the murderers of Mrs. Morgan and Joe Miller near Tempe last week.
The Victoria, B. C., Council of the Board of Trade recommends that a fortnightly mail to the north be established, and the matter will be pressed on the Ottawa government.
The Y. M. C. A. at Fresno is in trouble. It has a number of unpaid bills, and the creditors have used legal means to secure payment. A keeper is in charge of the institution.
Captain Hewitt, master of the San Pedro, and Pilot Christensen are censured by the members of the committee that investigated the causes for the loss of the vessel near Victor a.

PERSONAL MENTION.
The Life of the Queen of Roumania Despaired of—Isben Lionized in Christiania.

London is to have a new woman's club, presided over by the Duchess of Teck.
It is reported that the doctors who are in attendance on the Queen of Roumania despair of saving her life.
Ex-Minister to Great Britain Vanx of Philadelphia, who has not been ill for forty years, has succumbed to a gripper.
Henry Clews, the New York banker, is in favor of making Saturdays in summer time whole instead of half holidays.
Mrs. Springer, the wife of the Congressman, is said to be his "best achievement," brightest accomplishment and most admirable quality.
Isben is lionized in Christiania, but they won't permit his plays on the boards up there. The "pillars of society" must be reasonably firm in Scandinaviania.
Mrs. Augusta Evans Wilson is living quietly at Spring Hill, a suburb of Mobile. The author of "Beulah" is said to be both to welcome Annie Rives as a rival in Southern literature.
Cornelius Vanderbilt is to be asked to take the Presidency of the New York Grant Monument Fund Association, and is considering the question whether or not he will accept the position.
The author of "The Light of Asia" inscribes his name on the hotel register as "Sir Edwin Arnold." Fastidious people may object to this, but it is certainly better than writing one's self down an ass, as some distinguished tourists have done.
Walter Crane, the English artist, openly announced sympathy with the Socialists while he was in Boston, but after he reached Chicago he did not find it convenient to affiliate with them. He has the withdrawal of invitations to a dinner in his honor in the modern Athens taught him something.
The families of the Queen of England, the King of Greece and the Czar of Russia have made arrangements to erect a handsome monument in Copenhagen in honor of the golden wedding of the King and Queen of Denmark. The model of the monument will be presented to the royal pair next May on the anniversary of the wedding.
Congressman Hatch is said to have cured himself of a strong taste for liquor years ago by adopting Edmund Burke's cure of hot water. He drank quantities of it, and thinks he derived great benefit from it. It stimulated him without any of the reactionary effects that follow stimulation from drinking alcoholic drinks.
Kylie Bellew is greatly changed, says Labouchere in London Truth. He is no longer the dapper, well-groomed Bellew who was known by the matinee girls as "Kylie." There is now a touch of the shabby gent about the once-debonair beau, and he has aged greatly, the hair which used to be only streaked with silver being now almost entirely gray.
Thompson was first moved to write verses, according to a special informant which the Boston Globe has recently obtained, when 16 years of age and upon a Sunday while staying home from church. The attempt was suggested by one one-else as a means of economy in his spare time. The task was undertaken, so this story goes, and with such success that the youth was encouraged to try further.

The Life of the Queen of Roumania Despaired of—Isben Lionized in Christiania.

London is to have a new woman's club, presided over by the Duchess of Teck.
It is reported that the doctors who are in attendance on the Queen of Roumania despair of saving her life.
Ex-Minister to Great Britain Vanx of Philadelphia, who has not been ill for forty years, has succumbed to a gripper.
Henry Clews, the New York banker, is in favor of making Saturdays in summer time whole instead of half holidays.
Mrs. Springer, the wife of the Congressman, is said to be his "best achievement," brightest accomplishment and most admirable quality.
