Representative-elect Norman Merrill, of Clatskanie, was at the county seat last Saturday.

Colburn's barber shop and millinery store will be closed from Sunday noon to Tuesday the 5th.

Rev. Fred Brown, of the M.E. church, will preach in St. Helens on the second Sunday in July.

Attorney W. J. Rice visited Hillsboro, Portland, Rainier and other points, on legal business this week.

The family of Mr. S. S. Way left Tuesday morning for Bunker Hill where they will spend some time camping.

Messrs. Cole & Switzer have adorned their office front with a neatly worded sign, calling attention to their business.

Mr. Mark L. Noble, representing C. F. Weber & Co., dealers in school furniture, etc., was in St. Helens Wednesday.

Mrs. J. George, as hostess of the St. Helens hotel, gave a festival to the school children of this place yesterday, which was heartily enjoyed by all.

Miss Frankie Way, who has been attending school in Portland, returned home last week. She passed a very satisfactory examination, and will be ready for the High school next fall.

Jas. Wharton was upon our streets Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Wharton, as one of the stockholders, informs us that the Kellogg company did not go into the steamboat combination.

The president has appointed John W. Foster, of Indiana, to succeed Blaine as secretary of state. He also appointed James Lotan to be collector of customs for the port of Portland.

Probate court will be in session next Monday and Tuesday. Commissioners court meets Wednesday. At this session the oath of office will be administered to the newly-elected county officers.

County Treasurer-elect E. M. Wharton, of Columbia City, was in town Monday. Mr. Wharton is largely interested in prune-raising, having planted last year 1200 young trees which are doing nicely, and in a few years he will have a profitable business.

Mr. Will Powell, of Pittsburg, who graduated at the State normal school at Monmouth last week, returned home on the 23rd of last month. Mr. Powell's average in all his studies was 98 per cent. This is the highest attained by any student at the school, and he is over proud of his showing.

Mr. H. G. Howard, of Milton creek, who suffered the loss of an eye some time ago by having a splinter from a circular saw driven into his head three inches, and who was pronounced hopeless by the physicians, is again at his post of duty, looking as well as usual, except for the scar under his eye.

Sheriff Meeker went to Scappoose last week and closed the saloon of C. R. Konkle & Co, on an attachment from Meyerfield & Ganz, wholesale liquor dealers of Portland. The resources of the saloon are a great deal more than the liabilities, but the wholesale firm did not seem to take this into consideration, and sumarily closed it up.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives more satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by Edwin Ross, druggist.

Many years' practice have given C. A. Snow & Co., solicitors of patents at Washington, D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents in all classes of inventions. They make a specialty of rejected cases, and have secured allowance of many patents that had been previously rejected. Their advertisement in another column, will be of interest to inventors, patentee, manufactures, and all who have to do with patents.

The Astoria & Portland railway company, through its attorney, C. W. Fulton, filed a mortgage in Columbia county for record Wednesday for $10,000,000. The mortgage is given on the stock of the railroad company to the Mercantile Trust company of New York, to secure the payment of bonds to be issued from time to time as is required to build the road, and are interest-bearing. We are not able to say what route the road will take, but it is thought it will follow the bank of the Columbia river.

The steamers Sarah Dixon and T. J. Potter will take an excursion party to Astoria and Clatsop beach next Sunday. The Dixon leaves Rainier at 1:30 a. m., Maygers 2:00 a. m., Scappoose 2:15 a. m., Oak Point 2:30 a. m. The Potter leaves St. Helens at 8:15 a. m., Kalama 9:00 a. m., Cathlamet 10:15 a. m. Fare, round trip, $1.75. No tickets sold after the Shaver goes up Saturday. Tickets for sale in St. Helens at Ross' drug store. Excursionists who go on the Dixon will have all day on the beach, leaving there at 6:30 Sunday evening for Portland.

A boy by the name of Romblaskie, whose father was killed in a logging camp on Milton creek last fall, and who has been working for Tony Barbour, on the Willamette slough about seven miles above St. Helens, was drowned last Sunday afternoon. The boy had taken off his clothes and was in a small boat paddling around when last seen by some men near by. After a little while the boat was again noticed but the boy was not in it. A search was at once commenced and his clothes were found. The slough was dragged and his body recovered Monday afternoon. It was brought to this place the same evening, and sent to his mother at Bunker Hill for burial. He was about 12 years old.

EIGHT DOCTORS FAILED.

To the public:—Seventeen years ago I commenced being afflicted with stricture of the urethra. As time passed I grew worse, until it was impossible to pass urine without a catheter. I have been under seven leading doctors in Portland and one in Victoria. Was in the hospital five months from the effects of one doctor's unskilful treatment. All the combined efforts and skill of the eight physicians were as nothing to me. June 4, 1892, I came under Dr. Darrin's treatment, and in two weeks went to my home at Monument, Grant county, Oregon, a well man. A. L. GUERIN.

Drs. Darrin can be found at 270½ Washington street, Portland, Oregon; the Review building, Spokane, Wash.; the Hotel Northern, Astoria, Oregon, from 10 to 5 daily, 7 to 8 evenings; Sunday, 10 to 12.

They make a specialty of the electric as well as medical and surgical treatment of all diseases of eye, ear, nose, throat, catarrh, deafness, bronchitis, la grippe, consumption, dyspepsia, heart, liver and kidney diseases. DEER ISLAND.

It is about time a school teacher was getting a situation.

The water is falling very rapidly and the indications are good for a large crop of wild hay.

Orchardists complain that the fruit crop is going to be short.

In using coal oil for destroying caterpillars great care should be used, as it is liable to kill the tree. Although a small amount will not damage the tree, and will kill the caterpillar.

A. A. Merrill is having quite a shedding done this summer, of about forty acres. Lyman Merrill is also having a good deal of slashing done which will be greatly to the appearance and value of his farm.

Deer Island will not celebrate on the 4th, but most of the young people will go to the city.

Mr. C. S. Rodgers has moved his steam shovel to Portland, where he has found some work for it. Mr. Rodgers is of the firm of Campbell, Wood & Co., railroad contractors.

The supervisor was putting up stumps last week; not for sale, but for kindling wood. There are a great many more stumps which could be used likewise, if the taxpayers would stand it.

Mrs. Osborn, of Iowa, is visiting her brother, Mr. Baumgartner, and intends staying out here until fall.

Several parties participated in the sport of carp fishing last week, but none were as successful as Mr. Baumgartner, who succeeded in spearing a dozen, while the balance of the crowd got none. It may be possible that the old gent could be induced to tell how it was done.

Haymakers appreciate the present hot weather, as it is fine weather to harvest their crop, which is excellent this year.

Messrs. Rainer & Hightel are taking a sawmill out on the Clatskanie, a distance of three miles from this place, and will begin cutting timber as soon as possible. The boys have secured a fine body of timber and will no doubt make their new enterprise a success. They have a small mill with a twelve or fifteen H. P. and a 44-inch circular saw and intend to ship by rail to Portland.

The farm residence of Chas. Muckle about five miles of this place, was burned to the ground on Wednesday night last.

HONOR TO JUDGE MOORE.

The Banquet Wednesday Night the Event of the Season.

As has been previously announced, the citizens of St. Helens tendered Supreme Judge elect F. A. Moore a banquet on Wednesday evening last. About 8 o'clock the friends of Judge Moore and family began to arrive at Masonic hall, which had been tastefully decorated by Mr. J. Ness and others for the occasion, and was a model of neatness and art. Immediately back of the stage hung the portrait of Judge Moore on the one side and that of James G. Blaine on the other; to add anything further in this particular would only be to say that the hall looked lovely. Seated upon the rostrum were Judge Moore, Judge Moreland, of Portland, District Attorney-elect W. N. Barrett, of Hillsboro, Judge Blanchard, of Rainier, T. C. Watts, W. H. Dobman, Jas. Muckle, and the following members of the committee in charge: Dr. H. R. Cliff, J. S. Cloninger, W. J. Rice and J. R. Beegle.

At 8:30 Dr. Cliff called the meeting to order and stated its object, after which he introduced the first speaker of the evening, Hon. W. N. Barrett, followed by Judge Moreland, Judge Moore, W. J. Rice, and Senator Tongue. Mr. Tongue was substituted in the absence of G. W. Cole, to respond to the toast, "To the Ladies," and to say that the senator went away more popular with the fair sex than when he came, is only uttering the sentiments of those present. At intervals between the speeches, instrumental music was furnished by Messrs. N. A. Perry, C. L. Colburn and C. F. Jones, to the delight of all. At the conclusion of the speech-making, there was another very important and none the less pleasant feature awaiting the crowd at the St. Helens hotel at which place the assemblage at once repaired. Here the crowd mingled together around the festive board, where each one felt that they could do justice to, or not. The table fairly groaned under the burden of good things, and a more good-natured crowd was never seen in St. Helens than were there gathered in social chat, and at the same time not forgetting their duty to host and hostess in attempting to not allow anything wasted. At the head of the table sat Judge Moore, and the face of a happier man we have never seen. Lack of space prevents us giving the names of all those present, so we will give the names of those only from abroad: Senator Tongue and Attorney Barrett, of Hillsboro, Dr. A. W. Moore and wife, of East Portland, Judge Moreland, of Portland, N. A. Perry and wife, Capt. A. Henderson and wife, A. B. Little and wife and mother, and Mrs. L. Meeker, of Houlton, Mr. Innes and lady, of Kalama, Judge Blanchard, of Rainier. Letters of regret were received from Hon. S. B. Huston, of Hillsboro, Judge McBride, of Oregon City, and W. H. Conyers, of Clatskanie.

After supper the banqueters returned to the hall and engaged in social conversation for some time, when the floor was cleared and dancing commenced by the young people, which lasted for a couple of hours, after which the crowd dispersed all feeling that their efforts had been appreciated by Judge Moore and family, and that the City of St. Helens had paid honor to whom honor was due.

SCAPPOOSE.

EDITOR MIST:—Your regular correspondent for Scappoose, having failed to recite to your readers the happenings of this unusually quiet burg, "Rusticus" will venture a word or two.

Of course is not necessary to say that the weather has been hot, yes, very hot; and will probably be hotter if no cooler weather gets here first, and also that the gardens are growing finely, and that haying is under way in good shape, and that the river is falling quite fast and dairymen are happy in consequence thereof, etc., etc.

The crop of fruit of all kinds is very limited, in fact many good orchards are bare of fruit altogether. Fruit-farmers in Oregon will please take down the "big red apple" sign so much talked about on "Oregon on Wheels."

Miss Maud Henderson is completing a four-months term of school in district 9.

Miss Bonser has finished a three months term of school in district No. 41.

Rev. Staub preaches here every alternate Sunday. His other appointment is Rainier.

The strawberry and cream supper at the church last week netted nearly $50 to the Ladies' Aid Society.

Watts & Price now occupy the large new store building on the corner of Stone and Railroad streets, and find business improving steadily.

E. H. Lynch has purchased the old store building of Watts & Price and has fitted it for a hotel and is doing a good business.

The McKay gravel pit is being operated by the railroad company. About 150 carloads of gravel per day are hauled to Guilds Lake, Portland, for ballasting.

The people of Scappoose will celebrate the Fourth of July with a basket lunch and barbecue, near the school house. In the evening a grand ball, under the management of J. M. Joy, will take place in Watts & Price new hall, where ten sets can occupy the floor at one time. A large turnout is being prepared for.

Charles Sumner has rented the blacksmith shop of S. F. Shattuck and finds plenty of work to do.

A thief burst in the rear door of Konkle's saloon last week, but the discharge of a shotgun in the hands of the night watchman, had a wonderful effect on the speeding qualities of the departing burglar.

Armstrong's brick yard is working in full blast and a large lot of good brick will soon be ready for the market.

G. Schmike is erecting a large residence on his Scappoose farm.

Large quantities of carp are found on the overflow lands adjoining the river, and dairymen are fearful lest they will eat all the grass, so they say.

A number of Scappoose people are to be found on the sheriff's advertisement of delinquent taxpayers. This looks bad for our prosperous neighborhood. Wake up, people, and pay your taxes before it is too late.

About election, we, I. e. Scappoose, had but one candidate on the tickets, and he was defeated. To say that we are indignant is too tame. We are simply real mad about it, and Scappoose will be heard from two years hence. RUSTICUS.

A HIENOUS CRIME.

Little Mamie Walsh Murdered at Milwaukie, Oregon.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week, Mamie Walsh, a child of 14 years of age living at Milwaukie, about five miles above Portland, went out in search of blackberries. When night came on her non-arrival at home caused considerable uneasiness, and a search was at once commenced for her. This was kept up nearly all night and resumed again early next morning. At length the body was found covered up with some bark and weeds about a quarter of a mile from her home. Further investigation revealed the fact that the child had been outraged and afterwards murdered. Different parts of the body showed mark of violence and about the face and neck there was a number of cuts and bruises. At this startling discovery the whole community became wild with excitement. A coroner was summoned and an inquest held, but the investigation failed to produce any clue to the villain, while suspicion rested heavily upon several persons who had been seen in that vicinity a little previous to the supposed time of the murder. In the meantime one or two arrests had been made, but no evidence of a substantial nature was obtained.

On Friday night a man giving his name as Jim Sullivan, got drunk at Hillsboro, and was arrested by marshal Lohman. On being questioned in regard to the matter, he confessed to the crime of having killed Mamie Walsh, and went into detail as to how he proceeded; what he did with her pail and hat; and in every way telling a very reasonable story of the murder. This was telegraphed to the authorities at Oregon City and Portland, causing great excitement, and a sigh of satisfaction went abroad that the wretch had been caught. Next day when Sullivan became sober, he denied all knowledge of the crime, or of having made any confession, and further said he had never seen the girl, or did not know the Lewelling family where she had been stopping. He explained that he was not on that side of the river on the day of the murder, and on his way to Cornelius he had talked with different ones, and could verify his statement by them, in each case giving their names. He said he was at Cornelius on Thursday and read the account of the murder in the Oregonian, which was the first he knew of it. However, Sullivan was taken to Clackamas county and lodged in jail.

Sunday the bucket that Mamie had been picking blackberries in was found within ten feet of the door of a man by the name of Rafes, who also had been arrested on suspicion. They also found a piece of wire which had been attached to the bucket, in a stump containing water, near by, where the body had evidently been washed after the crime was committed. This, however, the detectives did not put much faith in, as there had been ample time for the articles to have been placed in this position in order to fasten the guilt on Rafes, as the tendency seemed to be against him already.

Tuesday of this week George Wilson, of Milwaukie was arrested charged with having committed the crime, and brought to the county jail in Portland. He protested his innocence, and a rigid examination failed to reveal any clue to the murderer. He persisted in charging Rafes with the crime.

Weather and Crop Bulletin.

Our weekly report of the condition of the weather and crops for week ending June 28, 1892:

WESTERN OREGON.

Weather.—Tuesday the 21th was cool and showery, and from Wednesday the temperature has risen until Sunday and Monday when 90 degrees or more recorded through out this section, except on the immediate coast. This is the warmest weather so far this year. The sky has been cloudless and the winds have been northerly.

Crops.—Grain has grown and filled very well except in parts of Josephine and Jackson counties where it has been burnt along the coast, and in Douglas county and throughout the Willamette valley the grain is doing very well, though it is not as good as last year. The ground is becoming hard, and all vegetation would be benefitted by rain. Potatoes are doing very well and promise a good yield. Rasp and blackberries are now ripe. Strawberries are not as plentiful now as one week ago; they are going out of season. Cherries are ripe, and are of good quality, but not an average in quantity. Hop lice are present, but are very dormant, and it is hoped that the present warm weather may decrease them. Haying is being finished, the weather being very favorable to the operation. The fruit prospects are no better as for quantity, but the quality promises to be above the average.

EASTERN OREGON.

Weather.—Showers fell on the 22nd and frosts of varying intensities occurred on the mornings of the 21st and 22nd in counties east and south of the Blue mountains, which injured vines and tender vegetation to some extent. Since the 24th the temperature has been rising until Sunday and Monday when it was upwards of 95 degrees in almost every section. The wind has been from the north and the air is very dry.

Crops.—Conditions have not improved any. The rye yet is, and most likely there will continue to be, a gloomy outlook to the grain crop. In the central part of Gilliam county, the eastern portion of Umatilla county, and generally through Union and Wallowa counties, the grain crop is good, but in the other portions of this section the land is burnt; farmers are discouraged, and some will not obtain even their seed. The weather is cool for corn, but the late warm weather may give it more growth. Twenty-four hours of good rainfall would revive much of the damaged wheat. Barley and rye are doing better, as the rye will soon be ready to cut. Strawberries are ripening in Grant and other interior counties, where also alfalfa is being cut.

RIVERS.

The rivers have been falling for the past three days, and all danger of high water or higher water is now passed.

B. S. PAGUE,
Observer Weather Bureau.

RAINIER

It behooves correspondent to collect their scattered ideas, sharpen their pencils, and let the public know that the weather has been warm lately.

The eagle will screech here to the extent of a basket picnic, and other appropiate exercises in the beautiful grove. In the evening a grand ball will be given. A liberty pole 100 feet high is on the ground ready to be raised. The glorious stars and stripes and the patriotic youth with firecrackers will abound.

Our school closed two weeks since with a very successful and interesting program in the evening. To say that teachers and scholars did well, but feebly express the sentiments of the audience. The entertainment was an entire success from beginning to end and was greatly appreciated.

Professor Winnett is teaching his second term of singing school here.

Mr Blanchard is driving the piling for the new wharf in the lower part of town.

Mr. Harmer is building a neat cottage on his lots.

Misses Belle Perry and Leata Symon visited their friend, Anna Quigley, at Maygers this week.

C. W. Mayger and son were on our streets lately.

A number of our citizens enjoyed the recent excursion to Multnomah Falls, and also to Astoria.

Rev. M. Staub, of Scappoose, will hold service here next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bearce entertained a number of their friends at a card party recently, where some very enjoyable games of whist and euchre were played, after which much amusement was created by the endeavors of the company to supply a tail to a donkey, which the otherwise successful artist had failed to provide. Mrs. A. L. Deitz carried off the first prize for ladies, and Wm Huckeye the first prize for gentleman, while Mrs. Addie Bram and W. N. Forreste secured the booby prizes. To add to the enjoyment of the occasion an elegant luncheon was served to which all did ample justice. The rooms were tastefully decorated.

The high water is subsiding here leaving plenty of mosquitos.

The Suffolk shingle mill has got in a large raft of bolts ready for a long run.

Miles Sheerin, of the Boom company, has moved with his family to Rainier.

WHY ROYAL
Baking Powder is Best

"The Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure, for I have so found it in many tests made both for that company and the United States Government.

"I will go still further and state that, because of the facilities that company have for obtaining perfectly pure cream of tartar, and for other reasons dependent upon the proper proportions of the same, and the method of its preparation,

"the Royal Baking Powder is undoubtedly the Purest and most reliable baking powder offered to the public.
