

The Oregonist.

United States and County Official Paper.

ST. HELENS, AUGUST 5, 1892.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Edwin Ross spent Sunday in Rainier. Wm. Meeker and wife visited the metropolis Tuesday.

T. A. Cloninger, dairyman, of Soap-poo, was in town Wednesday.

Squire Blakeley paid a visit to Corvallis, Benton county, this week.

Clerk Quick visited Portland and Oregon City Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Flagg, of Salem, were in the city Monday last.

Dennis Perry, of Portland was visiting his parents here Sunday.

Superintendent Cleaton, of Vernonia, was in the county seat Sunday and Monday.

The steamer Dalles City passed down the river with an excursion on Sunday last.

J. H. Decker has ornamented his barber shop with a new chair; one of the hinge type with cushion bottom.

Professor C. H. Jones stopped off a few minutes at St. Helens Wednesday, while on his way to attend the teachers' institute at Clatskanie.

Joe Norton's crew of quarrymen are now working at La Center, Wash., in the quarry at that place, and will return to St. Helens in about three weeks.

We learn that Dr. Blanchard, of Gilliam is seriously ill. Also that Thomas Holce, of the same place, came near breaking his leg last Saturday while doing some hauling.

Twenty-one street-car conductors were arrested in Portland last week, the offense being that they were making more money than the company, having, it is said, been "knocking down" from one to five dollars per day each.

Will Parker, brother of Mrs. Edwin Merrill, of Deer Island, was drowned in Reed's mill pond at Cedar creek, Wash., Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Merrill left on the Dixon Tuesday, via Caples, to attend the funeral.

The county court could do a good act by offering a bounty on the scalps of grey squirrels, as they are very destructive to the grain crop. Mr. M. Saxon says they have destroyed about one-fourth of his grain this season, and many others make the same complaint.

Monday night in Portland the wholesale houses of Whittier, Fuller & Co. and Wadhams & Co. were partially burned causing a loss of about $280,000. The insurance only covers about one-half this sum.

Steamboat rates on the Columbia are again cheap. The Astorian is carrying passengers round trip between Portland and Astoria for $1. The Shaver and Dixon have a 50 cent rate between Portland and Skamokawa one way, and a corresponding cut has been made by the Telephone and Union Pacific; in other words it is cheaper to travel on the river than to stay at home.

Many years' practice have given C. A. Snow & Co., solicitors of patents at Washington, D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents in all classes of inventions. They make a specialty of rejected cases, and have secured allowance of many patents that had been previously rejected. Their advertisement in another column, will be of interest to inventors, patentees, manufacturers, and all who have to do with patents.

While the democrats made a trifling gain in the senate, they lost in the house, and they will have two representatives in the new state board of equalization, which convenes at Salem in December next. The state board of equalization is composed of the following members, by judicial districts: First, Dunlap, dem.; Second, Woodcock, rep.; Third, Gibson, rep.; Fourth, Lowndale, rep.; Fifth, Wingate, rep.; Sixth, Hunter, dem.; Seventh, Luckey, rep.

The regular customary growl about the sidewalk is being heard in St. Helens, and we don't wonder at it. They are pretty bad; the nails stick up just far enough to catch some unwary pedestrian, whose thoughts are soaring above the common plane of sidewalks. We have noticed a good many little accidents which have caused the unfortunate to utter some very bad oaths, meanwhile we hope the proper authorities will give some leisure time to this and grant a much needed relief.

Mr. George Merrill claims that he is not looking for an office, and that he is not a people's party man; yet he told the editor of this paper some time ago that only for the fact that he wanted to visit the world's fair next year, and should he have been unfortunate enough to have been elected, thereby preventing his attendance at the fair, he would have been a candidate on the people's party ticket for county judge at the late election. We presume by this that he had the reins of the party in his hands, as he could in no other way have controlled the nomination for judge. Consistency, where art thou?

As has been given out a formal organization of an Odd Fellows' lodge was perfected in St. Helens last Saturday night. The officers of the grand lodge were present and conducted the ceremony in a very impressive manner. In the evening the steamer Cricket brought a party of forty-two of the fraternity down from Portland to take part in the proceedings, which arrived at 9 o'clock. Immediately after their arrival business commenced at the newly furnished Odd Fellows' hall, and a lodge of twenty-four charter members was instituted. After the organization was completed the newly-made members and the visitors repaired to the Oriental hotel, where an excellent supper had been prepared for the occasion, and partook of the good things of the land. The visitors represented nearly every lodge in Portland and a number of them made very encouraging speeches during the evening. All seemed well pleased with the future outlook for St. Helens lodge No. 117, and at 2:30 o'clock in the morning took their departure for home, carrying with them the thanks of the St. Helens members for their attendance and assistance in planting such a noble institution in our midst. The new lodge has a splendid hall, nicely fitted up, and the future for it looks extremely bright. The regular meeting night is on Saturday of each week.

The little steamer Cricket, owned by Chief of Police Spencer, of Portland, brought a jolly crowd of excursionists down from that city last Sunday, where they enjoyed themselves during the day in a way most befitting. They spent most of the day at the grove near "Nigger" creek, and about 4 o'clock in the evening they came in to the ball ground, where they established a temporary croquet and baseball ground. Two nines were chosen with an equal number of ladies, and "play ball" was called by the umpire, while a number of others engaged in croquet. In the ball game nine innings were played, and the score was 22 to 29—very good for the ladies, as some of them seemed to have played the game before. At 7:30 the crowd boarded the steamer and were off for Portland. Among the crowd was a sister and nephew of Mrs. C. L. Colburn of this place.

The following clipping from the McMinnville Register is self explanatory: "We have been looking for the man who could surpass Bill Nye in exaggeration. Here it is: 'A farmer in Marion county says he has a snake which swallowed an eight-day clock in August, 1887. Until the clock run down its striking was regular and its ticking could be heard. A short time ago the farmer found some eggs that had been deposited in a hole by the reptile and on breaking them open found that each contained an open-faced watch in first-class running order. He sold the watches at a big profit and has now given the snake a post auger in the hope that it will produce enough corkscrews to enable him to start a wholesale drugstore.'"

Mr. Bolt Havard, of Enterprise, Columbia county, has been in the city this week for the purpose of investigating a claim against the estate of his stepfather, Mr. C. Stehman, deceased. It appears that when Havard was quite young, some thirty odd years ago, his father died and Stehman married the widow. It also appears that Stehman borrowed the money from the Havard estate, and there is nothing to show that he returned it. Now, that Stehman is dead and has no further use for the money, Havard intends to see if it cannot be made a claim against his estate, presumably with a view to protecting it against other claims.—Salem Democrat.

Attorney W. B. Dillard, well known to the people of Columbia county, returned to St. Helens last Saturday after an absence of several years. He spent some time in Virginia, after which he came to Southern California, but said he found no place he liked so well as old Webfoot. Mr. Dillard talks of permanently locating here and continuing the practice of law. Accompanying him is Mr. Goodshire, an attorney of Southern California.

St. Helens is becoming quite a resort for recreation seekers, a number of excursions having visited us this season. This is one of the most pleasant points on the river for those desiring a few hours' rest from city life, and if our picnic grounds were fixed up and a platform built for dancing purposes, we should no doubt secure a large number of excursions as it is just a nice ride from Portland.

An entertainment will be given in the church at Soap-poo by the Ladies' Aid Society on Tuesday evening, August 9th. Admission free. The programme will be literary and musical, followed by ice cream at 15 cents per dish. The church quilt will be raffled at that time, and a large attendance is expected.

Mrs. Robert, of this place, left last Friday for San Francisco, where she is visiting relatives.

Sheriff Massie paid Clatskanie a business trip Wednesday.

There will be a social dance in Soap-poo next Friday.

When you are in need of blank notebooks, call at THE MIST OFFICE. Price, 50 cents.

Brigadier-General H. B. Compton, of the Oregon National Guard, was in St. Helens yesterday, and in company with Mr. A. H. Blakeley, visited Camp Gibson, a mile out of town, on a trip of inspection. The general has visited and inspected every company in the state, and says that in most cases they are in very good condition, yet some are badly in need of clothing, apparatus, etc. The object of his visit to Camp Gibson was to select a suitable place for the encampment next year, at which time the entire militia force of the state will go into camp together.

The Bear Chase.

A report reached town Tuesday evening that there were two large brown bears in a canyon just back of town about a mile. Immediately a posse of "the braves" were organized, consisting of etc.—seventeen, all together—armed with guns, clubs, knives (to scalp with), and at once started in pursuit of the large game, accompanied by something less than a dozen of St. Helens' large canine population, which were never known to shirk their duty while on the trail (to the station). At Houlton a guide was secured and the would-be captors proceeded to the spot where the boasts had last been seen. No sooner had that place been reached than the dogs took the scent and were off in a jiffy down the gulch, through the thick brush, over logs, closely followed by Kendall and others of the bravest. From the noise made by the dogs and amid the shouts made by the men to each other of "All is well," the chase was fairly on. After some time a white cat was sighted on the higher ground by one who did not venture into the jungle, but fearing it might attract the attention of the dogs he did not shoot. A little later another of the conservative ones discovered a bear about midway of a tall fir, and the pursuers were at once summoned to the spot of observation, where "Make ready, take aim, and fire!" was in order. The echo of the shot had not died out before someone rushed headlong down the embankment to the foot of the tree to take the scalp and—dressed the wounds, but beheld the bear did not drop. The gunner being satisfied that he bored the bear through to daylight concluded that he had made a mistake; but just at this point another saw (?) a bear jump out of a tree (in fact bears were jumping in all directions) closely followed by a second one, and made across toward Germany Hill cemetery, and the dogs again gave chase. They did not go far, however, until darkness came on, and they returned to the hunters for fear of getting lost out in that thickly inhabited country of bears, cougars, wildcats, and section men. After a little rest and speculation as to who was the biggest sucker, the crowd returned home having had some of the most violent exercise they had enjoyed for some time, and to get even on the "bear" they made "beer" suffer on their return to town.

While at Big Island, Va., last April, I was taken with a very severe attack of diarrhoea. I never had it worse in my life. I tried several old-time remedies, such as blackberry wine, paregoric and laudanum without getting any relief. My attention was then called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy by Mr. R. C. Tinsley, who had been handling it there, and in less than five minutes after taking a small dose I was entirely relieved.—O. G. BURFORD, Harris Creek, Amherst Co., Va. For sale by Edwin Ross, druggist.

OREGON LAW MAKERS.

There Will Be Thirty-nine Republicans in the House and Sixteen in the Senate.

The returns are now all in the hands of the secretary of state and from them the exact composition of the next legislature is learned. The republicans will have a majority of twenty over all on joint ballot, the democrats, people, citizens and democratic-peoples having a total of thirty-five.

The republicans have a majority of seventeen in the house and two in the senate.

The senate is composed of 16 republicans, 12 democrats, 1 peoples, 1 citizen, 1 democrat-peoples; total, 30.

The house is composed of 39 republicans, 18 democrats, and 3 peoples; total, 60.

The democrats have made a gain in the fourteenth legislature of three—gaining four in the senate and losing one in the house. The republicans lose nine—two in the house and seven in the senate. Beckley, the democratic-peoples senator from Douglas, will add one more to the gain of democracy. The composition of the next legislature is here given accurately:

"Two years ago two of my family, a young man and a girl, had very severe and dangerous attacks of bloody flux," says John Cook, of Pilot, Vermilion county, Ill. "The doctor here was unable, after a week's time, to check or relieve either case. I then began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Improvement was seen very soon and my children arose in a few days from what I feared would be their deathbed. It is a grand, good medicine." For sale by Edwin Ross, druggist.

MRS. C. L. COLBURN,

AND

DRESSMAKER,

ST. HELENS, OREGON.

If you have flies on you, get some of the Tanglefoot fly paper at Ross' drug store.

I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the public, as I do to my friends and patrons. I used it myself after other well known remedies had failed, and it cured me in a few minutes. I recommend it candidly and cheerfully upon its merits, not from a financial standpoint, because I have others in stock on which I make a larger profit, but because Chamberlain's is the best remedy I know of for bowel complaints. There is no doubt about it, it does the work. —JAMES FORDY, druggist, McVeytown, Penn. For sale by Edwin Ross, druggist.
