

FREE TRADE AND PROTECTIVE TARIFFS DISTINGUISHED.

Now, there are two methods of levying duties upon imports. Our democratic friends wish us to follow the English method, which is to levy them for one purpose only—namely, to raise revenue. The republican party would collect duties upon imports for two purposes; first to raise revenue for the support of the government, and also at the same time to protect the industries and labor of our country from ruinous competition with the poorly paid labor of foreign countries.

The democratic or English method is to lay duties upon those articles which we cannot produce. They would restore the duty upon sugar, which we produce but little of and can produce but little of, on account of the character of our soil and climate; and they propose by this bill to take it from wool, leaving our farmers who raise sheep to compete in our market with the wool growers of Australia, Asia and the Argentine Republic.

The republicans, on the contrary, would levy duties upon such articles as we can produce in our own land, making the amount of duty equal to the difference between the price of labor in our own and foreign countries. And they would utilize our own raw material rather than buy raw material abroad. Thus would we raise revenue to carry on our government and at the same time maintain our industries and keep up the wages of American workmen.

We do not say to the foreign merchant, you shall not sell your goods in our market. But we do say to him, you do not fight our battles, pay our taxes, nor help to develop or enrich our country. You, therefore, deserve no advantage over our countrymen in our market. You pay 60 cents for labor where our employers pay 100 cents. You can consequently lay your product down in our market at 60 per cent. of what the American who pays good wages must receive. Therefore, to put him on an equal footing with you, it is necessary that you should drop 40 cents on every dollar's worth you sell to us into the United States treasury to help us pay our debts and support our government as an equivalent for the privilege of exposing your goods here for sale.

LIFE imprisonment in the Oregon penitentiary does not mean life by a great deal, if the prisoner has any desire to earn marks of credit for good behavior. The code defines a life sentence as follows: "If for the term of fifteen years any person has been sentenced to be imprisoned for life is reported by the superintendent to the governor to have earned two-thirds of the time allowed for the first five years of the time that he or she is confined and if the governor in his opinion believes the facts so reported warrant, he may grant a full pardon to said convict."

THE president has appointed Senator W. H. Allison, of Iowa, Senator J. F. Jones, of Nevada, Representative James B. McCreary, of Kentucky, ex-Comptroller Henry W. Camron, of New York, and General Francis A. Walker, of Massachusetts, as delegates to the international monetary conference. Two of the five are known to be free-silver men, and the others opposed. The conference is to meet in some European city at a time not yet designated.

THE Tribune at Bay City, Tillamook county, has suspended publication. The town is suffering a setback caused by the persistent efforts of a few real estate agents to boom that place. In most cases these "boom towns" never amount to a great deal, but when you see a town slowly growing up with the country surrounding it, you can feel assured that that town will never suffer a setback, on the contrary it will continue to improve.

WASHINGTON has secured little, if any, legislation of value that has not been procured through the aid of Oregon senators. The locating of the navy yard on Puget Sound by the last congress was largely through the aid of Senators Dolph and Mitchell, and this year the most important work of the session was almost wholly left to Dolph.

CONGRESS passed the bill last Saturday appropriating $2,500,000 to the world's fair.

Mrs. MARY E. HOVARD, traveling lecturer and book peddler, held forth to a small audience on the public square on Wednesday evening. If her book is as full of financial misrepresentations as her lecture, the reading may be satisfactory to that part of her hearers, who are staking their financial and political salvation on loans from the government at two per cent., but persons of intelligence who heard her effort, have generally concluded that some females make better book peddlers than lecturers on monetary science, as the lecturer professed to be on that subject. The services closed with an appeal for the almighty dollar. There was a liberal response from the faithful—Hillsboro Independent.

The press of the country generally condemns the severe punishment inflicted on Private Iama by Col. Streator.

Fruit Stealers.

The parties who have been visiting the grower's apple trees, and who also broke down the gate, should go a little slow as there is a law against this kind of thievery. Read what Lord Timothy Dexter says regarding the thieves who stole his fruit:

The following is copied from a "pronunciamento" issued by Lord Timothy Dexter against certain fruit thieves. The cutting was handed to a writer in the Beverly Times by John J. Dennis. When asked how long he had it he replied "100 years" which statement he modified by saying "every since I was a boy," and it is remarkable that he can repeat the array of adjectives "faster'n a hen can pick up corn."

"Whereas I, Lord Timothy Dexter, having been truly informed that several audacious, nefarious, infamous, intripid, night-walking, garden-violating, immature, porch-stealing rascals, all spawn of the devil, and rogues, and cubs of Satan, do frequently, villainously assemble themselves together in my garden, surely piping, fighting, hunting and swearing, roguering, duck-egg hunting, and illicit deeds which the modesty of my pen cannot express.

"This is to give you all notice, Delacarious, Capricaneous, Tularnunorinus, of whatever nation you be, return ye my fruit and property, or by the gods, the heathen gods, I swear I will send my son Sam to Babylon for blood-hounds fiercer than tigers and fleetier than the winds; and mounted on my horse, Lilla, with cutting sabre in my hand, I will hunt you through Europe, Asia, Africa, and America, until I can enter you in a cavern under a tree in Newfoundland, where Beelzebub himself could not find you.

"Hear ye, taterdemalions, thieves, vagabonds, lank-jawed and turn-bellied plebeans, that if ye, or any of ye, dare set your foot in my house or garden, I will deliver you to Charon, who will ferry you over the river Styx, and deliver you to the royal-arch devil, Lucifer, there to be drugged with sulphur of Caucasus, and roasted forever before the ever-burning crater of Aetna.

School Report.

Report of Bay View school, district No. 7, for month ending August 5, 1892:

Enrolled first day, 31; enrolled at present, 51; average enrollment, 41; total attendance in days, 726; average attendance daily, 36 and 3-10. Those regular in attendance are Ella and Walter Bacon, Floyd and Laura Puzey, Mabel and Rosie Harth, Edith, Katie, and Jasper Hazen.

We are very sorry to say that the attendance has not been more regular. Parents do not seem to realize what a detriment it is to their children to be absent from their classes for a single day, to say nothing of their being absent one or two days a week. They lose interest, and the most competent teacher cannot keep them interested. Therefore, if you would have the teacher advance your children, and make scholars of them, do not bar their progress by this one of the most hurtful devices.

Messrs. A. P. Usher and E. H. Girty have started up their logging camp on Sprague creek.

Miss Jessie Downs is absent this week attending the teachers' institute at Clatskanie.

Mr. James Gaitens was seen carrying two coal-oil cans filled with eggs on his way to Deer Island to ship to Portland.

Mr. Charles Caples and family, of Columbia City, accompanied by Hon. George McBride, of Salem, visited the Tide-creek dam last Sunday.

RAINIER.

Our school will soon open for the fall term.

Mr. W. M. Perry and Mrs. C. E. Walker attended the teachers' institute at Clatskanie, and report an entertaining and instructive session.

Mrs. M. M. Lewis, of Nebraska, is here on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bousch. She will remain here until the middle of September, when she expects to join her husband in Ogden, Utah, where they will make their home in the future.

Miss Mary Harmer is having a neat residence built on her lots in this city.

Mrs. E. J. Masters, of Kelso, is visiting friends here this week.

Mr. S. Stewart, of Martin's Bluff, paid a visit to his Beaver valley ranch one day last week.

Will Pomeroy attended the P.O. store during the absence of Mr. Perry.

Miss Mary Burke and Mr. Edwin Ross, of St. Helens, were in Rainier last week. The former a guest of Mrs. Muckle, and the latter visited Dr. Belt.

Dr. Griswold is here attending the needs of our people in the dental line. Although we consider ourselves a healthy community, Dr. Belt seems quite busy.

D. T. Bearce, of the firm of Reichardt & Bearce, is in Southern Oregon in the interest of his real-estate business. Mr. Reichardt, the senior partner, is in Chicago at present.

Mrs. F. M. Bachelor and daughter, of Portland, are the guests of Mrs. D. T. Bearce.

The many friends of Mr. B. F. Taylor will be sorry to learn that he injured his hand quite badly while working on Mr. Blanchard's flume.

Resolutions.

WHEREAS, we the teachers of Columbia county, feeling the benefits of the past few days spent in Clatskanie, and that our institute has been a grand success, even exceeding our anticipation, and—

WHEREAS, the success of said institute has been largely due to the hearty assistance and co-operation of the people of this city and vicinity, we wish to express by voice, while here, and by publication thereafter, our appreciation of the efficient assistance and kind interests shown toward this institute, therefore,

RESOLVED: That all who have aided in providing for, and entertaining the teachers while attending this institute, have received the notice and appreciation of every teacher in the meeting this day assembled. Especial thanks are due E. W. Conyers for the free use of his large and commodious hall, to Mrs. Merrill for the use of her piano, and to Mrs. Hall for the use of her organ, to the band and orchestra for music furnished, and to those who contributed recitations, music, and other aid. We also note the general good will toward our efforts, and the large attendance at the evening sessions.

RESOLVED further, That we have been greatly benefited by this meeting, and shall always hold in remembrance the several pleasant days spent at Clatskanie, and the kind hospitality given by its citizens.

RESOLVED further, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to each of the county papers for publication.

W. A. WOOD, Chairman Com. on Resolutions.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, Now Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his Stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Spenser, Gatawa, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Sold at Edwin Ross' Drug Store.

While at Big Island, Va., last April, I was taken with a very severe attack of diarrhoea. I never had it worse in my life. I tried several old-time remedies, such as blackberry wine, paregoric and laudanum without getting any relief. My attention was then called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy by Mr. R. C. Tinsley, who had been handling it there, and in less than five minutes after taking a small dose I was entirely relieved.—O. G. BURFORD, Harris Creek, Amherst Co., Va. NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Equalization will meet at St. Helens, in the Court-house, August 29, 1892, for the purpose of making an assessment of 1892. All claims for correction must be made before the Board. JUDSON WOOD, County Assessor.

I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the public, as I do to my friends and patrons. I used it myself after other well known remedies had failed, and it cured me in a few minutes. I recommend it, because I have others in stock on which I make a larger profit, but because Chamberlain's is the best remedy I know of for bowel complaints. There is no doubt about it, it does the work.—JAMES FORGY, druggist, McVeytown, Penn. For sale by Edwin Ross, druggist.
